

CancerCare

CancerCare is a national non-profit organization that provides free professional support services to anyone affected by cancer: people with cancer, caregivers, children, loved ones, and the bereaved. CancerCare programs - including counseling, education, financial assistance and practical help - are provided by trained oncology social workers and are completely free of charge. Founded in 1944, CancerCare now provides individual help to more than 90,000 people each year, in addition to the 1.4 million people who gain information and resources from its website. Find out more about CancerCare by calling 1-800-813-HOPE (4673) or at www.cancercare.org.

National Cancer Institute

The National Cancer Institute (NCI) is a component of the National Institutes of Health (NIH), one of eight agencies that compose the Public Health Service (PHS) in the Department of Health and Human Services (DHHS). The NCI, established under the National Cancer Act of 1937, is the Federal Government's principal agency for cancer research and training. The National Cancer Institute coordinates the National Cancer Program, which conducts and supports research, training, health information dissemination and other programs with respect to the cause, diagnosis, prevention and treatment of cancer, rehabilitation from cancer and the continuing care of cancer patients and the families of cancer patients. To find out more about NCI, call 1-800-4-CANCER (1-800-422-6237) or visit our Web Site at www.cancer.gov.

Lance Armstrong Foundation

The Lance Armstrong Foundation (LAF) believes that in your battle with cancer, knowledge is power and attitude is everything. From the moment of diagnosis we provide the practical information and tools you need to live strong. We serve our mission through public health, advocacy, research and education, including LIVESTRONG™, the LAF's comprehensive resource for people living with cancer. The LAF was founded in 1997 by cancer survivor and champion cyclist Lance Armstrong and is located in Austin, Texas. For more information, please visit www.laf.org and www.livestrong.org or call (512) 236-8820.

Intercultural Cancer Council

The Intercultural Cancer Council (ICC) promotes policies, programs, partnerships, and research to eliminate the unequal burden of cancer among racial and ethnic minorities and medically underserved populations in the United States and its associated territories. The ICC provides a forum to identify shared problems and develop collaborative solutions; promotes new partnerships to address the cancer crisis in our communities; convenes the National Biennial Symposium Series on Minorities, the Medically Underserved and Cancer; facilitates issue advocacy; and offers electronic networking and cancer education. For more information about ICC, call 1-877-243-6642 or visit our Web Site at www.iccnetwork.org.

Living Beyond Breast Cancer

Living Beyond Breast Cancer is a national nonprofit education and support organization dedicated to empowering all women affected by breast cancer to live as long as possible with the best quality of life. Programs and services include: conferences; teleconferences; the Survivors' Helpline (888.753.5222), a toll-free information and support line; the website www.lbbc.org; free quarterly newsletters; publications for African-American and Latina women; informational recordings; networking programs; and workshops and trainings for healthcare providers. LBBC offers survivors free copies of the consumer-focused publications Getting Connected: African-Americans Living Beyond Breast Cancer and Celebramos el Manana: Latinas que Sobreviven el Cancer del Seno. Call 610.645.4567 or email mail@lbbc.org for more information.

National Coalition for Cancer Survivorship

National Coalition for Cancer Survivorship (NCCS) is the oldest survivor-led cancer advocacy organization in the country and is a highly respected authentic voice at the federal level, advocating for quality cancer care for all Americans and empowering cancer survivors. Patient education is also a priority for NCCS. Free patient resources, such as NCCS's award-winning Cancer Survival Toolbox® (featuring the new module "Living Beyond Cancer"), are also available. For more information, please visit www.canceradvocacy.org or call 1-877-NCCS-YES (1-877-622-7937).
