Nicolas Broadbridge's 2011 California Tour

Nicolas Broadbridge joins us from the UK, where he has his home in Scotland and where he leads English Country Dances, workshops and balls, at the Glasgow and Edinburgh Assemblies, and beyond. Besides calling, he is particularly known for his research, publications and recordings of historically significant collections of dances and their tunes (see nicolasbroadbridge.com). We're excited to have him with us for the Fall Ball to share his interpretations of dances set to tunes of Henry Purcell.

We're also delighted that there will be many chances while he is here to discover further aspects of Nicolas's broad repertoire, in a variety of styles, all to the live music of our fabulous local musicians!

The two special events featuring Nicolas Broadbridge are the Fall Ball itself on the 19th (details on the other side) and an Advanced Workshop in Berkeley on the 28th (listing below). Also, there are several events from 11th to 28th November at which Nicolas will be calling in regular local dance series — please see bacds.org/NicolasBroadbridge for details.

Special English Dance Workshop For Advanced Dancers

Led by Nicolas Broadbridge with musicians Jon Berger (fiddle) and Rebecca King (piano)

... an opportunity to explore some more advanced ECD material, including some of Nicolas's own compositions.

Saturday 26th November, 2-5pm, at Christ Church, 2138 Cedar St., Berkeley.

Admission: $10 (BACDS members) and $12 (non-members)
