BIOS 605 Applied Biostatistics Capstone will be the final course you will take as part of the certificate program. The Capstone allows students to utilize the knowledge gained in their coursework to analyze real data of their own in a comprehensive manner. Please indicate in the space below if you have a data set you would like to work with and who the Principal Investigator on that data set is.

Please indicate why you are interested in receiving the Applied Biostatistics Certificate.

As part of the application process, you may be contacted for a short phone interview. In the space below, please indicate your general availability.
