No Advance in Price

Chevrolet "Model 490" Roadsters and Touring Cars have not advanced in price and are recognized, today as the one car giving full value for the money invested. Owing to increases in the cost of material the price is sure to advance soon. We were fortunate last fall in securing several of them.

Buy a Chevrolet and enjoy driving a car at a minimum cost, both as to first price and up-keep.

Make your reservation now to avoid the likelihood of disappointment in the spring when the roads are good and you will be longing for the Great Out-doors.

COMPLETE-NESS

Your Tractor should be a complete investment, one that is 100 percent efficient, belt and draw bar.

The International 10-20 is the one small tractor that is in this class.

For a larger tractor the Stinson 18-30 is without a doubt over the top on account of its wonderful construction, being light in weight and yet, when pulling its load the drawbar is so constructed that the drivewheels receive the proper portion of the draft so there is no danger of the drive wheels slipping and its speed is 3-4 miles per hour pulling a 4-14 in. plow.

UNITED FARMERS MEET

A very successful meeting of the farmers was held in the Orange Hall on Thursday afternoon when Mr. W. J. Lovie, of Holland, addressed the meeting giving an outline of why the organized farmers came into existence, and what they had been able to accomplish, also, their reason for entering politics and what they hoped to achieve. In conclusion he gave a detailed explanation of the Drive which is to be put on in Macdonald constituency during the week beginning with the 8th day of March, when each farmer in this constituency will be given an opportunity to accept what is known as a six dollar proposition, made up as follows: $2.00 pays a membership fee to the United Farmers of Manitoba, formerly known as the Grain Grower's Association, $3.00 pays a three years subscription to the Grain Grower's Guide, $1.00 to a political campaign fund.

Mr. Logoboom, of Oakville, who is organizer for Macdonald, was also present and told of how organization work was progressing in the constituency, and at the close of the meeting assisted District Captain J. H. Robertson to appoint and instruct canvassers. A meeting of a similar nature will be held in Rathwell, on Thursday afternoon, February 19th, when Mr. Burnell of Oakville, will address the meeting.

DICKENS' CLUB NOTES

The Valentine Social held at Mrs. Herb Barkwell's on Saturday was a great success. In spite of the thermometer registering 28 below, ten dauntless Dickensians dared the elements, but judging by the singing and merriment all the way—the weather passed unnoticed.

The cakes were a work of art, embellished with red hearts, pink hearts, and wonderful inscriptions. Each member fished for a valentine, many of which were of a most ludicrous nature, causing more merriment. Music and songs were enjoyed, the event was voted a great success. All thanks to the kind hostess and the heroic driver.

On Monday the regular meeting was held in the dining hall of the Central Hotel, two more chapters of David Copperfield were read and discussed. Twenty Dickensians took part.

A meeting place for next Monday has not been fixed, members will be advised by phone.

The Saturday snowshoeing party will meet outside Chalmers Church at 4 p. m., for a short tramp.

It was owing to the kindness of Miss Marshall, who so cheerfully took and knitted up the left over pieces of yarn, the "Soldiers' Aid" were enabled to send in six pairs of socks this week to the Rd Cross 317 Fortage Avenue, Winnipeg. This completes all the left over material belonging to this society.

At Cypress River at 8 p. m. Friday, there passed away one of the well known residents of this district, in the person of Mrs. Fred Thompson. Mrs. Thompson succumbed to an attack of the "Flu" after five days illness, and leaves behind her many sorrowing friends.

As a resident of this district for many years, the deceased lady was well known and highly respected and will long be remembered for her kindly disposition and sterling character. The late Mrs. Thompson was born in Regina just 30 years ago, her maiden name being Annie Gertrude Precious. The family moved to this district when she was quite young so that most of her life was spent in this neighborhood. Seven years ago she was married in Winnipeg to Fred Thompson and she is survived by her husband and three small children to mourn the loss of a faithful wife and wise and patient mother.

The deceased lady is also survived by three brothers and four sisters who reside several miles north of Treherne.

The funeral service was conducted by the Rev. Mr. Lousley and interment was made in Bethel cemetery.

BORN—At Treherne, on Monday, February 16th, to Mr. and Mrs. A. L. McGowan, a son.

COMMUNITY CLUB ENTERTAINMENT

The Community Club has secured Mr. James Isherwood of Winnipeg, so well and favorably known to a large number in this district to give a song recital in Pollon's Hall on Tuesday evening, February 24th.

A musical program consisting of four Irish, four Scotch, four English and four modern numbers will be given and a treat is in store for all who will come out.

The program, subject to revision, is as follows:

Irish Songs: Believe Me, If all those endearing young charms; O! to Philadelphia; Would God I were the tender apple blossom. The low-backed car.

English Songs: The pretty creature; Drink to me only, Sally in our ally, Richard of Taunton.

Community Singing: Sylvia, My little banjo, Vale.

Scotch: W! A Hundred Pipers, Annie Laurie, Standard on the braes O Mar, March of the Cameron Men. If any number of our people would like any favorite song sung which is not on the above program, and will leave name with Mr. Houston, Bank of Commerce, up to noon Saturday, same will be submitted to Mr. Isherwood.

As our club does not wish to make any direct appeal to carry on the work we are trying to do of making Treherne and district a better place to live in we are taking this means of replenishing our treasury and hope for a generous response from all and a full house. The price of admission has been set as low as possible viz 50c and 6c war tax. Tickets on sale at Graham's Drug Store and from all members of our executive and committee.

Community singing from 8 to 8:30. Recital commences sharp at 8:30.

John Waldon Dead

Well-Known Pioneer Passes On

One of the well-known citizens of this district passed away on Monday at 1:30 p. m. in the person of John Waldon. Mr. Waldon became ill about a year ago but was not confined to his bed until 6 weeks before his death. All care that could be given and also medical aid seemed unavailing. He leaves a wife and two sons, Wallace and Walter of Treherne, and another son, William of Oak River, died sometime ago.

The funeral took place on Wednesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock at his late residence. Rev. J. A. Lousley preached the service. A large number were present to pay their last respects. John Waldon was born in Devonshire England May 4, 1846, coming to Canada August 1868 locating in Bellmore, Huron County, Ontario. He was married at Minto, Wellington County, Ont., September 13, 1872, to Mary Ann Towns, a carriage builder by trade at which business he was engaged in Newbridge, Lakelet and Wroxeter, selling his business he came West and located on a homestead N. E. of Treherne in March 1897, and which place resided until his death.

He was an Elder in the Methodist Church at McCreery and highly respected by all who knew him.

Ten Reasons Why You should Build NOW

- 1 We never become any younger
- 2 Money will not become any cheaper. Banks are threatening to increase rates.
- 3 There are certain new institutions inaugurated by the Government to assist the ambitious in just such projects toward rural credit systems for the farmer and building or housing schemes for city folk.
- 4 Mortgage companies & loan corporations have many millions to loan at reasonable rates.
- 5 One is no longer at the mercy of landlords who sell over tenants heads and cause them to move here and there and to be continually in a state of uncertainty.
- 6 Friend wife can have those little things that mean so much in her own domain: fireplaces, bay windows or the kitchen arranged by herself, to suit herself, to save steps and labor.
- 7 A man owing his own home becomes a better citizen because he will take much more interest in his community, city and country.
- 8 If labor does not settle down to increase production and thus equalize supply and demand lumber with other commodities must increase in price as time goes on.
- 9 Because Canada requires good citizens; those who have the welfare of their country at heart. And who so likely as the man with his own home with a contented wife, on good terms with his neighbors. Settled. He makes a better workman and thus becomes one to combat and eradicate unrest and Bolshevism and its hellish doctrines.
- 10 Because we are in a position to help and advise prospective home builders supply them with their every requirement at fair prices, give a correct estimate of the cost at outset and thus leave the builder with the exact knowledge of the sum required.

Consult your wife and then bring her along to see us. We have plans of every kind of building from Dog kennels to Replicas of the Woolworth Building and are very much at your service.

Pieces of Eight

Being the Authentic Narrative of a Treasure Discovered in the Bahama Islands in the Year 1903—Now First Given to the Public.

BY RICHARD LEGALIERE

CHAPTER III.—On the point of sailing they are boarded by a young fellow who gives an obviously fictitious name, "Jack Five-way," but they allow him to sail with them.

CHAPTER IV.

In Which We Enter the Wilderness.

Andros, as no other of the islands, is surrounded by a ring of reefs stretching all around its coasts. We were inside the breakwater of the reefs and the rolling swell of ocean gave way at once to a millpond calmness. We were at the entrance of North-bight, one of the three bights which, dotted with numerous low-lying cays, breaks up Andros island in the middle and allows a passage through a maze-like archipelago direct to the northwest end of Cuba. Here on the northwest shore is a small and very lonely settlement—one of the two or three settlements on the else-deserted island—Behring's point.

Here we dropped anchor and Charlie, who had some business ashore, proposed our landing with him; but here again our passenger aroused his suspicions—though Heaven knows why—by preferring to remain aboard. "Please let me off," he requested in his most top-fifty English accent. "You can see for yourself that there's nothing of interest—nothing but a beastly lot of nigger cabins, and dirty coral rock that will cut your boots to pieces. I'd much rather smoke and wait for you in peace," and, taking out his case and lighting a cigarette, he waved it gaily to us as we rowed off.

He had certainly been right about Behring's point—Charlie was absurdly certain that he had known it before, and had some reason for not landing for a more forlorn and poverty-stricken foothold of humanity could hardly be conceived; a poor little cluster of negro cabins, indeed, scrambling up from the beach, and with no streets but raggy pathways in and out among the gray clinker-like coral. But it was touching to find even here that, though the whole worldly goods of the community would scarcely have fetched ten dollars, the souls of men were still held worth caring for; for presently we came upon a pretty little church, with a schoolhouse near by, while from the roof of an adjacent building we were hailed by a pleasant-faced white man, busy with some shingling.

It was the good priest of the little place, Father Serapion, disguised in overalls and the honest grim of his labor; like a true Benedictine, praying with his strong and skillful hands.

Father Serapion and Charlie were old friends, and Charlie took occasion to confide in him with regard to Tobias, and, to his huge delight, discovered that a man answering very closely to his description had dropped in there with a large sponger two days before. He had only stopped long enough to buy rum at the little store near the landing and had been off again through the bight, sailing west. Father Serapion, who knew Charlie Webster's shooting ground, promised to send a swift messenger should anything further of interest to us come to his knowledge within the next week or so.

Then we sailed away from Behring's point, due west through the North bight. Morning found us sailing through a maze of low-lying desert islands of a bewildering sameness of shape and size, with practically nothing to distinguish one from another. We had hoped to reach our camp, out on the other side of the island, that evening, but that dodging the shoals and striking in the mud had considerably delayed us. Besides, though Charlie and the captain both hated to admit it, we had lost our way. So night began to fall, and as there is no sailing in such waters at night, we once more cast anchor under a gloomy, black shape of land, exceedingly lonesome and forgotten-looking, which we agreed to call "Little Wood cay" till morning.

Soon all were asleep, except Sailor and me. I lay awake for a long time watching the square yard of stars that shone down through the hatch in our cabin ceiling like a little window looking into eternity, while the waters lapped and lapped outside, and the night talked strangely to itself. Next morning Charlie and the captain were forced to own up that the island discovered to the day was not Little Wood cay. No humiliation, these deep-sea sailing men; they had to have to ask his way. Besides, who was there to ask in that solitude? Doubtless a comical-looking nigger, who knew it, but no one thought to ask him.

However, we were in luck, for after sailing about a bit, we came upon two lonely negroes standing up in their boats and thrusting long poles into the water. They were sponging—most melancholy of occupations—and they looked forlorn enough in the still dawn. But they had a snile for our plight. It was evidently a good joke to have mistaken Sapodilla cay for Little Wood cay. Of course we should have gone—"so." And "so" we presently went, not without rewarding them for their information with two generous drinks of old Jamaica rum.

One of our reasons for seeking Little Wood cay, which it proved had been close all the time, was that it is one of the few cays where one can get fresh water. "Good water here," says the chart. We wanted to refill some of our jars, and so we landed there, glad to stretch our legs, while old Tom cooked our breakfast on the beach, under a sapodilla tree.

Now that we knew where we were, it was clear, but by no means careless sailing to our camp. We were making for what is known as the Wide Opening, a sort of estuary into which a listless stream or two crawl through mangrove bushes from the interior swamps.

Here, a short distance from the bank, on some slightly ascending rocky ground, under the spreading shade of something like a stretch of woodland, Charlie, several years ago, had built a rough log-shanty for his camp—one of two or three camps he had thus scattered for himself up and down the "out islands," where nearly all the land is no man's, and so every man's land. The particular camp at which we now arrived he had not visited for a long time.

Here Tom brought us our dinner and the dark began to settle down upon us, thrillingly lonely, and full of strange, desolate cries of night creatures from the mangrove swamps that surrounded our little oasis for miles. Sailor lay at our feet, dreaming of tomorrow's duck. His master's thoughts were evidently in the same direction.

"How are you with a gun?" he asked, turning to the boy.

"Oh, I won't brag. I had better wait till tomorrow. But of course, you will have to lend me a gun."

"I have a beauty for you—just your weight," replied Charlie, his face beaming, as it did only at the thought of his guns, which he kept polished like jewels and guarded as jealously as a violinist his violin, or an Arab his harem.

Dawn was just breaking as I felt Charlie's great paw on my shoulder next morning. He was very serious. "For a moment, as I sat up, still half asleep, I thought he had news of Tobias. But it was only a duck."

I was scarcely dressed, when Tom arrived with breakfast, and in a few minutes we had shouldered our guns and were crossing the half mile, or so, rocky waste that divided us from the main lakes. Ahead of us, the boys were carrying the skiffs on their shoulders, and very soon we were seated in regulation fashion on a chair in front of our respective guns across a negro behind us to

Charlie went ahead, with Sailor standing in the bow quivering with excitement. The necessity of absolute silence, of course, had been impressed upon us all by the most severe of all sportsmen. Tom (who was pulling me) and I understood that our job, and also that of my companion, was to stand behind one mangrove copse after another till we had got on the other side of a quacking flock of teal—which might then be expected to take flight in Charlie's direction and rush by him in a terrified whirlwind. This not very easy feat of stalking we were able to accomplish, thereby winning Charlie's immense approval and putting him in a splendid temper for the rest of the day; for, as the wild clou swept over him, he was able to bring down no less than seven. Like a true sportsman, in telling the story afterward in John Saunders' snuggery, he averred that the number was nine!

"The GREATEST of them all"

Head and shoulders above the crowd stands Thomas A. Edison!

"Head and shoulders" above the crowd of ordinary phonographs and "talking machines" stands Edison's great contribution to the world's enjoyment—

THE NEW DIAMOND AMBEROLA

No product can be bigger than the brain that evolves it. No other brain in the world today has the inventive ability of Edison's. That fact alone is sufficient proof of the absolute superiority of the Amberola.

But the Amberola can quickly and easily prove its own superiority. Its tone—oh, what a revelation, compared to metallic "talking machines" and shrill-sounding phonographs! None but Edison could work that miracle of tone.

Then the Amberola Records, made for the Amberola alone! They are practically unbreakable and everlasting—what a contrast to the costly fragileness of other phonograph records. And for range of music—the widest in the world—all the best, all the greatest, all the latest. An endless feast of fascinating melody.

Yet the biggest surprise of all is the price! This wonder phonograph costs less than inferior competitors! There is not a single drawback to your owning an Amberola right now! Don't listen to the claims of other manufacturers—listen to their machines. Then come in and compare the matchless tone of the Amberola. Edison's wizardry will win you every time. We'll expect you in today—now don't forget.

FREE Trial Offer

We will place an Amberola in your home for 3 Days' Trial, which will not put you under the slightest obligation or expense. Come here, select an Amberola and a number of records and we'll send them to your home. At the end of 3 days, if you do not want the Amberola, we'll call and take it away. If you do want it, we'll arrange terms of payment to suit you.

The women's section of the U. F. M. entertainment, which was to have been held on March 2nd, has been postponed to a later date on account of sickness.

Rev. J. C. Stewart will address the Union congregation at Wawanesa on Sunday in the interest of the Forward Movement.

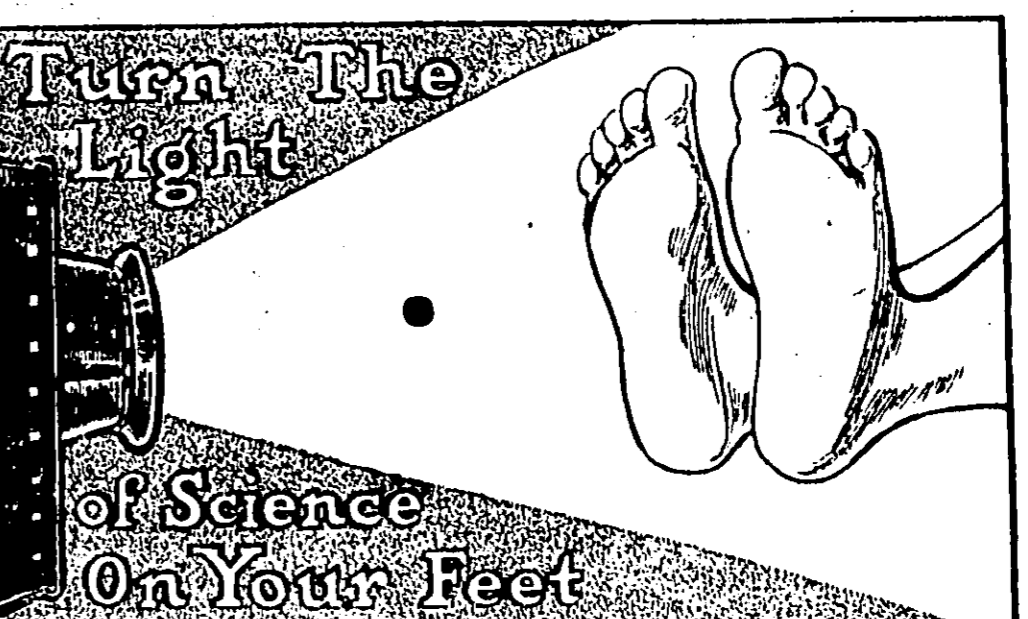

On Monday night last a jolly party made up of members of the Ladies Aid of the Methodist Church and friends drove out to the home of J. N. Lee, bringing with them everything necessary to make a regular good time. Mr. and Mrs. Lee were taken completely by surprise but cordially welcomed the party to their home and a very enjoyable evening was spent by all, the occasion being the 15th anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Lee's venture into matrimony.

IN MEMORIAM
In Loving Memory of Our Dear Sister, Mrs David T. Hird.

Almost two years have passed away, Since our great sorrow fell, But in Heaven we hope to meet her, Ever more with her to dwell. The shock was great the blow severe, We little thought the end was near, 'Tis only those who have lost can tell, The pain of parting, not saying farewell.

We do not forget, nor do we intend, We think of you daily and will to the end; Gone and forgotten to some you may be,

But dear to our memory forever you'll be. Anchored by love death cannot sever, Sadly we miss her and will forever, Some day some time we shall see, The dear face we hold in memory, Inherited by her Sister and Brother, Mr. and Mrs. Alex. C. Hird.

Turn The Light of Science On Your Feet

Have you any trouble with your feet? If so come and tell us. It may be in the style of shoe you wear. We will not charge you anything for our advice. We will be amply paid if we can make life's walk easier for you. We sell Dr. Schall's Footcazers and Metatarsal Arch Supports

P. S.—Try a pair of Dr. Hess Stock Tonic. It is guaranteed to shape up the horses for spring work.

CASTORIA

Fletcher's Castoria is strictly a remedy for Infants and Children. Foods are specially prepared for babies. A baby's medicine is even more essential for Baby. Remedies primarily prepared for grown-ups are not interchangeable. It was the need of a remedy for the common ailments of Infants and Children that brought Castoria before the public after years of research, and no claim has been made for it that its use for over 30 years has not proven.

What is CASTORIA?
Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. For more than thirty years it has been in constant use for the relief of Constipation, Flatulency, Wind Colic and Diarrhoea; allaying Feverishness arising therefrom, and by regulating the Stomach and Bowels, aids the assimilation of Food; giving healthy and natural sleep. The Children's Comfort—The Mother's Friend.

GENUINE CASTORIA ALWAYS Bears the Signature of
Chas. H. Fletcher
In Use For Over 30 Years.

Vaudeville
"VOIX DE VILLE" said Jean Chardavoine, a French musician; and thus came into being three hundred and fifty years ago what to-day we call "Vaudeville".

Vaudeville is the melting pot of the dramatic and musical arts. In it nothing is out of place; it includes drama, comedy, tragedy, farce and burlesque; and every form of music from grand opera to jazz is heard upon its stage.

Every city has its favorite vaudeville house. But you—who live at a distance from the great cities—can have vaudeville right in your home, with

The NEW EDISON
"The Phonograph with a Soul!"
This marvellous instrument—that is every other instrument in one—will RE-CREATE everything that vaudeville has to offer—the entire magic of the theatre staged for your amusement and pleasure, in your parlor or living room.
Why not let the New Edison bring this wonderful variety of entertainment into your home?
"Edison and Music" is a beautiful book that you should have. Just ask for it and "What the Critics Say" too—it proves Edison's superiority.

Four Treherne churches have united in a project to build a large skating rink. A few weeks ago the two Methodist churches, the Presbyterian church and the Salvation Army decided to hold a union evangelistic campaign, but could find no building in town large enough to accommodate the expected large congregations. This led to the decision to erect a rink which will accommodate the services, and will fill a long felt want for a skating rink.

A SURPRISED FARMER
The St. Louis Lumberman gives an interesting illustration to show the increased buying power of the farmers today as compared with twenty years ago. A Missouri farmer it says, went to a general store to buy a buggy. The price of the buggy was $90. The farmer objected that his father twenty years ago had bought one just like it for $60, and with better methods of turning out he should not have to pay more. Fortunately here was one of the few merchants who kept records and he hunted up his ledger of twenty years ago and found that the father had not paid cash but had turned in three hundred bushels of corn for a sixty dollar buggy. The merchant then turned to the son and said: "Deliver me three hundred bushels of corn and I will give you in turn a $90 buggy, a $75 wagon, a $20 suit of clothes, a $20 dress, a $5 crib, $5 baby dress, $10 worth of sugar, $15 worth of tea, $100 worth of gasoline and $15 worth of lubricating oil, a total of $383 as the present value of that many bushels of corn. As the farmer was not setting up a store of his own, he declared to pay cash for his buggy.

Si Slocum Says:
A lady came rushing into my Newspaper Sanctum one day and exclaimed that she would like to obtain the files of my paper for a week back. "I advised her to get a porous plaster and try it."
A local man fell into a barrel of whiskey one day. He died in hospital.

A little girl was taught to close her evening prayer during the absence of her papa with: "Please watch over my Papa." Her papa returned, and her mama flushed when the child added: "And you'd better keep an eye on mama, too!"

As I was on a Portage avenue car recently a lady entered carrying an infant in her arms and handed the conductor a five dollar bill. The conductor looked at her and said abruptly, "Is that your smallest?" She said, "yes sir, I've only been married a year."

But one of the meanest men I have yet met, was the fellow who put green spectacles on his horse so as to feed him shavings instead of grass.

A small boy placed a counterfeit half dollar on the sidewalk, thinking I would pick it up so he could say, April Fool. I let it alone. I went right by it. Then a fool policeman arrested me for passing counterfeit money.

You know Wes Clogg, the butcher, what do you suppose he weighs? I don't know, what does he weigh? asked the Times Editor. "Meat!" says I.

A colored lady had the following ad inserted in the Free Press: "A colored lady needs washing. Well, I guess perhaps she did."

The idea of talking about having policemen vaccinated. Leave them alone. They'll never catch anything.

Someone asked me what we did with all our tomatoes in this country and I said, we eat all we can and what we can't we can, and then someone said, how can you.

"Riley drank a quart of whiskey at the wake." "Did anyone know he was drunk?" "Sure, the fellow in the coffin was dead next to him."

The following "Lost Ad's" appeared in the papers:—
Lost—A Gold watch, by an old lady with Swiss movements.
Lost—An ulster by a lady with camel's hair lining. (She must be a warm baby.)

If the Devil lost his tail where would he get another one?
In a liquor store where they retail spirits.

DON'T WHIP!
Stop Lashing Your Bowels with Harsh Cathartics but take "Cascarets."

Everyone must occasionally give to the bowels some regular help or else suffer from constipation, bilious attacks, stomach disorders, and sick headache. But do not whip the bowels into activity with harsh cathartics.
What the liver and bowels need is a gentle and natural tonic, one that can constantly be used without harm. The gentlest liver and bowel tonic is "Cascarets." They put the liver to work and cleanse the colon and bowels of all waste, toxins and poisons without griping—they never sicken or inconvenience you like Calomel, Salts, Oil, or Purgatives. Twenty-five million boxes of Cascarets are sold each year. They work while you sleep. Cascarets cost so little too.

$2.00 PER YEAR TO ALL BEGINNING MAY 1st, 1920

The yearly subscription price of the Treherne Times will be advanced to $2.00 per year, strictly in advance, to all subscribers in Canada (in the U.S. $2.50) on May 1st, next. It surely is unnecessary to enumerate the causes which make this move necessary. To those doubtful ones who think the price is too much, they are invited to call at the Times office and look over the plant which is necessary to produce the paper in its present form.

While the Treherne Times is the first paper in Manitoba to advance to $2.00 per year among the weeklies, several in Saskatchewan, Alberta and British Columbia have advanced to $2.00 and it is safe to predict that many Manitoba papers will follow the example of the Treherne Times in advancing their rate. It's necessary, and that's all.

The present rate is $1.50 per year and subscribers may, until the First of May, renew for as many years as they wish at the old rate.
