3. COMPENSATION

For purposes of administering this Agreement, the compensation year of the Executive shall commence April 1 of each year and end on March 31 of the next following year.

3.2 Performance Incentive

Subject to Board Policy on CEO compensation and any directives/guidelines from the Ministry of Health and Long Term Care for employers in the Broader Public Sector, the Board may provide performance incentive compensation to the Executive as follows:

- a. The Board, in consultation with the Executive, will establish annual and long term goals and objectives for the Executive. The Board (or a committee of the Board) shall conduct a performance evaluation of the Executive in the 1st quarter of each compensation year, to determine the extent to which the Executive has been successful in achieving the goals and objectives set in the preceding compensation year.
- b. Upon completion of each such evaluation, the Board will determine whether the Executive is eligible to receive an annual lump sum payment of up to 10% of her base salary, as a performance incentive payment in consideration of the achievement of the goals and objectives.
- c. If the Board determines that the Executive is entitled to receive such performance incentive, the amount so awarded shall be paid to the Executive within 30 days of such determination.
- d. The performance incentive pay is pensionable for the purposes of the Healthcare of Ontario Pension Plan (HOOPP).

3.3 Benefits

- a. The Executive will be entitled to participate in all of the benefits available to other senior executive employees of the Employer from time to time in effect, subject to, and in accordance with, the terms and conditions of the applicable benefit plans.
- b. Membership in HOOPP per the terms and conditions of HOOPP. The Employer pays the employer contributions and the Executive pays the employee contributions.
- c. The Executive shall be entitled to six (6) weeks (i.e. 30 working days) of paid vacation for each year of employment, which will accrue at the rate of approximately 1.15 days per completed bi-weekly pay period (actual amount is based on 30 days per year/26 pay periods per year), subject to, and in accordance with, the Employer's vacation policies in effect from time to time or as amended by this paragraph. The vacation must be taken each year save and except that a maximum of 1 week of vacation may be carried forward to the following year.
- d. The Executive shall be entitled such statutory and other holidays as the Board provides to managerial staff of the Employer.
- e. The Employer shall pay reasonable educational expenses that have been approved by the Board in advance of the expense being incurred or pursuant to a policy of the Board.
- f. So long as the Executive remains actively employed by the Employer, the Executive will be provided with a blackberry/iPhone, iPad and a laptop computer, which are required by the Executive in order to perform her duties and responsibilities under this Agreement. For greater certainty, all expenses related to this equipment, including, but not limited to, the costs for telecom services and long-distance charges shall be paid by the Employer.
- g. It is understood that the Employer's responsibility for any insurance, pension or benefit plans is limited to the contribution of the Employer's agreed share of premiums and the Employer is not the insurer of any benefits provided pursuant to such plans.

3.4 Expenses

The Employer will reimburse the Executive for all reasonable business-related expenses, including, but not limited to, expenses for conferences, courses, and related travel and mileage for the Executive, incidental and other expenses actually and properly incurred by the Executive directly in the course of her employment with the Employer in accordance with, and subject to, the Employer's expense policies in effect from time to time. An expense report, along with appropriate statements, vouchers and receipts verifying such expenses, shall be submitted for approval by the Chair or Vice-Chair of the Board

4. TERMINATION

The Executive's employment with the Employer under this Agreement will terminate in the following circumstances.

4.1 Termination Without Cause

- a. The Employer may terminate this Agreement and the employment of the Executive without cause at any time during the term of this Agreement by delivering written notice to the Executive.
- b. In the event of termination by the Employer without cause, the Executive shall receive in lieu of notice, payment of six (6) months base salary plus payment of one (1) month's base salary for each completed year of service, to a maximum in total of twenty-four (24) months base salary, less any withholding taxes and other required deductions ("Pay-in-Lieu of Notice Period").
- c. Any Pay-in-Lieu of Notice Period payment may be paid by the Employer, in its sole discretion, either by way of salary continuation, by way of a lump sum payment or any combination of the foregoing.
- d. For greater certainty, during any Pay-in-Lieu of Notice Period:
 - (i) The Employer will continue to pay to the Executive, an amount (less required deductions) equal to the Executive's annual Base Salary as of her termination date for the Pay-in-Lieu of Notice Period.
 - (ii) All benefits as referenced in Article 4 above, excluding long term disability benefits, will continue until the earlier of: (A) the last date in the Pay-in-Lieu of Notice period; or (B) the date that the Executive otherwise obtains replacement coverage for such benefits from new employment. In the event that the Employer is not able to continue said benefits, it will compensate the Executive by way of a lump sum payment equivalent to the cost to the Employer for the said benefits for the Pay-in-Lieu of Notice Period.
 - (iii) Should the Executive obtain alternate comparable employment in Ontario at any time prior to the expiration of the Pay-in-Lieu of Notice Period immediately following the date of termination, the Employer would only continue to pay the difference, if any, in the salary and benefits. By example, if the Executive's alternate position was to pay Twenty Thousand Dollars ($20,000.00) a year less, then the Employer would pay this difference to the Executive for the balance of the Pay-in-Lieu of Notice Period. Similarly, contributions would continue to be made to the HOOP pension plan in the event that the Executive's alternate position does not offer the HOOP pension plan.

4.2 Termination for Cause

Without limiting or otherwise affecting any of the remedies that the Employer may have hereunder, the Employer may immediately terminate the Executive's employment, at any time, for cause (without notice or payment of compensation in lieu of notice or damages of any kind) by notifying the Executive in writing of such termination. For greater certainty, "cause", which shall mean cause as defined at common law.

4.3 Resignation

The Executive may terminate her employment, at any time, by providing where practical three (3) months, but in no event less than 60 days, written notice (or such lesser notice upon which the parties may mutually agree) of her resignation date to the Employer. The Employer may waive the notice, in whole or in part, and the Executive hereby agrees to accept any such waiver in that regard.

If the Executive voluntarily resigns from her employment, she shall not be entitled to any notice or severance.

4.4 Release

The parties confirm that the provisions in paragraphs 4 of this Agreement are fair and reasonable, and are in full satisfaction of any and all entitlements that the Executive may have, pursuant to statute (including any claim for termination pay or severance pay under the then applicable employment standards legislation), contract, common law or otherwise, as a result of the termination of the Executive's employment with the Employer. The parties further agree that, upon any termination of the Executive's employment, the Executive will have no action, cause of action, claim, complaint or demand whatsoever against the Employer, its respective successors or assigns, or any of its officers, directors, executives or agents or any other person as a consequence of such termination.

5. CONFLICT OF INTEREST

The Executive shall devote her full attention to the performance of the duties of CEO of the Employer and shall not engage in any activity or undertake other responsibilities or positions that conflict or potentially conflict with those duties. The Executive shall disclose to the Chair of the Board without delay any circumstances that may be reasonably interpreted as creating a conflict of interest or a potential conflict of interest with the position or duties as CEO.

6. CONFIDENTIALITY

During and following the term of this Agreement, the CEO shall not divulge any information of a character confidential to the Employer except as required by law. For the purposes of this section "information of a character confidential to the Employer" means information that is not generally available to the public.

7. GENERAL PROVISIONS
