

Ipswich Girls' Grammar School including Ipswich Junior Grammar School has offered innovative education of the highest standard to well over 16,000 students since 1892. The School has an enviable reputation for educational excellence based on our record of high achievement and attention to the individual learning needs of our students.

Since our foundation in 1892, the ongoing philanthropic generosity of the school community including past and present parents & students, Old Girls, staff and friends has been one cornerstone of the School's ability to provide rich educational opportunities to its students.

When visiting the School, you cannot help but be impressed by the magnificent heritage buildings and facilities. Many of these facilities would not exist but for the extraordinary generosity of generations of school benefactors.

Over the years, benefactors have left a permanent reminder of their generosity through various resources, scholarships and facilities. Ipswich Girls' Grammar School including Ipswich Junior Grammar School has a rich heritage and many strong traditions. The School is continually building on the success of the past with a sense of pride in where we have come from and the achievements of those who went before us.

By leaving a gift in your Will, you will be investing in the future of Ipswich Girls' Grammar School including Ipswich Junior Grammar School. This generosity will enable the School to provide the best possible learning facilities, not only for our current students but also for future generations.

A bequest is a relatively simple yet effective way of helping the School to continue redefining excellence in education. Every gift, large or small, will be of benefit and make a difference.

Together we can continue to ensure we are preparing for Ipswich Girls' Grammar School and Ipswich Junior Grammar School's present and future students by improving standards, resources and facilities to enrich their daily academic and co-curricular experiences.

If you wish to support the School by a bequest you need to include a clause in your new Will or provide a Codicil to your existing Will.

The following clauses are suggested wording for remembering Ipswich Girls' Grammar School including Ipswich Junior Grammar School in your Will.

1. I give, free of all duties and taxes, the sum of dollars ($.....) to the Board of Trustees of Ipswich Girls' Grammar School including Ipswich Junior Grammar School (the School) and I request the School to use and apply the same for the general purposes of the School (or particular purposes for example, building fund, scholarships or library or benefit of the boarding students, etc.) and I declare that the receipt of the Secretary to the Board of Trustees of the School shall be an absolute discharge for my Trustee/ Executor for the payment of the amount due.
2. I give, free of all duties and taxes, (a fraction, percentage or the whole) of the residue of my Estate to the Board of Trustees of Ipswich Girls' Grammar School including Ipswich Junior Grammar School (the School) and I request the School to use and apply the same for the general purposes of the School (or particular purposes for example, building fund scholarships, or library or benefit of the boarding students, etc.) and I declare that the receipt of the Secretary to the Board of Trustees of the School shall be an absolute discharge for my Trustee/ Executor for the payment of the amount due.

By notifying the School that it is a named beneficiary in your Will, the School will have the opportunity to thank you personally, and discuss with you exactly where you wish to have your bequest directed.

We have established the 1892 Society to honour and recognise those who have remembered our School in their Will.
