WCNY'S 2nd Annual 'Women Who Make America' Awards

WCNY is accepting nominations for its 2nd Annual Women Who Make America Awards. We're seeking to recognize women ages 18 or older who are making a difference in any of the 19 counties* in WCNY's viewing area. Central New York has a strong connection to women's rights and a lengthy list of women who have been leaders in their fields. America benefited from the birth of the women's movement in Seneca Falls in 1848 and the efforts of women like Susan B. Anthony, Matilda Joslyn Gage and Harriet May Mills to secure equal rights for women. Women have and continue to be trailblazers in all walks of life. They are college presidents, mayors and CEOs of Fortune 500 companies; community organizers, inventors and innovators and stellar volunteers.

Any organization or individual within the WCNY's broadcast area is eligible to nominate a candidate for these awards using the official awards nomination form. All nominations will be reviewed by WCNY's Education Services Advisory and Community Public Affairs committees to determine the winners. Our Women Who Make America award-winners will be featured on WCNY television and radio, in social media and in a future issue of The WCNY Magazine. They will also be featured on WCNY's website, introduced through the words of those who nominated them. Lastly, they will be honored at a reception on March 7, 2014 at the Women's Rights National Historical Park in Seneca Falls.

The award criteria are simple. Nominees will be evaluated on their efforts in their own communities that help shape today's America. Their contributions should fall into one of the following areas:

- Arts
- Business
- Community Activism
- Education
- Medicine
- Sports
- Volunteerism

Nomination deadline is January 10, 2014. All nominations should be submitted to:

WCNY Attn: Education Department
