LAY SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

Lexington
THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

Believing and Behaving: Living Ethically in a Wobbly World

Do you wish that ethical debates in our society would create less heat and more light? Do you know how to debate moral issues? Do you wish you could be more persuasive, or simply figure out where you stand? This class will not resolve the moral issues of our day but it will help you better understand the process of moral deliberation.

We will learn the basic building blocks of the ethical process, the primary ethical theories most people use in argument (whether they realize it or not), and we will practice the process with each other.

Come prepared to talk about ethics in a spirited but respectful manner!
