Up 12 – 6 at the beginning of the second quarter, the Lady Bears continued to work hard defensively. They were rebounding well, limiting the Lady Steers to only one shot per possession, with Kristina Monroe doing a great job in this department. Leah Williams continued to get open looks at the basket, leading Brewer to a 21 – 7 lead at halftime.

Things temporarily slowed down a bit in the third quarter, as both teams had several turnovers. It wasn't long before Brewer regained their first half form and continued to control the

In a season that has seen them suffer some tough losses, the Lady Bears varsity basketball team came out with a win on their minds in their final home game of the year.

In the opening quarter Brewer played great defense, making it difficult for Northside to get any open looks at the basket. They kept up this pressure throughout the quarter, keeping the Lady Steers mostly scoreless and opening the door for the Brewer offense to get going. Junior Leah Williams continually found herself with chances to score, as she fired off several shots from three point range.

game defensively. The Lady Steers weren't able to mount any sort of a comeback, ultimately losing to Brewer by a score of 39 – 10.

SOCCER DOMINATES PORCUPINES

By Ben Posey

The Brewer Bear boy's soccer team ran over the Springtown Porcupines this past week with a score of 9-0. Brewer had goals from Marin Kovacevic (4), Bryan Rivera (2), Weldon Cressell (2), and Tony Moreno (1).
