TRADITIONAL CATHOLIC BOOKS SINCE 1983

SPECIALIZING IN USED AND OUT-OF-PRINT TITLES

JULY/AUGUST 2010

CATALOG 149

Dear Friends and Benefactors of PCP,

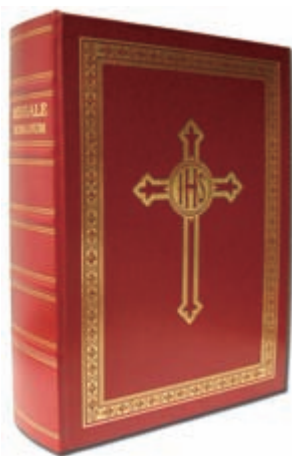

Our new expanded catalog brings to you more hard-to-find secondhand Catholic books, many no longer in print and impossible to find elsewhere. The new "Catena Corner" brings you an excerpt from the fabulous four-volume set on Christ's teachings. There is also a new special section for the soon-to-be beatified John Henry Cardinal Newman, who prophetically analyzed many of the issues of our day. We've also added improved descriptions of newly reprinted books along with book images, so you may get a better understanding of the benefits they bring.

This month is especially exciting as we bring out our new deluxe edition of the Blessed Be God. It's a little thinner and has a new even more beautiful cover. We've called it the Swiss Army knife of prayer books in our advertising for good reason. Brian Pouliot gave me my first copy as I went to visit my aunt in the hospital. The prayers for the sick and the dying turned out to be an enormous blessing, Deo Gratias. Many use it as an inexpensive missal. It has wonderful meditations on each section of the Mass as well as the litanies and prayers you need throughout the year. If you have never heard of Blessed Be God please check it out, you won't be disappointed.

May God Bless you now and in eternity.

Legend of Abbreviations: Each book is identified by name, author, year published, number of pages (p) and price. "IL" stands for illustrated and "pb" for paperback where applicable. Condition of each book is identified as follows: (E) Excellent, (VG) Very Good, (G) Good, (F) Fair, (P) Poor. "Bi" and "Pg" refer to binding and pages respectively.

Duplicate copies & refunds: Because we specialize in used and out-of-print books, we frequently have only one or two copies of many of our titles. We mail out thousands of catalogs, so order early to secure the book you want!

Holding policy: Books reserved by phone are held for our customers and are mailed as soon as possible after receipt of payment. Books for which payment has not been received after fifteen days are made available for sale to other customers.

Reprints: In addition to our used books we also offer a selection of new books, usually reprints of formerly out-of-print works. These are listed in the Reprints section near the catalog's end. Discounts on quantity orders (applies only to books in print, not to used and out-of-print books) are available: 10% on orders of three or more copies, 20% for ten or more.

Printed catalog & website: Our printed catalog offers many of our newly acquired titles, while our ABEBOOKS.com webstore contains all the cataloged inventory that does not appear in the most recent printed catalog. We invite you to examine each of these inventory lists – the printed catalog because it offers the most recent acquisitions, and the webstore because of its more extensive listing of approximately 4,000 titles, or more than 7,000 books.

THE CATENA CORNER
A SHORT LESSON FROM THE CATENA AUREA
ST. LUKE VER 32- 36

PG 219, THE CATENA AUREA, ST. THOMAS AQUINAS

Edited by John Henry Newman

32. For if ye love them which love you, what thank have ye ? for sinners also love those that love them.
33. And if ye do good to them which do good to you, what thank have ye ? for sinners also do even the same.
34. And if ye lend to them of whom ye hope to receive, what thank have ye ? for sinners also lend to sinners, to receive as much again.
35. But love ye your enemies, and do good, and lend, hoping for nothing again ; and your reward shall be great, and ye shall be the children of the Highest: for he is kind unto the unthankful and to the evil.
36. Be ye therefore merciful, as your Father also is merciful.

CHRYSOSTOM: The Lord had said that we must love our enemies, but that you might not think this an exaggerated expression, regarding it solely as spoken to alarm them, he adds the reason, saying, For if you love them which love you, what thank have ye? There are indeed several causes which produce love; but spiritual love exceeds them all. For nothing earthly engenders it, neither gain, nor kindness, nor nature, nor time, but it descends from heaven. But why wonder that it needs not kindness to excite it, when it is not even overcome of malice? A father indeed suffering wrong bursts the bands of love. A wife after a quarrel leaves her husband. A son, if he sees his father come to a great age, is troubled. But Paul went to those who stoned him to do them good. Moses is stoned by the Jews, and prays for them. Let us then reverence spiritual love, for it is indissoluble. Reproving therefore those who were inclined to wax cold, he adds, For sinners even love those which love them. As if he said, Because I wish you to possess more than these, I do not advise you only to love your friends, but also your enemies. It is common to all to do good to those who do good to them. But he shews that he seeks something more than is the custom of sinners, who do good to their friends. Hence it follows, And if you do good to those who do good to you, what thank have ye?

BEDE: But he not only condemns as unprofitable the love and kindness of sinners, but also the lending. As it follows, And if ye lend to those from whom ye hope to receive, what thank have ye? for sinners also lend to sinners, to receive as much again.

AMBROSE: Now philosophy seems to divide justice into three parts; one towards God, which is called piety; another towards our parents, or the rest of mankind ; a third to the dead, that the proper rites may be performed. But the Lord Jesus passing beyond the oracle of the law, and the heights of prophecy, extended the duties of piety to those also who have injured us, adding, But love your enemies.

CHRYSOSTOM: Whereby thou wilt confer more upon thyself than him. For he is beloved by a fellow servant, but thou art made like unto God. But it is a mark of the greatest virtue when we embrace with kindness those who wish to do us harm. Hence it follows, And do good. For as water, when cast upon a lighted furnace, extinguishes it, so also reason joined with gentleness. But what water is to fire, such is lowliness and meekness to wrath; and as fire is not extinguished by fire, so neither is anger soothed by anger.

GREGORY OF NYSSA: But man ought to shun that baneful anxiety with which he seeks from the poor man increase of his money and gold, exacting a profit of barren metals. Hence he adds, And lend, hoping for nothing again, etc. If a man should call the harsh calculation of interest, theft, or homicide, he will not err. For what is the difference, whether a man by digging under a wall become possessed of property, or possess it unlawfully by the compulsory rate of interest?

Basil: Now this mode of avarice is rightly called in the Greek (omitted), from producing, because of the fruitfulness of the evil. Animals in course of time grow up and produce, but interest as soon as it is born begins to bring forth. Animals which bring forth most rapidly cease soonest from breeding, but the money of the avaricious goes on increasing with time. Animals when they transfer their bringing forth to their own young, themselves cease to breed, but the money of the covetous both produces an increase, and renews the capital. Touch not then the destructive monster. For what advantage that the poverty of to-day is escaped, if it falls upon us repeatedly, and is increased? Reflect then how canst thou restore thyself? Whence shall thy money be so multiplied as that it will partly relieve thy want, partly refresh thy capital, and besides bring forth interest? But thou sayest, How shall I get my living? I answer, work, serve, last of all, beg; any thing is more tolerable than borrowing upon interest. But thou sayest, what is that lending to which the hope of repayment is not attached ? Consider the excellence of the words, and thou wilt admire the mercifulness of the author. When thou art about to give to a poor man from regard to divine charity, it is both a lending and a gift; a gift indeed, because no return is hoped for; lending, because of the beneficence of God, who restores it in its turn. Hence it follows, And great shall be your reward. Dost thou not wish the Almighty to be bound to restore to thee? Or, should He make some rich citizen thy security, dost thou accept him, but reject God standing as security for the poor ?

Chrysostom: Observe the wonderful nature of lending, one receives and another binds himself for his debts, giving a hundred fold at the present time, and in the future eternal life.

Ambrose: How great the reward of mercy which is received into the privilege of divine adoption! For it follows, And ye shall be the sons of the Highest. Follow then mercy, that ye may obtain grace. Widely spread is the mercy of God; He pours His rain upon the unthankful, the fruitful earth refuses not its increase to the evil. Hence it follows, For he is kind to the unthankful, and to the evil.

DOUAY-RHEIMS HAYDOCK BIBLE LEATHER HARDBACK EDITION

The classic Douay-Rheims version with Fr. George Haydock's invaluable footnotes is back in LEATHER HARDBACK! First published in 1884, Fr. Haydock culled his informative comments from the Fathers and Doctors who lived in the early centuries of Christendom, closest in proximity to the lives of the Apostles.

Digitally remastered to ensure an exact duplication of the original text, this new hardback edition includes the Illustrated Bible Dictionary and a history of the books of the Bible in one volume. Undoubtedly a collectors item for many years to come, this unique English edition of the Douay Rheims Version has been printed on fine bible paper with gold-embossing (duplicated from the original edition) on a burgundy-colored leather bound cover. Includes a satin ribbon marker.

1968 pages, 8½" x 11", #55721. Yours for only $125.00!

VACCINATION AGAINST MODERNISM!

DENZINGER'S SOURCES OF CATHOLIC DOGMA

In this age of doctrinal latitude and speculative innovation there is a pressing need for a comprehensive source book on authentic Catholic dogma that is magisterially anchored while at the same time both practical and non-voluminous. We believe that the Fr. Heinrich Denzinger's The Sources of Catholic Dogma fits the bill.

Freshly reprinted on fine natural-colored paper and handsomely hardbound in a navy blue cloth cover with silver embossing on the cover and spine, this important theological reference book makes a great addition to any bookshelf, always ready for referral! 205 pages, cloth hardcover, sewn binding, and dust jacket, #55712. $32.00

BLESSED BE GOD

The most popular American Catholic prayer book... is back as a Premium Deluxe Edition!

AMERICA'S FAVORITE CATHOLIC PRAYER BOOK went through several editions, the last in 1960, which we have just reprinted as closely as possible to its original specifications. While this reprint INCLUDES such hi-quality features as a bonded leather softcover, rounded corners, sewn binding, gilded page edges, a marking ribbon and more, you're probably just wondering what's printed inside.

This ALL-TIME CLASSIC prayer book comes LOADED with prayers and devotions CHERISHED BY GENERATIONS OF AMERICAN CATHOLICS! Along with the usual array of morning and evening prayers, litanies, novenas, etcetera, also included are more rare devotions for Holy Days, Special Feasts, Holy Week, Ember and Week Days, Seasons and Months of the Year, and more! For EUCCHARISTIC DEVOTION, an entire collection of prayers exists including a Holy Hour and the famous Forty Hours' Adoration once practiced in every parish church! For its diversity of uses, we've nicknamed it the "SWISS ARMY KNIFE OF PRAYER BOOKS".

This incredible POCKET-SIZE PRAYER BOOK also includes the Ordinary texts (in Latin and English), Sunday Epistles and Gospels (English only), Requiem and Nuptial Mass propers (in Latin and English) FOR THE TRADITIONAL LATIN MASS, and even Sunday Vespers and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. Great for school children! Half the price of a daily missal, many adults prefer the Blessed Be God as their missal.

Peppered throughout with symbolic lithographs, the hi-quality scans of this book's text matches that of the original printing. We've even ensured that this reprint is current with the traditional 1962 Missale Romanum by inserting an updated Table of Moveable Feasts (good till 2041!) and St. Joseph's name in the Roman Canon. 754 pages, 6 1/16" x 3 1/4" (spine thickness is just under 5/8") #55722. A $150 value that can be yours for just $34.00!

The First Part of the Mass, or the Mass of the Eucharist

The term "eucharistia" designates those who have been receiving religious instruction, but have not yet been admitted to Baptism. In the early days of the Church these candidates were allowed to be present only for the first part of the Mass, being dismissed just before the Offertory. This preparatory part of the Mass consists: (1) of the prayers, and meditation of time, made at the foot of the altar; (2) of the prayers which the priest says on going to the altar, namely, the Introit or entrance hymn, Kyrie, and Gloria; (3) of the Collect, or prayer, expressing the central thought of the feast; and (4) of the lessons of instruction chosen from the Epistles and Gospels. The Mass of the Eucharist commences with the Nicene Creed, which is said on Sundays and greater feasts.

The purpose of the Mass of the Eucharist is threefold: (1) to praise God; (2) to pray for the various needs of the Church; (3) to sanctify the faithful.

1. PREPARATORY PRAYERS AT THE FOOT OF THE ALTAR

In nomine Patris, In the name of the Father, or of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.
