Kathy Sykes
Senior Advisor for EPA Aging and Sustainability
Keynote Speaker

An advocate for smart growth and for active aging, Kathy chaired a committee comprised of federal agencies and national aging and public health organizations that developed the award program, Building Healthy Communities for Active Aging, to recognize community excellence in the built environment and promotion of active aging. She has worked to have environmental health and aging integrated into the Aging and Public Health Section of APHA. She holds a master's degree in Public Policy and Administration and a certificate in Health Services Administration from the University of Wisconsin-Madison.

Michelle Gethers-Clark
President and CEO, United Way of Greater Greensboro
Master of Ceremonies

Michelle is an accomplished corporate executive and community leader, as a senior vice president for American Express Company, as an entrepreneur with a consulting firm, and as a local author. She has held roles with global leadership responsibility in the US, Canada, Philippines, and India. Michelle earned a Bachelor's Degree from The School of Professional Accountancy at Long Island University. She is a Certified Public Accountant. Her accomplishments and career success have been featured in Ebony, Black Enterprise, Working Mothers, and Biz Life Magazines. Her recently published book, The Next Level, presents a perspective on leadership.
