

Financial/Scholarship Aid Request

Center For Creative Youth

If you are requesting any financial/scholarship aid, you must complete this entire page. Acceptance decisions are not affected by financial aid requests. Please apply as early as possible. The distribution decisions will not be made until ALL of your required financial paperwork has been received by our office. Financial aid is based on need and talent.

The fee for the Center for Creative Youth four-week program is $3,600. This includes tuition, room/board, health service (exclusive of emergency room visits), field trips, group events and social activities. Some Connecticut schools participate in CCY by paying tuition. Please check with the CCY office to find out if your district pays tuition. The distribution of district monies will be decided by CCY based on both need and talent.

A copy of parents'/guardians' federal income tax return(s) for 2013 is required. Requests for aid without federal tax returns cannot be considered. If you do not file a federal tax return, appropriate official documentation of your current financial situation will be required. Call the office with any concerns.

Our Financial Aid money is limited and allocated for families who truly cannot afford the costs of the program. Please carefully and realistically consider the amount you truly need in order for your child to attend CCY.
