

Masters Enrolment and Supervisors' Approval Form

Students enrolling in the MSocSc, MAppPsy, MA, MSc programmes must meet the criteria for entry:

- For Students enrolling in MSocSc, MAppPsy, or MA a PGDip(Psych), BSocSc(Hons) or equivalent degree, with a major in Psychology, and a B+ average across all of the Psychology courses within their PGDip(Psych), BSocSc(Hons), BA(Hons) or BSc(Hons) programme.
- For Students enrolling in MSc a B+ average across either 60 points level 300 psychology papers (2yr MSc) or 120 points level 500 psychology papers (1 yr MSc)
- All Masters Students are required to have the prior consent of two staff members (the chief supervisor being a staff member within this School) who have agreed to supervise your thesis/dissertation.

The School cannot guarantee your first choice of topic or supervisors. It is in your best interest to confirm supervisors and topic as soon as possible, and it is strongly recommended you do this before the Christmas period.

Please complete both pages of this form and return it to the Psychology Office. Enrolment in any thesis or dissertation paper will not be effected until supervisory consent has been obtained.

Students from other universities must attach a copy of their academic record.

Confirmation of acceptance into the programme will not be given until formal notification of grades is received. You will be advised in writing as soon as possible of the outcome of this application.
