Organ Crawl in Lancaster

Saturday, 10 May 2008

Depart c. 8:00 am,

Arrive in Lancaster at 9:30 am

On Saturday, 10 May, we will head to scenic Lancaster, where we will have time to explore organs in four churches. In our own homage to "The Amazing Race," "Cannonball Run", and "It's a Mad, Mad, Mad, Mad World", our Philadelphia AGO caravan will be head to Lancaster by car pool. While we can't promise that Ethel Merman, Spencer Tracey, Burt Reynolds, Dom DeLuise, or Reichen Lehmkuhl will be joining us, we anticipate a delightful time with our Philadelphia AGO equivalents. By sharing our rides, we believe we can facilitate a number of departure points in the overall Philadelphia area, and ease the availability for all. (We

VOLUME LXX, NO. 9

D E A N ' S L E T T E R

As we wind down our year of events, I want to take this time to thank all of you for your support of our chapter. Being one of the largest AGO chapters is not easy, especially when our membership reaches far and wide. We have branched out into new territory over the last few years, both with success and non-success. But how are we to know if we don't try?

Alan Morrison

This rings true for our professional activities. Have you ever branched out into new territory musically? Have you been afraid of it? Or just think you weren't able? Or has it been just because you don't like it? Or THINK you don't like it? I'm not referring to any one particular style, but just something different from your norm. I'm not speaking of just organ music, but choral repertoire as well.

I currently have a student who is about to graduate at Westminster Choir College who told me at her first lesson she didn't care for 20th-21st Century music. My first thought was, "Do you know who you are studying with"? I have thrown myself into new music for the past decade or so. To make a long story short, she has learned, performed and embraced new music including two major works from the last few years. They are charming, serious and well-crafted works using a unique harmonic language. At her recent graduation recital, I felt very satisfied as she performed these works, NOT because I "converted" her, but because she was growing and learning that there is nothing really to be afraid of and to NEVER draw conclusions until you have done the work yourself. We have more than likely all witnessed disastrous performances (choral, instrumental etc...) of unusual repertoire that has a tendency to plant a bad seed in the back of our minds.

As I have said before, "Think outside the box." It keeps us fresh and unpredictable.

CHAPTER EVENTS IN REVIEW

Professor Michael Marissen, Alan Morrison (Dean) and David Beatty (Sub-dean) at Philadelphia lecture.

Philadelphia, PA March 7, 2008. Michael Marissen, the Daniel Underhill Professor of Music History at Swarthmore College presented a lecture about his research on Handel's Messiah, focusing on material originally published in his article, "Rejoicing against Judaism in Handel's Messiah" (The Journal of Musicology, Vol. 24, Spring 2007). Professor Marissen also discussed his forthcoming book on the texts of Bach's oratorios that is scheduled for publication this August by Oxford University Press. There was ample time for questions and further discussion following the lecture. --Elizabeth Cochran

MEMBERSHIP RENEWAL TIME BEGINS AGAIN

For all members of the Guild, our current 07/08 membership year will end on June 30th, 2008. As in the past, the Philadelphia Chapter begins its own renewal drive in April and May so that members can complete the process by July 1st, when the new 2008-2009 membership year will begin. Dues amounts have not changed from last year, although many costs for our projects and general operations have gone up, as many of you well know since you experience this every day in your own lives. We have truly appreciated your membership this past year and hope that we have offered to you a variety of recitals, concerts, lectures, workshops, placement services, information and assistance to constantly broaden your musical interests and to help with your professional needs. We do hope that you will renew as soon as possible in this process to insure that there are no gaps in our services to you (both on local and national levels). Please consider taking the following actions at your earliest convenience:

1. As soon as your renewal form arrives, please give it your immediate attention.
2. Update/correct all your personal data that appears on the form (if it has already changed or soon will).
3. Determine the appropriate membership category for you, especially if your age or circumstances are different.
4. Consider supporting the chapter as a Patron, which allows a much greater scope of events to be considered by our Planning and Executive Committees.
5. Indicate on the form if you desire to be on the 08/09 Sub List, and contact Allen Popjoy (Sub List Coordinator) about it as well.
6. Send the form to me at your earliest convenience, along with check/money order or school ID if required.

Note, however, that none of the above can take place if you do not receive a form from us to start. If no renewal form reaches you by mid-May, PLEASE inform me as soon as possible so that I can send you another. Thank you for doing this sooner than later. If for some reason you cannot renew for 08/09, kindly give me a call or send an email to let me know your intentions so that we don't need to send you reminders or bother you with a phone call.

Rates for all membership categories are as follows:

Any organ builder can give you a few pieces of the puzzle...

In the thirty-five years since Allen pioneered digital sound, a lot has changed. Then, digital was revolutionary, today it's everywhere. Still Allen continues to lead the way in groundbreaking technology and customization for your needs. The realism of Acoustic Portrait™ and the versatility of Quad Suite™ are just two examples.

Quad Suite™ provides four completely different organ specifications in one console. No hidden stops to program to pistons, no guesswork when you play. Just four clearly marked, easily accessed, professionally balanced stop lists at your fingertips, only from Allen.

Acoustic Portrait™ is the only sampled reverb offered in any digital organ. The final piece of the digital puzzle has been completed. While all digital organs offer sampled sound, only Allen offers sampled space. The difference between it and the conventional digital reverb is—quite simply, startling.

Only Allen offers the whole picture.

Allen, Always a perfect fit.

"M My Johannus Sweelinck 17 is a versatile continuo instrument as well as a practice instrument. The easy transposition enables me to play with instruments for which A is at a pitch other than 440. The instrument includes a sampled harpsichord in a choice of voicings.

Early music comes alive with the Werckmeister III and meantone temperaments. Yet the same instrument magnificently accommodates the performance of romantic and contemporary repertoire. Chuck Nelson addressed my particular requests for such a versatile instrument that has become a centerpiece of my living room."
