Interested in Volunteering ?

There are so many different ways that you can volunteer your time. The trick is to make your volunteer experience the best it can be by taking the time to think about your interests and how they can be used to help others. Even if you have never done anything before, volunteering provides you with an opportunity to at least give it a shot. And, by getting involved, not only will you receive a sense of satisfaction (and occasionally havoc!), but you'll meet many great new people and develop new skills - some you never knew you had before !

Still with us ? Good - now please fill out the form below and hand it back to an INS Officer. We'll be in touch soon. Thank you.
