- Begin working on the UC application and Common application
- Review UC/CSU A-G requirements
- Visit a college campus
- Meet and learn from a special guest speaker from the Admissions dept at LMU

Meet the fantastic workshop leaders!

Dr. Cynthia Hoepner earned her Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Southern California, her Master of Arts degree in Education Administration from Colombia University's Teacher College and her Doctorate of Education from the University of California, Los Angeles. Prior to becoming the Principal at St. Bernard High School Dr. Hoepner served in a variety of positions at Marymount High school Los Angeles. These positions include Dean of Students, Assistant Academic Dean, Director of the College Counseling Office and classroom teacher. Prior to her work at Marymount, she served as the Assistant Director of Admissions at Vassar College in New York. Cynthia's enthusiasm for students is obvious in all she does and her energy is infectious to those around her.

Blanca Gonzalez has worked as an educator and counselor for the past 7 years. She has worked to prepare 21st century students to compete on the college level. While earning her Masters Degree in Counseling from University of La Verne she helped facilitate workshops geared to career building and has produced various Career fairs to help further student's career exploration.

Kasiopia Watts has served as a Vice Principal and English Teacher for 8 years. She studied abroad in South Africa, while receiving her education from San Diego State University. While teaching she has worked with College Board to provide College Readiness Workshops that cover topics from A-G requirements to entrance interview skills. Many of her former students have entered many UC's, Stanford and Columbia. She loves student activities, and has a passion for Education and Social Justice.
