2008 Football Game Notes

Saturday, Oct. 4

Maryland at Virginia

(4-1, 1-0 ACC)

(1-3, 0-1 ACC)

Kickoff: 7 p.m. ET Location: Charlottesville, Va. Stadium: David A. Harrison III Field at Scott Stadium (61,500)

FIRST-AND-10 ...

- After opening the conference season with a come-from-behind road win, the University of Maryland travels to interstate rival Virginia Saturday. Maryland rallied from 11 points down last weekend in its ACC opener to post a 20-17 win over No. 20 Clemson. It was the Terps' biggest comeback since coincidentally rallying from 20 points down to defeat Virginia two years ago. The Terps will now try win their fourth straight and move to 2-0 in the league against the Cavaliers who have won seven of the last eight meetings between the teams in Charlottesville. Maryland and Virginia will kick off at 7 p.m. from Scott Stadium. The game will be telecast nationally on ESPNU and can be heard over the Terrapin Sports Radio Network. Comcast SportsNet Mid-Atlantic will replay the game at 7:30 p.m. Sunday.
- By beating No. 20 Clemson, Maryland has now won four consecutive games against ranked opponents (AP poll) dating back to last season, having also defeated No. 23 Cal on Sept. 13, as well as No. 8 Boston College and No. 10 Rutgers in 2007. The Terps are also one of just three teams nationally so far this season to knock off two ranked teams. East Carolina (No. 17 Virginia Tech. Aug. 30; No. 8 West Virginia, Sept. 6) and Alabama (No. 9 Clemson, Aug. 30; No. 3 Georgia) are the other two teams.
- The win over Clemson has moved the Terps into the national spotlight as they are receiving the most number of votes (46) among those teams not listed in the Associated Press top 25. Maryland is receiving votes (40) in the USA Today poll for the second straight week. The Terps received votes for two weeks last season, but were last in the national polls (No. 21 in the AP) prior to meeting Boston College on Nov. 18, 2006.
- After scoring 86 points over its previous two games, the Maryland offense had to grind it out against Clemson, posting 123 yards on the ground and 172 through the air. Sophomore Da'Rel Scott, who ranks 16th in the nation in rushing (111.5 ypg), headlines the ground attack (182.4 ypg) which ranks fourth in the conference. Junior All-America wide receiver Darius Heyward-Bey is the Terps' top playmaker, averaging 20.8 yards per reception and 31.0 yards per rush. Junior QB Chris Turner directed his fourth win over a top 25 team Saturday and ranks fourth in the league in passing efficiency (129.6). Opening holes for the running game and protecting Turner is a veteran offensive line which returns six of its top seven performers from a year ago, including senior center Edwin Williams, a member of the watch list for the Rimington Trophy and Lombardi Award. Senior Dan Gronkowski, a member of the preseason watch list for the Mackey Award, has posted eight receptions over the last three games, including two for touchdowns.
- After surrendering 260 total yards and 17 first downs to Clemson in the first half Saturday, the Maryland defense clamped down and turned in an exceptional second-half performance. The Terps limited the Tigers to no points, 112 total yards -- including just 26 rushing yards -- and only two first downs during the final 30 minutes. It marked the first half of football this season in which Clemson was held scoreless. Seniors Jeremy Navarre, Dave Philistin and Kevin Barnes help key the defense, though first-year starting linebacker Alex Wujciak has also made plays for the Terps. He has posted 26 tackles over the last two games, including a career-high 16 vs. Clemson. Barnes ranks in the top 10 in the ACC passes defended, while Philistin ranks 11th in tackles (7.8 pg).
- The Terps special teams unit has been an improving unit through the early part of the season. Sophomore punter Travis Baltz and senior place-kicker Obi Egekeze are both in their second seasons as starters. Baltz, a freshman All-ACC choice last season, ranks second in league in punting (44.2 ypp), while Egekeze has connected on his last five field-goal attempts after missing his first five. Sure-handed senior Danny Oquendo is the punt returner for the third straight season, while redshirt freshman Torrey Smith has emerged as a play-maker as the kickoff returner. Smith, a reserve wideout, is averaging 25.4 yards per return which is third in the conference.

Release as of Oct. 2, 2008

QUICK HITTERS...

- With Saturday's win over Clemson, Maryland is now 4-1 for the first time since the ACC Champion 2001 squad reeled off seven straight victories to start that season and the Ralph Friedgen era.
- Saturday's win over Clemson gives the Terps consecutive victories in Death Valley (also 13-12 in 2006) for the first time in nearly 20 years. Maryland won four straight times at Clemson from 1973-79.
- By overcoming an 11-point halftime deficit and rallying for two second-half touchdowns to beat Clemson, the Terps earned their first comeback victory of the 2008 campaign. It marked the team's first win after being behind at halftime since an upset win over Rutgers last season (9/29/07). It marked Maryland's largest deficit overcome since rallying from a 20-0 halftime margin to beat Virginia on Oct. 14, 2006. The Terps have come back from double-digit deficits six times in the Friedgen era.
- Maryland still has seven regular season games to play in 2008, but recent history suggests beating Clemson is an indication of good things to come for the team. In the four previous instances in which Maryland has defeated Clemson during the Friedgen era, the Terps have averaged 10 wins in those seasons.
- The Terps are playing their first two conference games on the road for the second time in three years. Maryland opened the 2006 season playing at Georgia Tech and at Virginia, splitting those games.
- Maryland is 197-162-4 (.548) all-time in ACC games, including a 34-23 (.596) mark under Friedgen. The Terps have an all-time record of 596-517-43 (.534), including a 60-32 (.652) mark under Friedgen.

HEYWARD-BEY LEADING THE WAY...

WR Darius Heyward-Bey has served as a game-changer for the Maryland offense all season, and Saturday's upset win over Clemson proved no exception. The junior wideout broke loose for a 76-yard run on a reverse play during the third quarter, setting up Maryland's first touchdown and shifting momentum to the Terps, as the team began its comeback bid. It was the longest run by Maryland since Bruce Perry's 80-yard TD scamper against Wake Forest on Nov. 29, 2003, and the longest run surrendered by the Clemson defense since the 2000 season.

• When Heyward-Bey touches the football this season, good things tend to happen for the Terps offense. On six rushing attempts thus far in 2008, Heyward-Bey has totaled 186 yards (31.0 ypc), which is the second most rushing yards on the team and tops in the nation among wide receivers in the FBS.

• Heyward-Bey now has three plays of more than 75 yards in his Terrapins career. He also notched an 80-yard TD catch earlier this season vs. MTSU and had a team-record 96-yard TD reception against Miami during the 2006 season.

• Heyward-Bey did not record a reception on Saturday, but he has still caught at least one pass in 28 of the last 30 contests dating back to the 2006 season. In addition, his 16.0 career yards per catch average ranks No. 6 nationally among active players (see chart on pg. 7).

• With his performance this season, Heyward-Bey has continued his ascent through Maryland's career records. He currently sits in fifth place all-time in school history with 1,730 career receiving yards. He stands just 18 yards behind Marcus Badgett (1989-92) for fourth all-time (see chart on pg. 5).

• Heyward-Bey's 11th career touchdown reception against Eastern Michigan (9/20) moved him into a three-way tie for fifth all-time at Maryland with Barry Johnson (1987-90) and Badgett (see chart on pg. 5).

• Heyward-Bey's 108 career receptions rank tied for sixth all-time with Azizuddin Abdur-Ra'ouf (1984-87) on that list. He needs five catches to move from sixth to fifth on the Terps career list (see chart on pg. 5).

• Heyward-Bey currently leads the team and ranks ninth in the ACC in receiving yards per game (50.0 ypg). He is second on the team in touchdown scoring (4.8 ppg) and second in all-purpose yards (87.2 ypg).

DID YOU KNOW...

WR Darius Heyward-Bey is one of only four players in the nation (also RB Javhid Best, Cal; WR Darius Passmore, Marshall and RB Marcus Thigpen, Indiana) to have two plays this season of 75 yards or greater. He caught an 80-yard TD pass from Chris Turner vs. MTSU (9/6) and ran a 76-yard reverse to set up a score vs. Clemson (9/27).

QUICK STRIKEABILITY...

The Terps have shown a knack for getting on the board quickly this season, and that trend continued on Saturday vs. Clemson. Highlighted by WR Darius Heyward-Bey's 76-yard run, Maryland drove 80 yards in three plays that took 1:20 in scoring its first touchdown. On the season, 12 of the team's 17 touchdowns have come on drives of five plays or less in fewer than 2:00.

GREAT SCOTT...

- Back in action after sitting out one game with a shoulder injury, RB Da'Rel Scott provided a much-needed boost for the Terps offense on Saturday vs. Clemson. His 1-yard touchdown run with 10:25 remaining in the fourth quarter proved to be the game-winner. Scott finished with 39 hard-earned rushing yards and tied for the team lead with four receptions for 36 yards.
- On the Terps' opening possession of the game, Scott took a screen pass for 25 yards, marking his seventh gain of at least 20 yards this season and his first via pass reception.
- Scott currently ranks first in the ACC and 16th in the nation (FBS) in rushing (111.5 ypg). He also leads the team and ranks fifth in the ACC and 49th nationally in all-purpose yards (128.3 ypg). He also has a team-high tying four TDs and ranks tied for seventh in the ACC in touchdown scoring (6.0 ypg).
- In addition to his season-long 25-yard reception against Clemson, Scott has six carries of at least 24 yards in 2008 (40, 37 and 26 against Delaware; 63 and 24 versus MTSU; 24 against Cal).

TURNER ON TARGET...

QB Chris Turner had yet another solid performance in the win over Clemson, completing 16 of 30 passes for 172 yards and one touchdown and no interceptions. The touchdown pass, his sixth of the season, came on a 6-yard pass to WR Torrey Smith during the third quarter.

- Continuing to prove his worth in big games, Turner is now 3-0 as a starter against ranked opponents (wins over No. 20 Clemson and No. 23 Cal in 2008; win over No. 8 Boston College in 2007). He also played an integral role in the other such game (win over No. 10 Rutgers in 2007) during Maryland's four-game winning streak against ranked foes. The Simi Valley, Calif., native has yet to throw an interception vs. a ranked opponent. In four games vs. the top 25, Turner has completed 66 of 96 passes (68.8 percent) for 814 yards and six TDs.
- Turner currently ranks fourth in the ACC and 55th in the nation (FBS) in passing efficiency (129.6). He also ranks fifth in the conference and 86th nationally in passing yards (151.6 ypg).
- Turner has thrown for at least 200 yards in eight of the last 10 games in which he has started dating back to last season. In 16 career games he has thrown for 2,716 yards which ranks 15th on Maryland's all-time list, as he passed Alan Pastrana (1965-68) and Larry Dick (1973-77) with his performance vs. the Tigers (see chart on pg. 6). He also currently ranks 14th in school history with 213 career completions, 17th with 344 career pass attempts and tied for 19th with 13 career touchdown passes.

WUJCIAK'S SWEET 16...

LB Alex Wujciak was all over the field against Clemson, tallying a career-high 16 tackles and accounting for nearly 20 percent of the team's total tackles.

- By halftime on Saturday Wujciak already had notched a career-high with 12 tackles, helping Maryland stay within striking distance of the Tigers.
- The sophomore Mike LB was at his best during the second half as well. During Clemson's final fourth-quarter possession, Wujciak contributed four tackles, including a stop of the game's decisive play. Wujciak wrapped up Clemson QB Cullen Harper for no gain on fourth-and-one from the Terps' 40-yard line as the Tigers were threatening to move into field-goal range and tie the game. Thanks to Wujciak's big play, the Maryland offense took over on downs and ran out the clock.
- Wujciak's tackle total is the most by a Maryland player since former Terp and current Minnesota Viking Erin Henderson had 18 against Virginia on Oct. 20, 2007.
- Raycom, which broadcast Saturday's game, named Wujciak its Player of the Game for his efforts in Maryland's upset win.
- Wujciak currently leads the team with 43 tackles. He also ranks fourth in the ACC and tied for 56th in the nation (FBS) in tackles (8.6 pg).

MR. SMITH COMES FROM WASHINGTON...

Two plays after Darrius Heyward-Bey's 76-yard run against Clemson, fellow WR Torrey Smith caught a 6-yard touchdown pass from QB Chris Turner, cutting the margin to 17-13. It marked the first touchdown of Smith's career and came on his fourth career reception.

- Smith added 92 kickoff return yards on four returns and led the team with 98 all-purpose yards.
- Smith currently ranks third in the ACC and tied for 33rd in the nation (FBS) in kick return average (25.4 ypr). He also stands third on the team in all-purpose yards (84.4 ypg).

DEWEY ON THE SPOT...

When Clemson WR Jacoby Ford muffed a punt return during the first quarter, LS Andrew Schmitt was there to pounce on it, giving the Terps offense the ball at the Tigers' 18-yard line. It marked the first career fumble recovery for Schmitt, a senior whose nickname is 'Dewey'. The play set up Maryland's first score of the game -- a 23-yard field goal by PK Obi Egekeze seven seconds into the second quarter.

MARYLAND'S MR. DEPENDABLE . . .

Sure-handed WR Danny Oquendo had four receptions for a team and season-high 49 yards against Clemson (9/27), but his statline did not tell the whole story. The senior wideout caught three passes and accounted for 43 of Maryland's 45 yards on the fourth-quarter, game-winning drive, accounting for three first downs.

- Oquendo currently ranks second on the team in receptions (11) and receiving yards (131) this season.
- With three punt returns for 17 yards vs. Clemson, Oquendo continues to expand his Maryland legacy in that regard. He ranks eighth all-time on the Maryland career list with 448 punt return yards.

VIRGINIA AT-A-GLANCE..

- The Cavaliers (1-3, 0-1) opened ACC play on Saturday with a 31-3 loss at Duke, snapping the Blue Devil's 25-game conference losing streak. Duke capitalized on five second-half turnovers by Virginia to take control in what was a 3-3 game at halftime.
- Virginia opened the season with a 52-7 loss to then-No.3 Southern California before beating Richmond, 16-0.
- The Cavaliers rank among ACC leaders in sacks (tied for second - 11), sacks against (tied for second - five) and kickoff coverage (third). Nationally, they rank tied for 14th in sacks (2.75 pg), tied 20th in TFLs (7.0 pg) and tied 35th in sacks allowed (1.25 pg).

- WR Kevin Ogletree has been the Cavaliers' most consistent offensive weapon so far this season. The junior wideout paces the team with 22 reception for 218 yards. Also serving as Virginia's primary kickoff returner, Ogletree ranks sixth in the ACC in all-purpose yards (107.8 ypg).
- QB Marc Verica has completed 41 of 72 passes for 352 yards.

MARYLAND-VIRGINIA SERIES HISTORY...

- Saturday's game will mark the 73rd meeting between the Terrapins and Cavaliers, the most between Maryland and any other school in the Terps' 115-year football history. The schools have met every season since 1957.
- Maryland leads the all-time series, which began in 1919, by a 41-29-2 margin.
- Maryland is 20-17 all-time against Virginia in Charlottesville, though the Cavaliers have won seven of the last eight on their homefield.
- Last season Virginia won 18-17 in College Park on a last-minute touchdown.

Two years ago Maryland won 28-26 in Charlottesville, outscoring the Wahoos 21-7 in the final quarter to complete its comeback win. Keon Lattimore rushed 15 times for 114 yards and gave Maryland its go-ahead score with a 56-yard run in the fourth quarter. Erin Henderson intercepted a pass three plays later and ran 45 yards down the field for what would be the winning touchdown.

From 1969 through 2000, play between the two schools had been basically feast or famine for one team. From 1969-87, the Terrapins held an 18-1 advantage in the series and at one point ran off 16 wins in a row, the longest streak in the series. Then from 1988 to 2000, the series swung almost exclusively to the Cavs as they were 11-2 in that span. Maryland has won four of the last seven.

On a cold, blustery Thursday night in 2003, Josh Allen ran for 257 yards, the third best rushing total in school history and the seventh-best in all of Division I-A college football that year as the Terrapins beat UVA, 27-17.

Maryland's win in 2001, Ralph Friedgen's first season, broke a string of nine-straight losses to Virginia. In their 41-21 win – a victory that moved the team to 5-0 on the season in what was then its best start in 23 years – the Terps allowed a 24-7 lead to be cut to three in the third quarter before scoring 17 unanswered points in the fourth to win going away.

BALL HAWK...

Playing a greater role due to injuries in Maryland's secondary, DB Jamari McCollough has proven extremely valuable defensively this season. The junior safety accounted for his third interception of the season when he tracked down an overthrown deep pass by Clemson QB Cullen Harper near the end of the second quarter. The play gave McCollough three picks in a six-quarter span dating back to the game against Eastern Michigan (9/20).

McCollough, who did not have any interceptions entering the season, currently leads the team, ranks tied for seventh in the ACC and tied for 17th in the nation in interceptions (.60 pg).

THROUGH THE UPRIGHTS...

PK Obi Egekeze converted field goals of 23 and 30 yards during the first half against Clemson and has now connected on five consecutive field goals, which marks the second longest streak of his career.

At his best during conference play, Egekeze has now hit 15 of 16 field goals (93.8 percent) during ACC contests over the course of his career.

With his performance vs. Clemson, Egekeze moved into a tie with Ed Loncar (1976-78) for 10th place on Maryland's all-time list with 22 career field goals (see chart on pg. 9).

MUHTADI'S TAKE DOWN...

DL Dean Muhtadi earned his second consecutive start at defensive end against the Tigers and made the most of the opportunity, notching his first solo sack as a Terp in the third quarter to help stall a Clemson drive. Muhtadi finished with three tackles against the Tigers.

• A former walk-on, Muhtadi currently ranks third on the team this season with 1.5 sacks.

SPECIAL INDEED...

For the second consecutive game, Maryland's special teams unit came up big, playing a key role in the upset of Clemson. One week after LB Adrian Moten blocked a punt and WR Torrey Smith notched a 57-yard kickoff return vs. Eastern Michigan (9/20), LS Andrew Schmitt recovered a muffed punt against Clemson to set up a Maryland field goal. Additionally, PK Obi Egekeze (5 for 5 on field goals) and P Travis Baltz (four of eight punts inside opponents 20-yard line) have contributed standout performances during the two-game span.

BALTZ'S PUNTING PROWESS...

P Travis Baltz has booted himself into the nation's elite at his position during the early stages of his sophomore season. The sophomore punted seven times for 307 yards (43.9 ypp) against Clemson, including three punts inside the Tigers' 20-yard line, continuing to help the Terps win the field position battle. Baltz' first quarter punt of 36 yards was caught by DB Kevin Barnes at the Clemson 5-yard line, forcing the Tigers to begin their second drive of the game deep in their own territory. For his efforts vs. the Tigers Baltz earned the ACC co-Special Teams Player of the Week award.

• Baltz currently ranks second in the ACC and 13th in the nation (FBS) in punting (44.5 ypp). Thanks in large part to Baltz, Maryland also ranks second in the conference and 12th nationally in net punting (39.7 ypp).

OPPORTUNISTIC TERPS...

Over the last two games, the Terps have taken advantage of their opponents' miscues. When LB Adrian Moten and DB Jamari McCollough contributed big plays defensively against Eastern Michigan (9/20), the Maryland offense capitalized. Both of the Terps' first-half interceptions were converted into scores, giving the team 14 points off turnovers against the Eagles. They also scored three points off a blocked punt. Saturday against Clemson, Maryland turned two first-half fumbles into field goals. Maryland had scored just seven points this season off opponents' turnovers in the first three games, but have tallied 20 off miscues in the last two contests.

DID YOU SEE THAT?

WR Ronnie Tyler was in the right place at the right time to make a key reception for the Terps against Clemson. With Maryland facing third-and-eight from the Clemson 28-yard line during the second quarter, QB Chris Turner's pass deflected off WR Torrey Smith's back into the hands of Tyler for 13 yards and a first down. Tyler's big play enabled the possession to result in a converted field goal for the Terps.

• Tyler notched career-highs with four receptions for 31 yards vs. Clemson. He currently ranks fourth on the team with eight catches for 78 yards.

'GRONK' GOING STRONG...

One game after TE Dan Gronkowski found the end zone on a 4-yard touchdown pass from QB Chris Turner, the senior proved to be a big target for QB Chris Turner yet again. A candidate for the John Mackey Award bestowed to the nation's top tight end, Gronkowski snared two receptions for 41 yards against Clemson, including a season-long 25-yard reception in the third quarter.

• Gronkowski currently ranks third on the team with 10 receptions and 96 yards, and has already set career-highs in both categories.

PORTIS PROVIDES CHANGE OF PACE...

Second-string QB Josh Portis is using his speed to add a new dimension to the Terps offense this season, accounting for 10 more rushing yards vs. Clemson. With 145 yards on 23 carries so far this season, Portis already has the most rushing yards by a Maryland quarterback since Scott McBrien ran for 259 yards in 2003.

TERP TRICKERY...

All three of Maryland's first-string wide receivers got involved in a trick play that resulted in a touchdown during the fourth quarter against Eastern Michigan. Darius Heyward-Bey took a handoff and threw a lateral to fellow WR Danny Oquendo, who threw a 43-yard touchdown pass to WR Isaiah Williams. The play marked Oquendo's first career touchdown pass and Williams' first score of the season. Oquendo became Maryland's first non-quarterback to throw a touchdown pass since RB Josh Allen threw a 9-yard touchdown pass to Oquendo vs. Boston College on Nov. 18, 2006.

TRIED AND TRUE...

True freshman DB Cameron Chism made his Maryland debut against Eastern Michigan (9/20) when he participated on the coverage team on the opening kickoff, and he notched his first career tackle (solo) playing special teams during the fourth quarter. He added a second tackle on Saturday vs. Clemson. Chism is the fourth true freshman to see action this season, joining RB Davin Meggett, DB Kenny Tate and TE Matt Furstenburg.

BIG PLAYABILITY...

The Terps offense notched four plays of 20 yards or more vs. Clemson and now has 30 such gains on the season. Of those 30 instances, WR Darrius Heyward-Bey has accounted for nine of them (six receiving and three rushing) and RB Da'Rel Scott has accounted for seven of them (six rushing and one receiving).

FRIEDGEN PREACHES DISCIPLINE...

Head coach Ralph Friedgen and his staff continually preach disciplined play to the Terps, and the team seems to be listening. Through the first five games of the 2008 season, Maryland ranks fourth in the ACC and 23rd nationally (FBS) in fewest penalties (4.80 pg).

PHILISTIN: TACKLE MACHINE...

With a pair of stops vs. Clemson, LB Dave Philistin currently ranks second on the team, tied for 11th in the ACC and tied for 93rd in the nation in tackles. The conference's leading returning tackler from a year ago, Philistin has posted at least nine stops in 11 of the team's last 14 games dating back to last season.

OFFENSIVE NOTES...

- The Maryland offense, which returned nine starters – its most since 1999 – and 23 letterwinners from last season, currently ranks among the ACC's leaders in first downs (third - 83), third down efficiency (third - 44.6 percent), rushing offense (fourth - 182.4 ypg) and total offense (fifth - 366.4 ypg). The unit also is among the nation's leaders in several categories, ranking tied for 11th in fewest fumbles lost (two), 35th in third down efficiency and 39th in rushing.

- During the off-season Ralph Friedgen handed control of the offense over to new offensive coordinator/assistant head coach James Franklin, enabling one of the football's best young offensive minds to have an opportunity to call plays for the Terps. Formerly offensive coordinator at Kansas State, Franklin brings 13 years of offensive expertise to College Park.

- With its offensive output against Clemson (9/27), the Maryland offense has now scored at least 20 points in three consecutive games for the first time since Sept. 22 - Oct. 6, 2007, when it did so against Wake Forest, Rutgers and Georgia Tech.

- The Terps have been able to get on the board quickly on a number of offensive drives this season. In the game vs. Eastern Michigan (9/20), the Terps had a season-high four touchdown drives which lasted five or fewer plays and less than 2:00. For the season, 12 of the team's 17 touchdowns have come on drives of five plays or less in fewer than 2:00.

- Enjoying its biggest offensive outburst of the season vs. Eastern Michigan (9/20), the Terps had season-highs in points (51), total yards (486), first downs (20) and passing touchdowns (three). The 51 points were the most by the Terps since a 55-21 win over Duke on Sept. 25, 2004. The 486 total yards of offense were the most since totaling 524 yards in an overtime win over North Carolina on Nov. 12, 2005.

- Maryland's 86 collective points against Eastern Michigan (9/20) and Cal (9/13) are the team's most during a two-game span since also lighting up the

- Darrius Heyward-Bey continued to provide a spark for the Terps offense against Eastern Michigan (9/20). The junior wideout snared a 32-yard touchdown strike from QB Chris Turner during the second quarter to extend the Terps' lead to 24-7. In addition to his three receptions totaling 31 yards, Heyward-Bey rushed for a career-high 81 yards vs. Eastern Michigan on a pair of handoffs he took on reverse plays.

- Chris Turner continued to spearhead a productive Terrapins offense against Eastern Michigan (9/20), completing 15 of 23 passes for 212 yards with two touchdowns. In addition to the 32-yard touchdown pass to Heyward-Bey, Turner also found TE Dan Gronkowski for a 4-yard score in the third quarter, marking the second consecutive game the duo has hooked up for a touchdown. Turner was at his best against the Eagles on third down, completing 8 of 8 passes for 109 yards.

- WR Torrey Smith showcased his multi-dimensional abilities against Eastern Michigan (9/20). The redshirt freshman had a career-long 57-yard kickoff return on the play prior to Heyward-Bey's 32-yard TD reception. Smith also added a career-long 44-yard catch of his own against the Eagles during the third quarter. Smith, who entered the game with 140 career all-purpose yards, accounted for 184 vs. the Eagles.

- Second-string QB Josh Portis rushed for a game-high and career-high 98 yards against Eastern Michigan (9/20). His 8-yard touchdown run in the fourth quarter marked the first of his career and came after he accounted for all 80 yards (all rushing) during that drive. Portis' rushing total last Saturday is the highest by a Maryland QB since Shaun Hill ran for 105 yards on five carries vs. Duke on Oct. 20, 2001.

• RB Morgan Green found the end zone on fourth-and-inches in the first quarter against Eastern Michigan (9/20) to cap a 10-play, 80-yard drive. It was Green's first career touchdown, coming on the 10th carry of his career. Green added a 20-yard TD run in the second quarter, extending the Terps' lead to 17-0. The 20-yard run marked a career-long for Green, who finished the game with a career-high 40 rushing yards on 12 carries.

• Continuing to prove he is one of the nation's top young ball carriers this season, Scott rushed 19 times for 87 yards and two touchdowns vs Cal (9/13), despite playing less than three quarters (shoulder injury). He found the end zone on runs of 24 and 1 yards on Maryland's first two drives of the game, helping to catapult the Terps to an early lead that proved insurmountable for the Golden Bears.

• Meggett replaced Scott at tailback in the third quarter against Cal (9/13) and the Terps ground attack did not miss a beat. Meggett rushed for a career-high 82 yards, including the second rushing touchdown of his career in the fourth quarter when he ran in from 1-yard out for a score that proved to be the difference. The true freshman's rush for 38 yards in the fourth quarter Saturday marked a career-long.

• Heyward-Bey snared two catches for a team-high 59 yards vs. Cal (9/13), including a 27-yard touchdown reception from Turner in the third quarter that extended Maryland's lead over the Golden Bears to 28-6. That score, the 10th receiving touchdown of Heyward-Bey's career, proved crucial, as Cal mounted a late comeback.

• Turner rebounded from a sub-par effort vs. Middle Tennessee State (9/6) by completing 15 of 19 passes (78.9 percent) against Cal (9/13). That accuracy mark was the 10th-highest single-game completion percentage in school history, tying his own mark he set last season against Boston College (11/10/07).

Turner finished the afternoon with 156 passing yards and two TDs with no picks. Turner found Gronkowski for a 1-yard touchdown on the first play of the second quarter and later connected with Heyward-Bey in the third quarter for a 27-yard strike.

• Gronkowski (career-high four receptions for 24 yards) and fellow TE Lansford Watson (career-high three receptions for 23 yards) were the team's leading receivers against Cal (9/13), marking the first time two tight ends led the team in receptions since John Warig and Eric James did so against North Carolina on Oct. 23, 1999. Gronkowski caught a 1-yard TD pass from Turner on the first play of the second quarter Saturday. For Gronkowski, it was his second career touchdown and his first since a 2-yard score versus Florida State Oct. 28, 2006.

• After posting 197 yards in the season opener, Scott turned in another impressive rushing performance versus the MTSU (9/6). Scott rushed for 123 yards on 11 carries (11.2 ypc), including a career-long 63-yard burst for a touchdown on the Terps' second offensive play from scrimmage. That run was the longest by a Terp since Lance Ball ran for 65 yards versus Boston College Nov. 19, 2005, and the team's longest run for a touchdown since Bruce Perry scored on an 80-yard run against Wake Forest Nov. 28, 2003. It was also Scott's longest play, surpassing a 57-yard reception he had last season versus BC.

• Scott's 11.2 yards per carry average vs. MTSU (9/6) ranked fourth all-time on the Terps' single-game list (record: 15.0 by Willie Joyner vs. UNC, 1982).

• Scott's performance during the first two games of the season marked the first back-to-back 100-yard rushing games for a Maryland ball carrier since Keon Lattimore ran for 112 and 124, respectively, against Wake Forest (Sept. 29) and Rutgers (Sept. 22) last season.

• Scott's 320 rushing yards during the first two games of the season represented the most in a two-game period by a Terp since Josh Allen rushed for a combined 401 yards against Virginia and NC State on Nov. 13 and Nov. 22, 2003.

• Heyward-Bey's 80-yard TD in the third quarter of the MTSU game (9/6) marked the second-longest of Heyward-Bey's career, trailing only the school-record 96-yarder he had versus Miami Nov. 11, 2006. It was the longest completion of Turner's career, surpassing a 78-yard TD pass to Jason Goode last season against Georgia Tech.

- Turner made his first start of the season in place of fellow QB Jordan Steffy (thumb injury) against MTSU (9/6), throwing for 207 yards, giving him at least 200 passing yards in seven consecutive games in which he started. Despite a solid performance that string was broken during the Cal game (9/13) as Turner threw for 156 yards.
- Making his first career start, Scott provided a record-setting performance vs. Delaware (8/30). The sophomore tailback rushed for 197 yards on 26 carries to set a school record for most rushing yards in season opener (old record: 177 by Charlie Wysocki vs. Villanova, Sept. 6, 1980). Scott's performance tied for 16th on the team's single-game list and are the most rushing yards by a Terp in a game since Bruce Perry recorded 237 against Wake Forest on Nov. 29, 2003.
- Scott was not the only Maryland RB to have a memorable game against Delaware. Meggett had seven rushes for 54 yards. His 14-yard touchdown run late in the third quarter was the first of his career and gave the Terps a 14-0 lead.
- With his score vs. Delaware (9/20), Meggett became the first Maryland true freshman to score a touchdown in his first career game since Josh Allen had an 8-yard TD run vs. Eastern Michigan on Sept. 21, 2002.
- In all, Maryland recorded 271 yards on the ground against Delaware (8/30), the team's most since it ran for 277 yards against Duke on Sept. 25, 2004.
- Following a hard-fought battle in preseason camp, Steffy, a senior, emerged as the Terps' No. 1 quarterback heading into the season. Steffy, who started the first five games last season before suffering a concussion, completed 70 of 104 passes for 686 yards and two touchdowns in 2007. He was 10 of 18 for 115 yards in the season-opener. He suffered a thumb injury in the second half and is out of action indefinitely. Turner, a junior who entered the season as the backup, replaced Steffy in the Delaware game (8/30). Turner started the final eight games of the 2007 season, completing 153 of 241 passes for 1,958 yards.
- The Terps quarterbacks operate behind a veteran-laden offensive line featuring five seniors who have seen significant playing time. C Edwin Williams, a preseason All-ACC nominee, anchors a line that boasts a collective 101 career starts. He is joined by fellow seniors LT Scott Burley, LG Jaimie Thomas, RG Jack Griffin and RT Dane Randolph. Junior Phil Costa started at right guard in the opener with Griffin subbing at right guard. Reserve linemen Campbell, Lamar Young, Danny Edwards and Paul Pinegar round out the two-deep for a unit that was decimated by injuries last season but should represent a strength for the offense in 2008.
- Heyward-Bey headlines a deep receiving corps that returns its top three players from a year ago. He is joined atop the depth chart at WR by seniors

Quendo Williams. Sophomore LaQuan Williams, a reigning freshman All-ACC nominee, also made significant contributions in 2007, but he currently is sidelined with a leg injury. Beneath that veteran layer, a plethora of talented but less-proven WRs awaits opportunities to contribute. Sophomore Adrian Cannon and redshirt freshmen Ronnie Tyler and Smith each had impressive preseason camps and bolster the unit's depth.

- The performances of Scott, Meggett and Green are helping to ease the loss to graduation of last season's dynamic rushing duo of Keon Lattimore and Lance Ball. Senior Rashad Henry and sophomore Dan Bonato round out Maryland's RB corp. Senior FB Jackson open holes for the RBs, with sophomore FB Haroon Brown occupying a reserve role.
- A nominee for postseason honors, Gronkowski starts at TE for the Terps after sharing starting duties a year ago. Gronkowski caught seven passes for 66 yards last season, despite being used primarily as a blocking TE. He is the third-leading receiver on the team this season with 10 catches. Junior Tommy Galt sits beneath Gronkowski on the depth chart, and Watson, a redshirt freshman, is atop the depth chart at H-back. Watson recorded his first collegiate reception in the fourth quarter against MTSU (9/6) when he made an acrobatic catch for 29 yards on a pass from Turner.

DEFENSIVE NOTES...

- The Maryland defense currently ranks among the ACC's leaders in defensive third down efficiency (third - 29.9 percent) and sacks (tied for fifth - nine). The unit also is among the nation's leaders in several categories, ranking 20th in defensive third down efficiency, tied for 21st in interceptions (seven) and tied for 29th in turnovers gained (10).
- Maryland returns five starters and 20 letterwinners from a defensive unit that ranked fifth in the ACC last season in both run and pass defense. The unit boasts five players who have made at least 15 starts for the Terps, including 40 and 37 career starts, respectively, for DL Jeremy Navarre and LEO Trey Covington. Navarre leads Maryland defensive linemen and ranks tied for fourth on the team with 27 tackles.
- For the first time since 2005, Maryland's entire defensive coaching staff from the previous year remains intact. Chris Cosh, who has served as a defensive coordinator in three of the six BCS conferences, is in his third season running the defense, as well as the inside linebackers.
- Several Maryland players rank among the conference leaders in key defensive categories through the first five games. DB Kevin Barnes is tied for fifth in passes defended (1.0 pg). LBs Alex Wujciak, Dave Philistin and DB Jeff Allen rank fourth (8.6 pg), tied for 11th (7.8 pg) and 23rd (6.4 pg), respectively, in tackles. DB Jamari McCollough rank tied for seventh in interceptions (.60 pg). LB Rick Costa ranks tied for seventh in tackles for loss (1.0 pg).

- After surrendering 260 total yards and 17 first downs in the first half to Clemson (9/27), the Maryland defense clamped down and turned in an exceptional second-half performance. The Terps limited the Tigers to no points, 112 total yards -- including just 26 rushing yards -- and only two first downs during the second half. It marked the first half of football this season in which Clemson was held scoreless.
- The Maryland defense continued to get to the opposing quarterback against Eastern Michigan (9/20). Six players combined on three quarterback sacks vs. the Eagles. DLs Navarre and Bemi Otulaja and LBs Costa, Covington, Adrian Moten and Philistin each contributed half sacks in the defensive effort against Eastern Michigan.
- With Eastern Michigan threatening to score for the first time against the Terps midway through the first quarter of that game (9/20), McCollough intercepted QB Kyle McMahon's pass in the end zone to preserve the early advantage. It marked the first pick of his career. McCollough picked off another pass - Maryland's sixth of the season - to conclude the contest.
- Moten notched his first interception of the season and second of his career during the second quarter against Eastern Michigan (9/20) when he backpedaled and made an athletic play on QB Kyle McMahon's pass.
- Wujciak posted a game-high 10 tackles - including 1.5 tackles for loss -- in the victory over the Eagles (9/20), and fellow LB Dave Philistin added nine tackles and one-half sack during the same game.
- Cal entered its game against the Terps (9/13) ranked sixth in the nation in rushing offense (297.0 ypg), but Maryland limited the Golden Bears to 38 rushing yards, including just 12 in the second half. The Terps added eight tackles for loss versus Cal, which eclipsed their two-game total entering Saturday's game. The Terps defense did not surrender a TD to Cal until the 6:55 mark of the fourth quarter.
- Fokou accounted for Maryland's first sack of the season when he took down Cal QB Kevin Riley for a 4-yard loss to force the Golden Bears to punt on the game's opening drive (9/13). He added a second sack in the third quarter, setting a career-high for sacks in a game and tying a career-high for sacks in a season. The senior Sam linebacker finished with six tackles (four solo) versus the Golden Bears.
- In all, the Terps tallied a season-high five sacks against Cal (9/13). LB Moise Fokou (2.0), Costa (1.5 sacks) and DLs Jared Harrell (1.0) and Dean Muhtadi (0.5) each contributed to the sack barrage against Cal, which had surrendered just one sack on the season entering the game, and led the Pac-10 in fewest sacks allowed the previous two seasons. The five sacks are tied for the most by the Terps since they recorded six sacks versus Virginia Oct. 10, 2005.

- Philistin notched a game-high 13 tackles against the Golden Bears (9/13), tying for the second-highest total of his career. He added a tackle for loss of three yards in the second quarter on a run by Cal RB Jahvid Best to help force a three-and-out.

- Barnes, who led the Terps with four interceptions a year ago, picked off a pass by Cal QB Kevin Riley during the first quarter of that game (9/13), returning it 17 yards to set up Maryland's second touchdown. Barnes added two pass breakups, including one with a big hit on Cal RB Jahvid Best in the second quarter. The senior cornerback is tied for the team lead with two interceptions this season, having also snared one in the season-opening win over Delaware (8/30).

- Wujciak's knack for making big plays continued against MTSU (9/6). Wujciak notched his first career fumble recovery in the second quarter when he pounced on a dropped lateral to halt a Blue Raiders' drive and give the ball back to Maryland. Wujciak also tallied seven tackles, including a tackle for loss when he stopped Middle Tennessee State RB Desmond Gee four yards behind the line of scrimmage in the first quarter.

- Philistin tied for the team lead with nine tackles against the Blue Raiders (9/6), marking the fifth time in seven games he had led the defense in that category dating back to last season.

- During the season opener Aug. 30 against Delaware, Maryland's defense limited the Blue Hens to 249 total yards – the lowest by a foe since holding Florida International to 163 yards on Sept. 8, 2007.

- Wujciak's collegiate debut proved worth the wait. Seeing his first action against Delaware (8/30) after missing all of last season due to a knee injury, the sophomore got a hand on Delaware PK Jon Strifsky's 46-yard FG attempt in the second quarter, causing the kick to fall short of the uprights. It marked the first blocked field goal by Maryland since Navarre swatted one against Florida State (Oct. 28, 2006).

- Barnes nabbed his first of the 2008 campaign when he picked off a pass by Delaware WR Aaron

Love on a flea-flicker during the opening drive of the second half of the 14-7 win over the Blue Hens (8/30). The senior CB also recorded a forced fumble in the season-opening game.

- DB Terrell Skinner is making the most of his first season as a starter for the Terps, having recorded a crucial late interception, the first of his career, to seal Maryland's season-opening victory over Delaware (8/30). Skinner added eight tackles and a pass-breakup vs. MTSU (9/6) before suffering an ankle injury in the fourth quarter of that game. He missed two games, but returned for the matchup with Clemson (9/27), registering four tackles.

- Navarre, a DT who leads active Terps with nine career sacks, anchors a defensive line that replaced starters Dre Moore and Carlos Feliciano from a year ago. He is joined in the starting lineup by DE Mack Frost and Otulaja, though Deege Galt, Dion Armstrong and Muhtadi also see action on the defensive line. Junior Travis Ivey is also a fixture inside after returning from injury to play against Clemson (9/27). After three seasons at defensive end, Navarre bumped inside to tackle in the spring and has flourished.

- With the addition of Wujciak, depth prevails for the Terrapins at linebacker, where three starters are back from 2007 in Covington, Philistin and Fokou. Covington has started 37 of the last 40 games at LEO, a hybrid defensive end/linebacker position. He and fellow LEO Costa form a productive tandem for the Terps defense. Philistin ranked fourth in the ACC in 2007 with 124 tackles, and is backed up by fellow senior Chase Bullock. Fokou added 83 tackles and two sacks a year ago, and shares the strongside with his backup, Moten, who earned freshman All-America honors in 2007. LB Ben Pooler started the season as the backup at Mike LB, played in one game and is now sidelined with a season-ending knee injury.

- Barnes is the lone returning starter in the secondary and is expected to provide leadership for the talented unit. Juniors Carroll and Anthony Wiseman share time at the other CB spot. Allen, who ranks third on the team with 32 tackles, joins Skinner atop the depth chart at safety, having served in a reserve role in 2007. USC transfer Antwine Perez and true freshman Kenny Tate provide depth at safety, and senior Richard Taylor served as a reserve CB until being sidelined with a season-ending knee injury. Perez made his first career start against Cal (9/13) in place of Skinner, who had an ankle injury.

- The Terps have had at least one defensive player drafted into the NFL in each of the last 12 seasons, and 18 defensive players overall in that span, including DE Dre Moore last year, a draftee of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Of the Maryland defenders selected, 11 have gone in the first three rounds, including first-round picks Chad Scott (1997) and Shawne Merriman (2005).

- The Terrapins began a season without a Henderson on their roster for just the second time this decade.

Following in the footsteps of his older brother A.J., who earned All-America and ACC Player of the Year honors during his stellar Terp career, Erin Henderson was a first-team All-ACC selection in 2007 after leading the conference with 133 tackles. Both brothers now play for the NFL's Minnesota Vikings.

SPECIAL TEAMS NOTES...

- The Maryland special teams unit currently ranks among the ACC's leaders in PAT kicking (tied for first - 100 percent), opponents' on-side kicks allowed (tied for first - 0-3), net punting (second - 39.7 ypp) and punt return yardage allowed (second - 4.6 ypr). The unit also is among the best in the nation in several categories, ranking 12th in net punting and tied for 22nd in punt return yardage defense.

- Several Maryland players rank among the conference leaders in key special teams categories. P Travis Baltz ranks second in punting (44.5 ypp), WR Torrey Smith ranks third in punt returns (25.4 ypr) and PK Obi Egekeze ranks tied for first in PAT kicking percentage (17 for 17) and seventh in scoring (6.4 ppg).

- When Clemson WR Jacoby Ford muffed a punt return during the first quarter of that game (9/20), LS Andrew Schmitt was there to pounce on it, giving the Terps offense the ball at the Tigers' 18-yard line. It marked the first career fumble recovery for Schmitt, a senior whose nickname is 'Dewey'. The play set up Maryland's first score of the game -- a 23-yard field goal by Egekeze seven seconds into the second quarter.

- The Maryland special teams unit had an outstanding performance against Eastern Michigan, making key plays in place-kicking, punt return coverage and kickoff returns.

• Egekeze converted all three of his field goal attempts (21, 23 and 33-yards) vs. Eastern Michigan, marking the first three-field goal game by a Maryland kicker since Egekeze booted three vs. NC State last season (11/24/07). The senior is also perfect on all 15 PATs this season. Egekeze also had a solid all-around game vs. the Eagles, placing four of his kickoffs in the end zone and adding a solo tackle on one of the six kicks which were returned. He added two more field goals vs. Clemson (9/27) and has hit five in-a-row.

• Baltz only had one punt vs. Eastern Michigan (9/20), but it proved to be a good one. His lone punt in that game went for 44 yards and pinned the Eagles at their own 16-yard line.

• LB Adrian Moten blocked Patrick Treppa's punt following Eastern Michigan's first possession (9/20), marking the first blocked punts for the Terps since Josh Wilson blocked one against Williams & Mary on Sept. 2, 2006. DB Dominique Herald recovered Moten's block and returned it 15 yards to give Maryland's offense exceptional starting field position at the Eagles' 10-yard line.

• Against Cal (9/13), Baltz punted four times for 191 yards (47.8 ypp) and a season-long punt of 55 yards. His average vs. Cal was the second best of his career (5-49.6 vs. Georgia Tech, 2007).

• Smith compiled a then-career-highs with 86 yards on four kickoff returns against MTSU (9/6), including a long return of 30 yards.

• Baltz followed up a strong performance against Delaware (8/30) in which he landed two punts inside the Blue Hens' 20-yard-line by punting four times for 171 yards with a long punt of 54 yards against MTSU (9/6).

• After starting the 2007 campaign with an untested punter and place-kicker, Maryland has the luxury of having proven players occupying those positions this season. Egekeze and Baltz both provided strong performances during their first season at their respective positions in 2007. Egekeze connected on 17 of 23 field goal attempts and was perfect on all 36 PATs last year, ranking sixth in the ACC in both kick scoring and overall scoring. Baltz earned freshman All-America honors in 2007 after averaging 43.1 yards per punt during conference play.

• Maryland is fortunate to have WR Danny Oquendo back for his third season as the team's primary punt returner. With 10 returns for 62 yards thus far in 2008, the sure-handed senior ranks eighth on the Terps all-time punt return yards list (448) and sixth on the career returns chart (58).

• Smith has handled the majority of the kickoff returns thus far in 2008, accounting for 355 yards on 14 returns (25.4 ypr), including a career-long 57-yard return vs. Eastern Michigan (9/20) to set up a Maryland touchdown. DB Terrell Skinner returned one kickoff for 15 yards in the season-opening game versus Delaware (8/30), and fellow DBs Kenny Tate and Trenton Hughes might also be called upon to fill that role.

• Reliable long-snapper Schmitt, a three-year starter, is in his final season with the Terps. After handling just long snaps (punts) up to this point in his career, Schmitt is also the short snapper (PAT/FG) this year.

FRANKLIN RETURNS TO LEAD

OFFENSE..

• James Franklin, one of the top young offensive minds in football, returned to Maryland during the off-season to serve as assistant head coach and offensive coordinator. He also is in charge of tutoring the team's quarterbacks.

• Franklin previously worked for the Terps from 2000-04, when he was in charge of the team's wide receivers and also served as the recruiting coordinator.

• In between his stints at Maryland, Franklin occupied the role of offensive coordinator at Kansas State, overseeing an offense that ranked 20th nationally in passing offense (285.4 yards per game) and 21st nationally in scoring offense (35.2 points per game) in 2007. He also coached wide receivers with the Green Bay Packers during the 2005 season and completed NFL internships with the Minnesota Vikings, Miami Dolphins and Philadelphia Eagles.

• A native of Langhorne, Pa., Franklin boasts more than 13 years of collegiate and professional football experience.

• Ralph Friedgen on Franklin: "James Franklin is definitely the person who fits what I have been looking for. His knowledge of our program, his experience as a coordinator and his ability to recruit definitely strengthen us as a coaching staff and football program."

PEARMAN, HULL JOIN TERPS STAFF..

• Ralph Friedgen rounded out his coaching staff by hiring Danny Pearman to serve as special teams coordinator/tight ends and h-backs coach and Lee Hull to serve as wide receivers coach.

• A veteran of the ACC both as a coach and a player, Pearman has coached in 15 bowl games and two national championship games during his 20-year career. The Charlotte, N.C., native most recently served in a special teams capacity at Duke, North Carolina and Virginia Tech prior to his arrival in College Park.

• Hull came to Maryland following five seasons as an assistant coach at Oregon State, where he worked primarily with wide receivers. Prior to commencing a coaching career, Hull played professionally with the CFL's Winnipeg Blue Bombers and Toronto Argonauts.

TERPS OFF THE FIELD...

In between workout sessions, members of the Maryland football team stayed busy during the off-season by participating in a variety of internships, jobs, academic programs and community service projects. Here are some of the highlights from the Terps' off-season.

- Quarterback Jordan Steffy continued to grow his Children Deserve a Chance foundation, which aids underprivileged and disabled youth. The foundation currently is in the process of constructing a developmental youth center near his hometown of Leola, Pa., designed to provide kids a structured environment in which to learn and play. Steffy said the foundation hopes to raise $50,000 during 2008 to benefit children in need.

- Defensive lineman Mack Frost participated in the Conference Of Minority Transportation Officials' (COMTO) Careers in Transportation for Youth internship program. The experience involved working for the Federal Transit Administration's Office of Research, Demonstration and Innovation as part of a team striving to provide environmentally-friendly approaches to solving transportation problems. Frost received credit toward his pursuit of a master of environmental health sciences degree.

- Seven current Terps completed their undergraduate degrees during the off-season, though nine on the roster have earned their degree. In addition to Steffy and Frost, that list includes place-kicker Obi Egekeze (finance), defensive lineman Dean Muhtadi (finance), offensive linemen Jack Griffin (communications), Dane Randolph (criminology & criminal justice) and Edwin Williams (communications). Each is pursuing a graduate degree or second undergraduate major during the 2008-09 school year. Tight end Dan Gronkowski and defensive back Richard Taylor – continued pursuit of master's degrees during the off-season. Gronkowski is working on a master of business administration, and Taylor is pursuing a master of real estate development degree. Gronkowski actually completed his undergraduate degree in 3 1/2 years.

- Offensive lineman Tyler Bowen, wide receivers Darius Heyward-Bey and Torrey Smith, defensive lineman Deege Galt, tight end Tommy Galt and running back Da'Rel Scott joined Williams and Muhtadi in serving as hosts to 30 children from Camp Good Counsel during the camp's visit to Gossett Team House in July.

VETERAN LEADERSHIP...

The Terps have a veteran team this season with 30 seniors on the current roster. Last season, Maryland had just 15 seniors on its roster. The 30 seniors are the most in the Ralph Friedgen era (previous high - 21 in 2003). In the season opener vs. Delaware 17 of those seniors started the game.

HITTING THE FIELD...

Fourteen players made their debuts in the season opener vs. Delaware (RB Davin Meggett, DB Kenny Tate, TE Matt Furstenburg, LB Alex Wujciak, QB Josh Portis, DB Austin Walker, DB Antwine Perez, WR Ronnie Tyler, LB Aaron Ball, LB Hakeem Sule, DL Deege Galt, TE Lansford Watson, WR Torrey Smith and DL Dion Armstrong). Cameron Chism, Furstenburg, Meggett and Tate are the lone true freshmen to see the field this season. Additionally, two more Terps hit the field for the first time vs. Middle Tennessee State (9/6) as redshirt freshman Trenton Hughes and sophomore Michael Carter played on special teams. With Chism, as well as freshmen Ben Pooler, Lamar Young and Stephen St. John playing vs. Eastern Michigan, 20 Terps have seen their first career action this season.

WILLIAM NAMED TORI MINGTON TROPHY WATCH LIST...

As well as earning consensus preseason first team All-ACC honors, senior Edwin Williams was named to the watch list for the 2008 Rimington Trophy, which is bestowed upon the best center in college football. Williams was among 42 players placed on the list, including one of two (also Ryan McMahon, Florida State) in the Atlantic Coast Conference. Finalists for the Rimington Trophy will be chosen in November, with the winner announced at December's Home Depot College Football Awards show in Orlando, Fla.

PHILISTIN RECEIVED PRESEASON RECOGNITION...

Following in the footsteps of former teammate Erin Henderson, senior linebacker Dave Philistin finds his name among the top defenders in the nation. Over the summer Philistin was a consensus preseason first team All-ACC selection, in addition to being placed on the watch list for the Nagurski Trophy, which honors the top defender in the nation. And just recently Philistin, who ranked fourth in the ACC in tackles (9.5 per game) last season, was placed on the watch list for the Butkus Award, honoring the top linebacker in the country. Henderson was on the watch list for Nagurski Award last season and ended up being voted a semifinalist for the Butkus Award. Philistin ranks second on the team with 39 tackles.

PHILISTIN, WILLIAMS ON LOMBARDI WATCH LIST...

Dave Philistin and Edwin Williams were added to the watch list for the 2008 Rotary Lombardi Award honoring college football's top lineman, the Rotary Club of Houston announced Aug. 26. The Terrapins' senior duo is among 113 players – 64 defensive and 49 offensive – receiving consideration for the award, which will be presented in Houston on Dec. 10. Phi-listin and Williams represent two of the eight Atlantic Coast Conference players currently comprising the watch list. NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision players who serve as down lineman on either side of the ball are eligible for the Lombardi Award, and the watch list will be updated throughout the 2008 season and ultimately pared to 12 semifinalists prior to a vote by the Rotary Lombardi Selection Committee. The Lombardi Award, now in its 39th year, benefits the American Cancer Society.

GRONKOWSKI SELECTED TO THE MACKEY AWARD WATCH LIST...

Senior tight end Dan Gronkowski was named to the preseason watch list for the 2008 John Mackey Award in an announcement in July by the Nassau County Sports Commission. The Mackey Award is bestowed upon the best tight end in college football and is named after the NFL Hall of Famer who is considered to be the best to have played the position. Gronkowski is one of 30 student-athletes on the watch list, including three from the Atlantic Coast Conference. Ryan Purvis of Boston College and Sam Wheeler of Virginia Tech, as well as Gronkowski's brother, Rob, who plays for the University of Arizona, join the Terrapin senior on the list. An Academic All-America nominee the last two seasons, Gronkowski should vie for conference honors this season. He caught seven passes for 66 yards in 2007, despite being used primarily as a blocking tight end. Gronkowski is the third Terrapin tight end to garner inclusion on the Mackey Award watch list over the last four years, joining Vernon Davis (2005) and Joey Haynos (2007). Gronkowski ranks third on the team with 10 receptions.

TERPS OWN NATION'S LONGEST STREAK...

- During the last seven-plus seasons, Maryland has had three punters (Brooks Barnard, Adam Podlesh, and Travis Baltz), two long snappers (Jon Condo and Andrew Schmitt) and zero blocked punts. In fact, since the Wake Forest game in 1999 (Oct. 9), only three players (Barnard, Podlesh, Baltz) have started at punter.
- The Terrapins' streak without a blocked punt goes back 103 games, the longest streak in college football. The team hopes to keep that streak intact under new special teams coordinator Danny Pearman.
- The Terps have not had a punt blocked since Nov. 13, 1999 (Florida State). That amount of time became the longest in NCAA football when Georgia had a punt blocked by Ole Miss in 2006, snapping a streak which began earlier in the 1999 season.

TOUGH SLATE THIS SEASON...

- In 2008, the Terps are scheduled to face seven teams that played in bowl games a year ago (California, Clemson, Virginia, Wake Forest, Virginia Tech, FSU and Boston College). Three of those foes (Clemson, Virginia Tech and Wake Forest) were ranked in the AP preseason top 25. Currently, Wake Forest (25) and Virginia Tech (20) are two upcoming opponents ranked in the AP poll.
- Maryland's league road schedule may be the toughest in the ACC, based on last year's results. The Terps' four road games (Boston College, Clemson, Virginia Tech and Virginia) come against the top two finishers from each division last year.

PROTECTING THE HOUSE...

- The Terrapins are 35-11 at Chevy Chase Bank Field at Byrd Stadium under Ralph Friedgen, including 3-0 this season.
- The Terps finished the 2003 season with a perfect 6-0 record at home, marking the second time in three years that the team had finished its home slate unblemished.
- In 115 seasons of football, Maryland has finished undefeated at home 19 times. Just eight of those occasions, however, have come since 1950 (when Byrd Stadium opened) and just three times has it happened since 1975 ('76, 2001 and '03).
- The Terrapins' 6-0 mark in 2003 tied for the second-best record at home in school history. The 1976 team was also 6-0, only to be trumped by the 2001 team which won all of its games on a seven-game home slate.

TERPS ON THE AIR...

Maryland's football broadcasting lineup for 2008-09, includes the Ralph Friedgen Radio Show and the Ralph Friedgen Television Show (FridgeTV). The Ralph Friedgen Radio Show airs from 8-9 p.m. each Wednesday during the season on the Terrapin Sports Radio Network (see adjoining chart for affiliates) which increased from 10 to 14 affiliates this season. The Ralph Friedgen Television Show, which is presented by Outback Steakhouse, airs weekly at 11:30 a.m. Saturday on Comcast SportsNet Mid-Atlantic. The fast-paced, 30-minute show goes behind the scenes with Friedgen and the Maryland football team. Replays of the show are scheduled for 7 p.m. Sunday on Comcast SportsNet, just prior to the rebroadcast of the Terps most recent football game. Comcast SportsNet will carry the official rebroadcasts of all 12 University of Maryland football matchups. Friedgen also appears each Wednesday during the season on Comcast's SportsNite wrap-up show. Comcast goes live "Inside the Coach's Office" with Friedgen at 6:45 p.m. each Wednesday.

SUITE TIMES AT BYRD...

Construction is ongoing for a $50.8 million expansion of Tyser Tower. The new facility will include suites, new areas for working media and new booths for radio and television. Construction began in phases following the end of the 2007 season with the goal of opening prior to the 2009 season. Phase One includes the expansion of Tyser Tower which includes the addition of 64 suites, mezzanine seating for 500, new work area for television, radio and print media, new work area for coaches and game-day staff, a new merchandise outlet, enhanced seating for disabled customers and a new $1.2 million state-of-the-art video scoreboard, which was installed in time for the 2008 season. Phase Two will include installation of railings in the north and south lower bowl, chair-back seating in the 200 level on the north side and additional restrooms and concessions on the south side. The playing field will be lowered to improve site lines in the first 10 rows and converting those 3,000 seats into some of the best in the stadium.

'TERRAPINS RISING' TAKETWO...

The second season of 'Terrapins Rising,' a reality television show chronicling Maryland's spring football practice, aired this past summer. The series, presented by Under Armour, featured 10 episodes on Comcast Sportsnet. 'Terrapins Rising' provides a behind-the-scenes look at the inner workings of a major college football program. The series, a first of its kind at the collegiate level, debuted last summer. Footage for the show was shot beginning in January and continued through the end of spring practice. A film crew, led by former University of Maryland and Washington Redskins place-kicker Jess Atkinson, followed the team both on and off the field. The crew also sat in on team and positional meetings. 'Terrapins Rising' is the result of a partnership between Maryland Athletics, Under Armour and Atkinson & Co. Episodes from the last two seasons are available on FridgeTV.com

- Ralph Friedgen is in his eighth year as Maryland's head football coach. He is the 33rd man to hold the post at the university and it is his first head coaching position.
- Friedgen's current record at Maryland -- which also serves as his career mark -- stands at 60-32 (.652), including the first back-to-back-to-back 10-win seasons in school history (10-2 in 2001, 11-3 in 2002 and 10-3 in 2003).
- The 60 wins in seven-plus seasons are more than the Terps had (55) in the 14 years prior to his arrival.
- Four of the school's 13 nine-win seasons have come in Friedgen's tenure.
- During the 2007 campaign, the Terps defeated two top 10 teams (No. 10 Rutgers, No. 8 Boston College). The Terps had never upended two top 10 teams in the same season. They are also one of only four teams in the nation (LSU, Kentucky, Illinois) to accomplish that feat in 2007.
- Under Friedgen, the Terps posted a school-record three-straight bowl wins, culminating with a 24-7 triumph over Purdue in the 2006 Champs Sports Bowl. The Terps have out-scored their last three bowl opponents by a 109-38 margin.
- He has led Maryland to bowl appearances in five of his seven seasons, including dominating wins in the 2004 Toyota Gator Bowl (41-7) and a 2002 Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl (30-3) victory over perennial national power Tennessee (a team ranked fifth in the two major preseason polls). The Terrapins also earned a BCS Orange Bowl berth during the 2001 campaign.
- Friedgen's 56 career wins were the third most by any ACC coach through his first seven seasons as head coach.
- In his first four years at Maryland, Friedgen set the ACC record for wins (36) by a fourth-year head coach. He was tied for second in the ACC in wins by a fifth-year coach.
- Friedgen was the second-most successful sixth-year coach in ACC history, with his 50-24 mark (through the end of 2006) eclipsing those of such former league mentors as Bobby Ross and Lou Holtz.
- Maryland posted a school record tying 11 victories in 2002, when the Terps won 10 of their last 11 games. Only the 1976 team won as many contests.
- By winning 11 games in 2002, Friedgen became just the second coach in school history to do so (Jerry Claiborne, 1976) while becoming the first coach in Terrapin lore to win 10 games in three straight campaigns.

- Friedgen led the Terps to a top 20 final national ranking in both major national polls for three straight years (2001-03). Maryland ended 2003 ranked 17th in the ESPN/USA Today Coaches' poll and 20th by the Associated Press. In 2002, the Terps were ranked 13th in both polls and in 2001 the team finished 10th in the ESPN/USA Today poll and 11th in the AP standings. It was the program's best three-year ranking finish since 1974-76 (when the Terps finished 13th, 13th and eighth).
- Friedgen has a 34-23 (.596) Atlantic Coast Conference record, including a 7-1 mark in 2001 when the Terps became the first team other than Florida State to win an outright ACC title since the Seminoles joined the league, and a 6-2 mark and runner-up finish in 2002.
- He has 36 wins in 47 games at Chevy Chase Bank Field at Byrd Stadium, where the Terps averaged a school-record 52,426 fans in 2005 and 51,263 in 2007 (third-most in school history).
- He led his 2001 team to just the fifth 10-win season in school history and its first ACC title since 1985.
- By winning the ACC title in 2001, Friedgen became the first mentor in conference history to win the championship in his first year as a head coach. He also tied the mark of 10-2 set by Ken Hatfield (Clemson) in 1990, the best record ever by an ACC coach in his first season.
- In his seven seasons, the Terps have earned 33 Academic All-ACC honors and 19 All-America accolades.
- Prior to his current stint in College Park, Friedgen served as Georgia Tech's offensive coordinator for nine of the previous 14 years.
- From 1998-2000, Friedgen orchestrated a Yellow Jacket offensive unit that averaged 36.7 points and 444 yards of total offense per game, while posting a cumulative record of 27-8 (.771).
- Friedgen was the offensive coordinator at Maryland under Bobby Ross when the Terps won three consecutive ACC titles in the mid-'80s.
- The 61-year-old Friedgen owns the rare distinction of coordinating the offense of a collegiate national champion (Georgia Tech in 1990) and a Super Bowl participant (the San Diego Chargers in 1994).
- In his first five years as a full-time coach at Maryland (1982-86), Friedgen was instrumental (along with QB coach Joe Krivak) in the development of future pro quarterbacks Boomer Esiason, Frank Reich and Stan Gelbaugh, all of whom spent at least a decade in the NFL.

GAME1

Aug. 30, 2008

Maryland 14, Delaware 7

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - Da'Rel Scott ran for 197 yards in his first college start and the Maryland defense forced two turnovers in a 14-7 victory over Delaware in the season opener for both teams.

Scott carried 26 times and had runs of 40, 37 and 26 yards. The 5-foot-11, 192-pound sophomore totaled 137 yards rushing last season in nine games as a backup.

The last Maryland running back to gain that much yardage on the ground was Bruce Perry, who had 237 against Wake Forest on Nov. 29, 2003.

Scott also set a Maryland record for most rushing yards in a season-opener. It also ranks 16th on the school's single-game rushing chart.

The Terps defense also chipped in, limiting Delaware to just 249 yards of total offense.

But the Terrapins missed three field goals and had trouble pulling away from Delaware, which has 14 starters back from the team that last year advanced to the Football Championship Subdivision title game.

Senior Jordan Steffy started at quarterback for the Terrapins, completing 10 of 18 passes for 115 yards with two interceptions. Junior Chris Turner came on in the fourth quarter and led the final three drives, going 1-for-3 with 11 passing yards. Junior Josh Portis also played the position, running four times for 10 yards.

The Maryland touchdowns came on a 12-yard reverse by wide receiver Darius Heyward-Bey in the second quarter and on a 14-yard run by Davin Meggett in the third quarter.

Heyward-Bey caught four passes for 70 yards, including a 36-yarder from Steffy which set up his touchdown run.

Delaware closed to 14-7 on a 1-yard run by Johnathon Smith with 5:20 left. The Blue Hens got the ball back with 3:32 left, but after Robby Schoenhof was intercepted by Terrell Skinner and Maryland ran out the clock.

Maryland limited the Blue Hens to 108 yards in the first half and led 7-0 at halftime.

Middle Tennessee State 24, Maryland 14

MURFREESBORO, Tenn. - Joe Craddock passed for 256 yards and two touchdowns to lead Middle Tennessee State to a win over Maryland.

Craddock led MTSU on a 10-play, 80-yard drive to open the game, throwing a 5-yard touchdown pass to Sancho McDonald with 9:04 left in the quarter.

The Blue Raiders (1-1) converted a fake punt when punter David DeFatta rolled to the right and threw back to Alvin Ingle for a 28-yard completion.

Maryland answered when Da'Rel Scott dashed 63 yards on the Terrapins second play to tie the game. Scott rushed for a game-high 123 yards, following up a 197-yard performance in last week's season opener vs. Delaware.

The Blue Raiders capitalized on an interception to extend the lead to 17-7 midway through the fourth quarter.

Danny Carmichael recorded his first career interception when Maryland wide receiver Darius Heyward-Bey slipped and fell on a pattern and Chris Turner's pass landed in his hands. Carmichael returned the pick 25 yards to the Maryland 5. Phillip Tanner scored on a 1-yard run three plays later.

Maryland used a big play to pull within 17-14 with 2:15 left in the third quarter. Turner threw a short pass to Heyward-Bey, who turned it into a 80-yard touchdown. It was the second-longest reception of Heyward-Bey's career and longest completion of Turner's.

Craddock's second touchdown pass, a 53-yard strike to Malcolm Beyah with 22 seconds remaining in the third quarter, provided the final margin.

Maryland had three possessions inside the Middle Tennessee 35 in the final quarter but couldn't score.

A drive midway in the fourth quarter ended when backup quarterback Josh Portis was stopped for a loss on fourth down.

The Blue Raiders picked off two passes in the fourth quarter. Ted Riley had one at the MTSU 2 midway through the fourth quarter. Alex Suber's interception in the end zone with 2:18 remaining secured the win.

GAME3

Sept. 13, 2008

Maryland 35, No. 23/25 California 27

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - Maryland scored touchdowns on its first three possessions en route to an upset of No. 23 California. The Golden Bears didn't reach the end zone until the closing minutes, and by then it was far too late.

Da'Rel Scott ran for 87 yards and two touchdowns before leaving with a shoulder injury, Chris Turner threw for scores and the Terps (2-1) used a relentless defense to harass the Golden Bears (2-1) from the start.

California scored three touchdowns in the final seven minutes, but it was too late. Quarterback Kevin Riley finished 33-for-58 passing for 423 yards and the three scores. The 58 passes were a school record.

The Terrapins led 21-3 early in the second quarter, 21-6 at halftime and 28-6 after three quarters.

California's Jahvid Best, who amassed 311 yards rushing in his first two games, was at minus-1 after his first five carries. He also absorbed a very hard hit on a short pass with three minutes left in the second quarter and did not return until after halftime.

Best finished with 25 yards on 10 carries. Riley's 10-yard touchdown pass to Cameron Morrah with 6:55 left made it 28-13, but the Terrapins recovered the ensuing outside kick and needed only two plays to reach the end zone. Two late TDs by the California narrowed the gap, but Maryland got the outside kick after those scores, too.

After Cal failed to get a first down on its opening possession, Maryland moved 60 yards in five plays to take a 7-0 lead. Scott accounted for 44 yards rushing on the drive, including a 24-yard touchdown run.

Riley was then intercepted by Kevin Barnes, who ran 17 yards to the Cal 14. Four plays later, Scott scored from the 1 to make it 14-0.

It was 14-3 before the Terrapins moved 60 yards in a 14-play drive culminated by a 1-yard touchdown pass from Turner to Dan Gronkowski. Turner went 7-for-10 for 55 yards and converted three third downs.

Maryland went up 28-6 in the third quarter on a 27-yard touchdown pass from Turner to Darius Heyward-Bey.

Sept. 20, 2008

Maryland 51, Eastern Michigan 24

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - Wide receiver Darrius Heyward-Bey caught a 32-yard touchdown pass and ran twice for 81 yards, part of a prolific offensive showing that carried Maryland past Eastern Michigan.

Morgan Green ran for two touchdowns and Chris Turner threw for 212 yards and two TDs for the Terrapins (3-1), who scored on nine of their 13 possessions.

Kyle McMahon completed 25 of 37 passes for 278 yards and two touchdowns for the Eagles. But Eastern Michigan (1-3), which had lost its previous three games against Maryland by a combined 132-19 score, was let down by a defense that forced only one punt and yielded 486 yards.

Heyward-Bey had runs of 35 and 46 yards, each of which set up a TD. He finished as the second-leading rusher for Maryland. Despite playing without injured Da'Rel Scott the Terrapins finished with 231 yards rushing.

Adrian Moten blocked a punt and had an interception to help the Terrapins go up 17-0 early in the second quarter.

After letting its lead dwindle to 24-14, Maryland scored on its first possession of the second half. Heyward-Bey ran 46 yards on the opening play, which led to Turner's 4-yard pass to tight end Dan Gronkowski in the end zone.

It was 34-17 after three quarters, and a 33-yard field goal by Obi Egekeze put the Terps up by 20 with 11:46 to go.

After EMU closed to 37-24, Heyward-Bey lateraled to Danny Oquendo, who threw a 43-yard TD pass to Isaiah Williams for a 44-24 lead.

Heyward-Bey ran 35 yards on an end around. Nine plays later, Green scored from the 1 on fourth-and-goal for a 10-0 lead.

In the second quarter, Moten picked off a McMahon pass at the Eastern Michigan 48 before Green ran around right end for a 20-yard score.

GAME 5

Sept. 27, 2008

Maryland 20, No. 19 Clemson 17

CLEMSON, S.C. - Chris Turner threw for a touchdown and Da'Rel Scott rushed for one to rally Maryland to its second straight Death Valley victory with a win over Clemson.

Maryland (4-1, 1-0 ACC) came in as a big underdog, just like in 2006 here, against the preseason favorites for the conference title. And just like two years ago, the Terps overcame a second-half deficit for the win.

Maryland trailed 17-6 in the third quarter when Darrius Heyward-Bey went 76 yards on a reverse - the longest run Clemson allowed in eight years - to give the Terps a 1st-and-goal.

Two plays later, Turner found a wide-open Torrey Smith to make it 17-13.

Still down in the final quarter, Turner got the Terps going again. He hit Danny Oquendo with passes of 11, 11 and 21 yards to get Maryland to the Clemson 1.

Scott, the ACC's leading rusher entering the game, ran in for the go-ahead score.

Clemson had one last chance, driving into Maryland territory. But Cullen Harper was stopped short on fourth-and-1 with 5:36 remaining.

Maryland didn't give the ball back, finishing off its fourth straight victory over a ranked team. It was also the Terps' third win in their past four visits to Death Valley.

The Terps were outgained by Clemson 295 to 372, with Scott finishing with 39 yards. Still, it didn't matter to the outcome, the same as in 2006.

Then, Dan Ennis kicked a 31-yard field goal as time expired in a 13-12 Maryland victory that ultimately knocked Clemson out of the ACC title game.

Star runners James Davis and C.J. Spiller combined for 193 yards and two touchdowns by halftime to build the Tigers a 17-6 lead.

Maryland's defense, which struggled early on, didn't give up a point in the second half, forcing four punts and the crunching fourth-down stop on Harper.

Davis and Spiller, the vaunted "Thunder and Lightning," got just 31 yards between them the final two quarters.
