THE 3RD RUNNING OF THE NVA NATIONAL QUAIL CHAMPIONSHIP

— November 2-4, 2010 —

West Kentucky Wildlife Area
10535 Ogden Landing Road, Kevil, KY 42053

This year we have some exciting new changes for the NVA National Quail Championship. We will be holding the Championship and companion derby on the famed WKWA grounds outside of Paducah Kentucky. These grounds are steeped in many years of bird dog history and have been home to the Quail Championship Invitational which is the top 12 qualified dogs competing in an endurance type trial. Entrants run one-hour heats on successive days with the top dogs called back for two hour heats on the third day. This event is then followed by the Kentucky Quail Classic which is a National Championship qualifying trial. These events have run there for about 70 years.

We are blessed to have the opportunity to be allowed to use these grounds and perhaps as a permanent site for our championship. The grounds offer 6 one hour courses, a clubhouse, dog kennels, horse barns, and some wild birds. We would like to cordially invite everyone to join us in Kentucky for the last Championship vizsla event for the year. Please read all following information as to entries, fees, and other particulars.

We are very blessed to have some of the best in the dog world judge and help at this event. Mr. Terry Allen, one of the best dog wagon men in the country will be manning the dog wagon for us on the continuous courses. Terry knows bird dogs and will be teaching us how to navigate the grounds and have our dogs ready to go at the line. The Crouse brothers of Dixon Kentucky will be each respectively judging one stake apiece. Mike will be judging the Open Championship and Jim will be helping marshal and judging the derby classic. These men have judged numerous big championships around the country as well as on the Ames Plantation. Lastly we have Mr. John Burrow out of South Fulton, Tennessee who is no stranger to the saddle and is a very knowledgeable and respected bird dog man in his own right. He will be judging the Open and the Derby. There is a great deal of experience and bird dog history behind these men and it will be a privilege to have them with us.

The Baymont Inn in Paducah will serve as the trialers headquarters so please mention the event when you book your room to get our special price. We will be doing the drawing on the grounds at the clubhouse on Monday November 1st following a lasagna dinner. On Tuesday we will be having a traditional southern catfish fry with the fix ins, and Wednesday a good old down home BBQ pig. Horses must be stalled in the barns and there is a modest $2 fee per horse and a modest fee per dog run to help go toward the maintenance of these facilities. All the facilities there are cared for by the local dog clubs. Please do your part in keeping your area clean.

We encourage and prefer entries sent using the entry forms on the following page prior to the event. You can however, enter right up to the drawing time on November 1st. If you are sending them, please make sure they arrive by October 29th. There is a form following for trophy donations and we would love to have people sponsor a trophy in there dog or kennel name. A Championship takes a great deal of money and effort to put on so if you can make a monetary or time contribution to help run the event please let Carrie or Rob know.

I encourage you all to come join us in learning some bird dog history, on some time honored grounds, with some well respected bird dog men. Each day meeting on the field in true quail country to enjoy the camaraderie and competition to see who is "The National Quail Champion" and being apart of making vizsla history.

This event will be followed by a three day event hosted by the new Hoosier Vizsla Club and will run on November 5-7 starting with an Open Limited money stake.

We wish you all the best of luck this trial season and safe travels along the way. Thank you to each and everyone for your efforts and support in making this a fun and successful event and don't forget to buy your ticket for the 20 Gauge shotgun raffle. Any questions call or email Robert Tomczak (715-829-8104 / shilohkl@aol.com) or Carrie Syczlyo (765-235-9216 / durite@iendeavor.com).

*Hoping to see you all there,
Robert Tomczak, NVA Vice President and event chair*
