Dear Group Leader:

The Washington County Historic Courthouse is now accepting applications from non-profit and service organizations to provide food sales and children's games at the 2014 "Log Jam Community Ice Cream Social and Amateur Talent Show." The event is Thursday, July 17th 2014, from 4:30 pm to dusk. This family-oriented event will take place on the grounds of the Historic Courthouse located at 101 Pine St. W., Stillwater. This free event attracts over 1,000 visitors each year. In the event of rain, the festivities will take place inside. If you provide outdoor games or races, it is weather-permitting.

Suggested ideas: Hot dogs, popcorn, face painting, hair braiding/beading, fishpond, ring toss, three-legged races, etc. All food sales (except individually wrapped product such as chips and canned/bottled beverages) require a valid food-handling license. The Historic Courthouse will sell penny candy, water, pop and 25-cent frozen novelties and root beer floats.

Water and electricity are available. A table will be provided to those groups who request one in advance. Set up must be completed by 4:00 pm and tear down completed by 10:00 pm.

If you are interested in raising money for your organization and having fun, please complete the attached application and return it by June 20th. Three to four organizations will be selected to provide a variety of products and activities.

For questions about this event, please call the Historic Courthouse at 651-275-7075.
