GENERAL INFORMATION FOR SELF-REPRESENTED LITIGANTS (GUARDIANSHIP PACKET)

The following information is intended to answer general questions a self-represented litigant may have about guardianship of the person. This is not a complete reference or procedural guide, nor is it intended as legal advice. It is your responsibility to read and comply with the applicable laws, use current forms, and be prepared to present your case.

What is guardianship?

Guardianship is a court proceeding in which a judge gives someone who is not the parent:

- Custody of a child under the age of 18. This type of guardianship is called “Guardianship of the Person”.
- Power to manage the child’s income, money, or other property until the child turns 18. This type of guardianship is called “Guardianship of the Estate”.

More information about guardianship of the person and the estate can be found at www.courtinfo.ca.gov/selfhelp/family/guardianship and www.sdcourt.ca.gov (click on Probate).

If there is an open Juvenile Court case, contact the Child Welfare Services (CWS) worker assigned to the case or go to Juvenile Court to find out what your next step is. When there is an open Juvenile Court case, the Probate Court generally does not have the authority to grant a guardianship petition.

If there is an open Family Court case with an order of custody to a parent, you will be required to join in that case to seek custody of the child.

Guardianship of the Person

A petition for guardianship of the person is filed when a minor child is living with an adult who is not the parent and the adult needs the legal right to make decisions on behalf of the child. When a guardian of the person is appointed, the guardian is awarded custody of the child and the natural parents no longer have the right to determine where the child will live or how he or she will be educated. Instead, the guardian has those rights, including the responsibility to determine medical treatment for the child.

What do I have to do to become the guardian of the person?

To become the legal guardian of a child, you first have to file a petition and other forms with the court. You must fill out the following forms, available in the Probate Business Office and online at www.sdcourt.ca.gov (click on Forms, then Probate):

- Petition for Appointment of Guardian of the Person (JC Form #GC-210(P))
- Guardianship Petition—Child Information Attachment (JC Form #GC-210(CA))
- Notice of Hearing—Guardianship or Conservatorship (JC Form #GC-020)
- Consent of Proposed Guardian, Nomination of Guardian, and Consent to Appointment of Guardian and Waiver of Notice (JC Form #GC-211)
- Duties of Guardian and Acknowledgment of Receipt (JC Form #GC-248)
- Letters of Guardianship (JC form #GC-250)
- Declaration Under Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act (UCCJEA)(JC Form #FL-105)
- Confidential Guardianship Screening Form (JC Form #GC-212)
- Order Appointing Guardian of Minor (JC Form #GC-240)
- Order Directing or Waiving Investigation (SDSC Form #PR-063)
- Information Sheet on Indian Child Inquiry Attachments and Notice of Child Custody Proceeding for Indian Child (JC Form #ICWA-005-INFO)
- Indian Child Inquiry Attachment (JC Form #ICWA-010A)

What do I have to do after I fill out the forms?

After you fill out the required forms:

- ✓ Make at least one copy of each completed form.
- ✓ File your forms with the Probate Business Office at the location listed on page 1. There is a filing fee due at the time you file your papers. (Refer to the sections “Is there a fee to file a guardianship?” and “What if I don’t have enough money to pay the fees?” below.)
- ✓ The clerk will keep the original forms and return the copies to you. Your copies will be file stamped and a hearing date will be scheduled.
- ✓ Serve a copy of the filed paperwork upon parents and relatives as required by law. (Refer to the section “Serving Parents and Relatives” on page 2.)
- ✓ Review the Instructions to Proposed Guardian of the Person Re: Guardianship Investigations (SDSC Form #PR-061A) and follow the procedures to schedule the investigation.

Is there a fee to file a guardianship?

Yes. There are court costs – the court filing fee and the investigation fee. The current fee amounts can be found on the court’s Fee Schedule (SDSC Form #ADM-001), available on the court’s website, www.sdcourt.ca.gov, or you can ask staff in the Probate Business Office.

What if I don’t have enough money to pay the fees?

- If you cannot afford the filing fee, you can request a fee waiver from the court. The fee waiver forms are available in the Probate Business Office or online at www.sdcourt.ca.gov and www.courtinfo.ca.gov. You will need the following forms:
 - Information Sheet on Waiver of Superior Court Fees and Costs (JC Form #FW-001-INFO)
 - Request to Waive Court Fees (Ward or Conservatee) (JC Form #FW-001-GC)
 - Order on Court Fee Waiver (Superior Court) (Ward or Conservatee) (JC Form #FW-003-GC)If the court approves your Request to Waive Court Fees, you won’t have to pay the filing fee or investigation fee.

Serving parents and relatives

The law requires that parents and certain relatives be served (given) a copy of the petition for guardianship and other court forms you filed with the court. This is sometimes referred to as “giving notice.” Someone else – NOT YOU – must serve the documents. There are rules for giving notice. You must follow them carefully, otherwise you have to start all over.

There are two types of service: personal service and service by mail.

- Personal service – parents (or any person having legal custody of the child or serving as guardian of the estate) and the minor child(ren) of the action (over the age of 12) must be personally served. This means someone else – not you – personally hands them a copy of the Notice of Hearing—Guardianship or Conservatorship (JC Form #GC-020) and Petition for Appointment of Guardian of the Person (JC Form #GC-210(P)) at least 15 days before the hearing.
- Service by mail – Paternal and maternal grandparents, the child’s brothers and sisters (over the age of 12), including half-brothers and half-sisters (over the age of 12), and any person having the care of the proposed child of the guardianship (if other than the person having legal custody) and any spouse named in the petition may be served by mail. This means someone else – not you – mails them a copy of the Notice of Hearing—Guardianship or Conservatorship (JC Form #GC-020) and Petition for Appointment of Guardian of the Person (JC Form #GC-210(P)) at least 15 days before the court hearing. (Note: The child’s grandparents are the parents of the child’s mother and parents of the child’s father.)

What if the parents and relatives agree I can be the guardian?

If anyone who is required to receive notice of the guardianship petition (parents and relatives) agree you can be the guardian, he/she can sign the Consent of Proposed Guardian, Nomination of Guardian, and Consent to Appointment of Guardian, and Waiver of Notice form (JC Form #GC-211). You don't have to give notice to anyone who signs the consent portion of that form. If a person tells you verbally he/she agrees you can be the guardian, but doesn't sign a written consent, you still have to give that person notice. Refer to "Serving Parents and Relatives" for information about giving notice.

What if I don't know where the parents or relatives are?

If you don't know where the parents or relatives are, you must make a reasonable and diligent effort to locate them. Some suggestions to find them include:

- ✓ Asking all family members, friends, acquaintances, and employers;
- ✓ Searching the real and personal property indexes in the recorder's and assessor's offices for the county where the person last resided;
- ✓ Looking in the phone book;
- ✓ Calling telephone information;
- ✓ Searching on the Internet (e.g. social media).

If you have done everything you can to locate the parents or relatives and you still can't locate them, you can ask the court to allow you to proceed without giving notice to those persons. To do this, fill out Declaration of Diligent Search and Request to Dispense with Notice (SDSC Form #FLF-002), available in the Probate Business Office and online at www.sdcourt.ca.gov, and file it at least four days prior to your hearing.

What happens after the forms are served?

If the forms were served by personal delivery to the parents or relatives, the person serving the forms fills out a Proof of Personal Service of Notice of Hearing—Guardianship form (JC Form #GC-020(P)). If the forms were served by mail (not allowed for parents or minor(s) in the case), the person serving the forms fills out the Proof of Service by Mail on the back side of the Notice of Hearing form (JC Form #GC-020).

After the forms have been properly filled out and signed, file the proof of service forms with the Probate Department at least four days prior to your hearing.

What happens before the court hearing date?

Before your court hearing date, a probate examiner will review the paperwork submitted by you and make notes for the probate judge. A copy of these notes are available online at www.sdcourt.ca.gov (click on the Probate tab, then Examiner Notes).

If there are defects (things that are missing and/or corrections to be made), they will be noted by the probate examiner. Ordinarily the defects need to be corrected before your petition will be granted by the judge. If defects are noted and have not been corrected before the hearing date, attend the hearing to assure the judge you still want the guardianship. The court may continue the hearing to a later date to allow you time to correct the defects. Most defects can be cleared by filling out the Supplement to Petition for Appointment of Guardian of the Person (SDSC Form #PR-107) and filing it with the Probate Business Office at least four days prior to your hearing.

The probate examiners can be contacted by phone or email. Instructions are available online at www.sdcourt.ca.gov (click on the Probate tab, then Examiner Notes).

If the court grants your petition for guardianship at the hearing, submit the Order Appointing Guardian of Minor (JC Form #GC-240) and Letters of Guardianship (JC Form #GC-250) forms to the Probate Business Office. The Letters of Guardianship are evidence of your authority to act on behalf of the child. Obtaining a certified copy of the Letters of Guardianship is advisable.

What if there is a need for a temporary guardian before the hearing?

The court may grant Letters of Temporary Guardianship (JC Form #GC-150) under the following circumstances:

1. There is an immediate and compelling need for the appointment;
2. The Petition for Appointment of Guardian is filed at the same time;
3. There is good cause to waive notice to the parents, or they consent and waive notice for the temporary guardianship; and
4. The minor is residing with the petitioner at the time the request for temporary guardianship is made.

If the above criteria can be met, the petition for temporary guardianship may be submitted to the Probate Business Office for determination by the probate judge. The hearing will generally be set in five to ten court days. The required documents for temporary guardianship are:

- Petition for Appointment of Temporary Guardian of the Person (JC Form #GC-110(P)).
- Order Appointing Temporary Guardian (JC Form #GC-140).
- Letters of Temporary Guardianship (JC Form #GC-150).
- All the documents needed for the general guardianship (see page 1).
- Waivers of notice, if you have them.

What happens after the hearing?

If the judge grants you guardianship, you will be the guardian of the minor child until the child turns age 18. When the child turns age 18, the guardianship terminates by operation of law. You must inform the court in writing if you move within the state. You can do so by filling out a Notice of Change of Address or Other Contact form (JC Form #MC-040) and filing it with the Probate Department. If you want to move out of the state, you must petition the court for permission to do so by filling out the Petition to Fix Residence Outside the State of California (JC Form #GC-085) and filing it with the Probate Business Office.

Do I need a lawyer to set up a guardianship?

No, you can represent yourself. However, the forms for guardianship and the rules for notice can be complicated. If you don't follow the rules carefully and defects occur, you may have to come back to court more than once to have your guardianship approved, and it will take more time to process your case.

Talking to a lawyer is a good idea when:

- the child has extensive and/or valuable property;
- you live out of state;
- there are other legal cases going on at the same time (like adoption, custody in Family Court, or Juvenile Court involvement);
- the child has special needs (physically/emotionally disabled); or
- the child is Native American (because federal laws apply).

If you need legal advice:

Contact an attorney of your choice. If you need help locating an attorney in San Diego County, you may contact the Lawyer Referral & Information Service of the San Diego County Bar Association at their website www.sdcbba.org or by calling (619) 231-8585.

INSTRUCTIONS TO PROPOSED GUARDIANS OF THE PERSON RE: GUARDIANSHIP INVESTIGATIONS

Prob. Code § 1513 requires for each proposed appointment of guardian of the person that an investigation of the proposed guardian(s) be made and submitted to the court. Investigations are done by Family Court Services (FCS) or County of San Diego Health and Human Services Agency (HHSa).

1. RELATIVE GUARDIAN

“Relative” is defined in Prob. Code § 1513(g) as a spouse, parent, step-parent, brother, sister, step-brother, step-sister, half-brother, half-sister, uncle, aunt, niece, nephew, first cousin, or any person denoted by the prefix “grand” or “great” or the spouse of any of these persons even after the marriage has been terminated by death or dissolution.

Immediately after filing your paperwork and receiving a hearing date, complete the FCS Guardianship Questionnaire (SDSC Form #FCS-045) and go to FCS at 1555 6th Avenue, 2nd floor to make an appointment. Appointments will only be made in person. TAKE COPIES OF ALL GUARDIANSHIP DOCUMENTS WITH YOU.

2. NON-RELATIVE GUARDIAN

Immediately after filing your paperwork and receiving a hearing date, mail a copy of the Notice of Hearing–Guardianship or Conservatorship (JC Form #GC-020), Petition for Appointment of Guardian of the Person (JC Form #GC-210) and Order Directing or Waiving Investigation (SDSC Form #PR-063) to:

Health and Human Services Agency
Guardianship Unit
6950 Levant Street
San Diego, CA 92111

HHSa will send you a packet to complete and return prior to its investigation. For more information, contact HHSa at (619) 694-5149.

ICWA-010(A), Indian Child Inquiry Attachment or page 5 of form GC-210(CA), Guardianship Petition—Child Information Attachment

You are responsible for helping to find out if the child is or may be an Indian child and filling out the information requested on ICWA-010(A), Indian Child Inquiry Attachment or on page 5 of GC-210(CA), Guardianship Petition—Child Information Attachment. This is important because if the child is an Indian child, specific steps must be taken to prevent the breakup of the child's Indian family and to obtain for the child resources and services that are culturally specific to the child's family. The court will check to make sure that the child receives these resources and services.

1. Try to find contact information for the child's parents or other legal guardian, the child's Indian custodian (if the child is living with an Indian person other than a parent), and the child's grandparents and great-grandparents.
2. Contact the child's parents or other legal guardian, and the child's Indian custodian, and ask them (and the child, if he or she is old enough) these questions:
 - a. Is the child a member of a tribe, and if they think he or she might be, then which tribe or tribes?
 - b. Are they members of a tribe, and if they think they might be, which tribes?
 - c. Does the child or the child's parents live in Indian country?
 - d. Does the child or any of the child's relatives receive services or benefits from a tribe, and if yes, which tribe?
 - e. Does the child or any of the child's relatives receive services or benefits available to Indians from the federal government?
3. If you are in touch with any of the child's relatives, ask them the same questions.

The court clerk's office cannot file your petition unless you have filled out and attached to the petition form ICWA-010(A), Indian Child Inquiry Attachment. This does not apply to a petition for appointment of a guardian in a probate guardianship or a petition filed in the juvenile court under Welfare and Institutions Code sections 601 or 602.

ICWA-030, Notice of Child Custody Proceeding for Indian Child

After taking the steps listed above to find out whether the child is an Indian child, if you know or have reason to know that the child is an Indian child, you must notify the tribe or tribes that may have a connection with the child about your court case. Tribes that learn of the case can investigate and advise you and the court whether the child is a tribal member or eligible to become a tribal member, and can then decide whether to get involved in the case or assume tribal jurisdiction. You give notice to the child's tribe or tribes and the other persons and the organization listed at the top of the second page of this form by sending them filled-out copies of ICWA-030, Notice of Child Custody Proceeding for Indian Child (the "Notice"), together with the other documents listed at the bottom of that page.

Some tips to help you figure out if you have a reason to know the child is an Indian child

1. If the child, an Indian tribe, an Indian organization, an attorney, a public or private agency, or a member of the child's extended family says or provides information to anyone involved in the case that the child is an Indian child;
2. If the child, the child's parents, or an Indian custodian live in a predominately Indian community; or
3. If the child or the child's family has received services or benefits from a tribe or services that are available to Indians from tribes or the federal government, such as the Indian Health Service.

These are just a few of the facts that would give you reason to know that a child is an Indian child. There also may be other information that would give you reason to know that the child is an Indian child.

Who do you need to notify?

If you know or have reason to know that the child is an Indian child, you must send the Notice to the following:

1. Child's parents or other legal guardian, including adoptive parents;
2. Child's Indian custodian (if the child is living with an Indian person who has legal custody of the child under tribal law or custom, under state law, or if the parent asked that person to take care of the child);
3. Child's tribe or tribes; and
4. Sacramento Area Director, Bureau of Indian Affairs, Federal Office Building, 2800 Cottage Way, Sacramento, California 95825 (if the parents, Indian custodian, or tribe cannot be determined or located).

Tip on how to find the address for the child's tribe or tribes

The Secretary of the Interior periodically updates and publishes in the Federal Register (see 25 C.F.R. 23.12), a list of tribe names and addresses. The Bureau of Indian Affairs also keeps a list. You can link to the Federal Register list, another list of tribes maintained by the California Department of Social Services, and other resources related to ICWA, on the California Department of Social Services website at <http://www.childsworld.ca.gov/PG2070.htm>. The list of tribes maintained by the Department of Social Services is very helpful but it is not official, nor is there any authority to use the addresses in that list over different agents for service listed in the Federal Register. If the official list and the state's list differ on a tribal address, it is a good idea to send copies of the Notice and the other documents to both addresses.

Copy to the Secretary of the Interior and the Area Director of the Bureau of Indian Affairs

If you know the identity and location of the parent, Indian custodian, and the tribe or tribes, when you send the Notice to the parent, Indian custodian, and the tribe or tribes, you must also send a copy to the Secretary of the Interior at 1849 C Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20240 and a copy to the Sacramento Area Director, Bureau of Indian Affairs, Federal Office Building, 2800 Cottage Way, Sacramento, CA 95825.

Copy to the Area Director of the Bureau of Indian Affairs

If you do not know the identity and location of the child's parents, Indian custodian, and tribe or tribes, you must send copies of the Notice and the other documents to the Sacramento Area Director, Bureau of Indian Affairs, Federal Office Building, 2800 Cottage Way, Sacramento, CA 95825. In order to help establish the child's tribal identity, provide as much information as possible, including the child's name, birthdate, and birth place; the name of the tribe or tribes; the names of all of the child's known relatives with addresses and other identifying information; and a copy of the petition in the case.

How do you send the Notice and prove to the court that you have done so?

If you have an attorney, he or she will complete the steps described below. If you are representing yourself without an attorney in a probate guardianship case, the court clerk will help you with steps 1 and 2 below, including doing the mailing and signing the certificate of mailing on page 9 of the Notice, but you must deliver copies of the Notice and other documents listed in step 1 below to the court in addressed envelopes ready for mailing and then do step 3.

1. Mail to the persons and organizations listed at the top of this page, by registered or certified mail, with return receipt requested, copies of the following filled-out and signed forms:
 - a. Your petition;
 - b. Form ICWA-010(A), Indian Child Inquiry Attachment or, in a probate guardianship case, form GC-210(CA), Guardianship Petition—Child Information Attachment; and
 - c. Form ICWA-030, Notice of Child Custody Proceeding for Indian Child.
2. The person who does the mailing must fill out the information requested on page 10 of form ICWA-030, Notice of Child Custody Proceeding for Indian Child, and then date and sign the original form on page 9.
3. Go to the court and file with the clerk of the court proof that you have given notice to everyone listed above and on page 10 of ICWA-030, Notice of Child Custody Proceeding for Indian Child. Your proof must consist of the following:
 - a. The original signed Notice (form ICWA-030) and copies of the documents you sent with it (the petition and form ICWA-010(A) or form GC-210(CA));
 - b. All return receipts given to you by the post office and returned from the mailing; and
 - c. All responses you receive from the child's parents, the child's Indian custodian, the child's tribe or tribes, and the Bureau of Indian Affairs.

Please note that you are subject to court sanctions if you knowingly and willfully falsify or conceal a material fact concerning whether the child is an Indian child or counsel a party to do so. (Welf. & Inst. Code, § 224.2(e).)

The relatives and other persons listed in item 2 of each child's Guardianship Petition—Child Information Attachment (form GC-210(CA)) must be given notice of the hearing on your petition for appointment of a guardian for that child unless the court excuses you from giving notice. The court may waive (excuse) this requirement if you can show the court that you do not know where the relative or other person is located after making reasonable efforts to find him or her, or if giving notice to that person may harm the child or otherwise be contrary to the interests of justice. See rule 7.52 of the California Rules of Court for information on making reasonable efforts to find a person.

DUTIES OF GUARDIAN

When you are appointed by the court as a guardian of a minor, you become an officer of the court and assume certain duties and obligations. An attorney is best qualified to advise you about these matters. You should clearly understand the information on this form. You will find additional information in the Guardianship Pamphlet (for Guardianships of Children in the Probate Court) (Form GC-205), which is available from the court.

1. GUARDIANSHIP OF THE PERSON

If the probate court appoints you as a guardian of the person for a child, you will be required to assume important duties and obligations.

- a. Fundamental responsibilities - The guardian of the person of a child has the care, custody, and control of the child. As guardian, you are responsible for providing for food, clothing, shelter, education, and all the medical and dental needs of the child. You must provide for the safety, protection, and physical and emotional growth of the child.
- b. Custody - As guardian of the person of the child, you have full legal and physical custody of the child and are responsible for all decisions relating to the child. The child's parents can no longer make decisions for the child while there is a guardianship. The parents' rights are suspended—not terminated—as long as a guardian is appointed for a minor.
- c. Education - As guardian of the person of the child, you are responsible for the child's education. You determine where the child should attend school. As the child's advocate within the school system, you should attend conferences and play an active role in the child's education. For younger children, you may want to consider enrolling the child in Head Start or other similar programs. For older children, you should consider their future educational needs such as college or a specialized school. You must assist the child in obtaining services if the child has special educational needs. You should help the child in setting and attaining his or her educational goals.
- d. Residence - As guardian, you have the right to determine where the child lives. The child will normally live with you, but when it is necessary, you are allowed to make other arrangements if it is in the best interest of the child. You should obtain court approval before placing the child back with his or her parents.

As guardian, you do not have the right to change the child's residence to a place outside of California unless you first receive the court's permission. If the court grants permission, California law requires that you establish legal guardianship in the state where the child will be living. Individual states have different rules regarding guardianships. You should seek additional information about guardianships in the state where you want the child to live.

MINOR

- e. Medical treatment - As guardian, you are responsible for meeting the medical needs of the child. In most cases, you have the authority to consent to the child's medical treatment. However, if the child is 14 years or older, surgery may not be performed on the child unless either (1) both the child and the guardian consent or (2) a court order is obtained that specifically authorizes the surgery. This holds true except in emergencies. A guardian may not place a child involuntarily in a mental health treatment facility under a probate guardianship. A mental health conservatorship proceeding is required for such an involuntary commitment. However, the guardian may secure counseling and other necessary mental health services for the child. The law also allows older and more mature children to consent to their own treatment in certain situations such as outpatient mental health treatment, medical care related to pregnancy or sexually transmitted diseases, and drug and alcohol treatment.
- f. Community resources - There are agencies in each county that may be helpful in meeting the specific needs of children who come from conflicted, troubled, or deprived environments. If the child has special needs, you must strive to meet those needs or secure appropriate services.
- g. Financial support - Even when the child has a guardian, the parents are still obligated to financially support the child. The guardian may take action to obtain child support. The child may also be eligible for Temporary Aid for Needy Families, TANF (formerly known as AFDC), social security benefits, Veterans Administration benefits, Indian child welfare benefits, and other public or private funds.
- h. Visitation - The court may require that you allow visitation or contact between the child and his or her parents. The child's needs often require that the parent-child relationship be maintained, within reason. However, the court may place restrictions on the visits, such as the requirement of supervision. The court may also impose other conditions in the child's best interest.
- i. Driver's license - As guardian of the person, you have the authority to consent to the minor's application for a driver's license. If you consent, you will become liable for any civil damages that may result if the minor causes an accident. The law requires that anyone signing the DMV application obtain insurance to cover the minor.
- j. Enlistment in the armed services - The guardian may consent to a minor's enlistment in the armed services. If the minor enters into active duty with the armed forces, the minor becomes emancipated under California law.
- k. Marriage - For the minor to marry, the guardian and the court must give permission. If the minor enters a valid marriage, the minor becomes emancipated under California law.
- l. Change of address - A guardian must notify the court in writing of any change in the address of either the child or the guardian. This includes any changes that result from the child's leaving the guardian's home or returning to the parent's home. You must always obtain court permission before you move the child to another state or country.
- m. Court visitors and status reports - Some counties have a program in which "court visitors" track and review guardianships. If your county has such a program, you will be expected to cooperate with all requests of the court visitor. As guardian, you may also be required to fill out and file status reports. In all counties, you must cooperate with the court and court investigators.
- n. Misconduct of the child - A guardian, like a parent, is liable for the harm and damages caused by the willful misconduct of a child. There are special rules concerning harm caused by the use of a firearm. If you are concerned about your possible liability, you should consult an attorney.
- o. Additional responsibilities - The court may place other conditions on the guardianship or additional duties upon you, as guardian. For example, the court may require the guardian to complete counseling or parenting classes, to obtain specific services for the child, or to follow a scheduled visitation plan between the child and the child's parents or relatives. As guardian, you must follow all court orders.

GUARDIAN OF (Name): MINOR	CASE NUMBER:

- p. Termination of guardianship of the person - A guardianship of the person automatically ends when the child reaches the age of 18, is adopted, marries, is emancipated by court order, enters into active military duty, or dies. If none of these events has occurred, the child, a parent, or the guardian may petition the court for termination of guardianship. But it must be shown that the guardianship is no longer necessary or that termination of the guardianship is in the child's best interest.

2. GUARDIANSHIP OF THE ESTATE

If the court appoints you as guardian of the child's estate, you will have additional duties and obligations. The money and other assets of the child are called the child's "estate." Appointment as guardian of a child's estate is taken very seriously by the court. The guardian of the estate is required to manage the child's funds, collect and make an inventory of the assets, keep accurate financial records, and regularly file financial accountings with the court.

MANAGING THE ESTATE

- a. Prudent investments - As guardian of the estate, you must manage the child's assets with the care of a prudent person dealing with someone else's property. This means that you must be cautious and may not make speculative or risky investments.
- b. Keeping estate assets separate - As guardian of the estate, you must keep the money and property of the child's estate separate from everyone else's, including your own. When you open a bank account for the estate, the account name must indicate that it is a guardianship account and not your personal account. You should use the child's social security number when opening estate accounts. You should never deposit estate funds in your personal account or otherwise mix them with your own funds or anyone else's funds, even for brief periods. Securities in the estate must be held in a name that shows that they are estate property and not your personal property.
- c. Interest-bearing accounts and other investments - Except for checking accounts intended for ordinary expenses, you should place estate funds in interest-bearing accounts. You may deposit estate funds in insured accounts in federally insured financial institutions, but you should not put more than $100,000 in any single institution. You should consult with an attorney before making other kinds of investments.
- d. Blocked accounts - A blocked account is an account with a financial institution in which money is placed. No person may withdraw funds from a blocked account without the court's permission. Depending on the amount and character of the child's property, the guardian may elect or the court may require that estate assets be placed in a blocked account. As guardian of the estate, you must follow the directions of the court and the procedures required to deposit funds in this type of account. The use of a blocked account is a safeguard and may save the estate the cost of a bond.
- e. Other restrictions - As guardian of the estate, you will have many other restrictions on your authority to deal with estate assets. Without prior court order, you may not pay fees to yourself or your attorney. You may not make a gift of estate assets to anyone. You may not borrow money from the estate. As guardian, you may not use estate funds to purchase real property without a prior court order. If you do not obtain the court's permission to spend estate funds, you may be compelled to reimburse the estate from your own personal funds and may be removed as guardian. You should consult with an attorney concerning the legal requirements relating to sales, leases, mortgages, and investment of estate property. If the child of whose estate you are the guardian has a living parent or if that child receives assets or is entitled to support from another source, you must obtain court approval before using guardianship assets for the child's support, maintenance, or education. You must file a petition or include a request for approval in the original petition, and set forth which exceptional circumstances justify any use of guardianship assets for the child's support. The court will ordinarily grant such a petition for only a limited period of time, usually not to exceed one year, and only for specific and limited purposes.

INVENTORY OF ESTATE PROPERTY

- f. Locate the estate's property - As guardian of the estate, you must locate, take possession of, and protect the child's income and assets that will be administered in the estate. You must change the ownership of all assets into the guardianship estate's name. For real estate, you should record a copy of your Letters of Guardianship with the county recorder in each county where the child owns real property.

- g. Determine the value of the property - As guardian of the estate, you must arrange to have a court-appointed referee determine the value of the estate property unless the appointment is waived by the court. You—not the referee—must determine the value of certain "cash items." An attorney can advise you about how to do this.
- h. File an inventory and appraisal - As guardian of the estate, you must file an inventory and appraisal within 90 days after your appointment. You may be required to return to court 90 days after your appointment as guardian of the estate to ensure that you have properly filed the inventory and appraisal.

INSURANCE

- i. Insurance coverage - As guardian of the estate, you should make sure that there is appropriate and sufficient insurance covering the assets and risks of the estate. You should maintain the insurance in force throughout the entire period of the guardianship or until the insured asset is sold.

RECORD KEEPING AND ACCOUNTING

- j. Records - As guardian of the estate, you must keep complete, accurate records of each financial transaction affecting the estate. The checkbook for the guardianship checking account is essential for keeping records of income and expenditures. You should also keep receipts for all purchases. Record keeping is critical because you will have to prepare an accounting of all money and property that you have received, what you have spent, the date of each transaction, and its purpose. You will also have to be able to describe in detail what is left after you have paid the estate's expenses.
- k. Accountings - As guardian of the estate, you must file a petition requesting that the court review and approve your accounting one year after your appointment and at least every two years after that. The court may ask that you justify some or all expenditures. You should have receipts and other documents available for the court's review, if requested. If you do not file your accounting as required, the court will order you to do so. You may be removed as guardian for failure to file an accounting.
- l. Format - As guardian of the estate, you must comply with all state and local rules when filing your accounting. A particular format is specified in the Probate Code, which you must follow when you present your account to the court. You should check local rules for any special local requirements.
- m. Legal advice - An attorney can advise you and help you prepare your inventories, accountings, and petitions to the court. If you have questions, you should consult with an attorney.

3. OTHER GENERAL INFORMATION

- a. Removal of a guardian - A guardian may be removed for specific reasons or when it is in the child's best interest. A guardian may be removed either on the court's own motion or by a petition filed by the child, a relative of the child, or any other interested person. If necessary, the court may appoint a successor guardian, or the court may return the child to a parent if that is found to be in the child's best interest.
- b. Legal documents - For your appointment as guardian to be valid, the Order Appointing Guardian of Minor must be signed. Once the court signs the order, the guardian must go to the clerk's office, where Letters of Guardianship will be issued. Letters of Guardianship is a legal document that provides proof that you have been appointed and are serving as the guardian of a minor. You should obtain several certified copies of the Letters from the clerk. These legal documents will be of assistance to you in the performance of your duties, such as enrolling the child in school, obtaining medical care, and taking care of estate business.
- c. Attorneys and legal resources - If you have an attorney, the attorney will advise you on your duties and responsibilities, the limits of your authority, the rights of the child, and your dealings with the court. If you have legal questions, you should consult with your attorney. Please remember that the court staff cannot give you legal advice.

NOTE: *

A copy of this Notice of Hearing—Guardianship or Conservatorship ("Notice") must be "served" on—delivered to—each person who has the right under the law to be notified of the date, time, place, and purpose of a court hearing in a guardianship or conservatorship. Copies of this Notice may be served by mail in most situations. In a guardianship, however, copies of this Notice must sometimes be personally served on certain persons; and copies of this Notice may be personally served instead of served by mail in both guardianships and conservatorships. The petitioner (the person who requested the court hearing) may not personally perform either service by mail or personal service, but must show the court that copies of this Notice have been served in a way the law allows. The petitioner does this by arranging for someone else to perform the service and complete and sign a proof of service, which the petitioner then files with the original Notice.

This page contains a proof of service that may be used only to show service by mail. To show personal service, each person who performs the service must complete and sign a proof of personal service, and each signed copy of that proof of service must be attached to this Notice when it is filed with the court.. You may use form GC-020(P) to show personal service of this Notice.

* (This Note replaces the clerk's certificate of posting on prior versions of this form. If notice by posting is desired, attach a copy of form GC-020(C), Clerk's Certificate of Posting Notice of Hearing—Guardianship or Conservatorship. (See Prob. Code, § 2543(c).)

NOTICE TO INSTITUTIONS AND FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS
(Probate Code sections 2890–2893)

When these Letters of Guardianship (Letters) are delivered to you as an employee or other representative of an institution or financial institution (described below) in order for the guardian of the estate (1) to take possession or control of an asset of the minor named above held by your institution (including changing title, withdrawing all or any portion of the asset, or transferring all or any portion of the asset) or (2) to open or change the name of an account or a safe-deposit box in your financial institution to reflect the guardianship, you must fill out Judicial Council form GC-050 (for an institution) or form GC-051 (for a financial institution). An officer authorized by your institution or financial institution must date and sign the form, and you must file the completed form with the court.

There is no filing fee for filing the form. You may either arrange for personal delivery of the form or mail it to the court for filing at the address given for the court on page 1 of these Letters.

The guardian should deliver a blank copy of the appropriate form to you with these Letters, but it is your institution's or financial institution's responsibility to complete the correct form, have an authorized officer sign it, and file the completed form with the court. If the correct form is not delivered with these Letters or is unavailable for any other reason, blank copies of the forms may be obtained from the court. The forms may also be accessed from the judicial branch's public Web site free of charge. The Internet address (URL) is www.courtinfo.ca.gov/forms/. Select the form group Probate—Guardianships and Conservatorships and scroll down to form GC-050 for an institution or form GC-051 for a financial institution. The forms may be printed out as blank forms and filled in by typewriter (nonfillable form) or may be filled out online and printed out ready for signature and filing (fillable form).

An institution under California Probate Code section 2890(c) is an insurance company, insurance broker, insurance agent, investment company, investment bank, securities broker-dealer, investment advisor, financial planner, financial advisor, or any other person who takes, holds, or controls an asset subject to a conservatorship or guardianship other than a financial institution. Institutions must file a Notice of Taking Possession or Control of an Asset of Minor or Conservatee (form GC-050) for an asset of the minor or conservatee held by the institution. A single form may be filed for all affected assets held by the institution.

A financial institution under California Probate Code section 2892(b) is a bank, trust (including a Totten trust account but excluding other trust arrangements described in Probate Code section 82(b)), savings and loan association, savings bank, industrial bank, or credit union. Financial institutions must file a Notice of Opening or Changing a Guardianship or Conservatorship Account or Safe-Deposit Box (form GC-051) for an account or a safe-deposit box held by the financial institution. A single form may be filed for all affected accounts or safe-deposit boxes held by the financial institution.

INFORMATION ABOUT GIVING NOTICE OF THE HEARING ON YOUR PETITION AND REQUESTING A GOOD CAUSE EXCEPTION TO GIVING NOTICE

You must give at least five days advance written notice of the court hearing on your petition for appointment of a temporary guardian. The written notice must be personally delivered to (1) the child if he or she is at least 12 years old, (2) the child's parents, and (3) any person who has a valid and effective visitation order with the child. Written notice is given by delivering a filled-in copy of this petition and a filled-in copy of a Notice of Hearing—Guardianship or Conservatorship (form GC-020), showing the date, time, and place of the hearing and the title of this petition. See What Is "Proof of Service" in a Guardianship? (form GC-510) for more information on how to give notice in a guardianship and how to prove that you have given notice. The instructions in that form for personal service apply here, but the time limits for giving notice mentioned in that form do not apply to a temporary guardianship. There is much less time to complete this task when a petition for appointment of a temporary guardian is involved.

The court may waive (excuse) or change the requirement of giving notice if you can show the court good cause why an exception should be made to the requirement of giving notice. This showing may be made by completing item 9b on page 3 of this form.

If you want the court to waive notice to someone because he or she cannot be found, you must show the court that you have made reasonable efforts to find that person. See rules 7.52 and 7.1012 of the California Rules of Court for information on making reasonable efforts to find a person and on the good cause exception to notice of the hearing on a petition for appointment of a temporary guardian.

NOTICE TO INSTITUTIONS AND FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS
(Probate Code sections 2890–2893)

When these Letters of Temporary Guardianship or Letters of Temporary Conservatorship (Letters) are delivered to you as an employee or other representative of an institution or financial institution (described below) in order for the temporary guardian or temporary conservator of the estate (1) to take possession or control of an asset of the minor or conservatee named above held by your institution (including changing title, withdrawing all or any portion of the asset, or transferring all or any portion of the asset) or (2) to open or change the name of an account or a safe-deposit box in your financial institution to reflect the guardianship or conservatorship, you must fill out Judicial Council form GC-050 (for an institution) or form GC-051 (for a financial institution). An officer authorized by your institution or financial institution must date and sign the form, and you must file the completed form with the court.

There is no filing fee for filing the form. You may either arrange for personal delivery of the form or mail it to the court for filing at the address given for the court on page 1 of these Letters.

The temporary guardian or temporary conservator should deliver a blank copy of the appropriate form to you with these Letters, but it is your institution's or financial institution's responsibility to complete the correct form, have an authorized officer sign it, and file the completed form with the court. If the correct form is not delivered with these Letters or is unavailable for any other reason, blank copies of the forms may be obtained from the court. The forms may also be accessed from the judicial branch's public Web site free of charge. The Internet address (URL) is www.courts.ca.gov/forms/. Select the form group Probate—Guardianships and Conservatorships and scroll down to form GC-050 for an institution or form GC-051 for a financial institution. The forms may be printed out as blank forms and filled in by typewriter, or may be filled out online and printed out ready for signature and filing.

An institution under California Probate Code section 2890(c) is an insurance company, insurance broker, insurance agent, investment company, investment bank, securities broker-dealer, investment advisor, financial planner, financial advisor, or any other person who takes, holds, or controls an asset subject to a conservatorship or guardianship other than a financial institution. Institutions must file a Notice of Taking Possession or Control of an Asset of Minor or Conservatee (form GC-050) for an asset of the minor or conservatee held by the institution. A single form may be filed for all affected assets held by the institution.

A financial institution under California Probate Code section 2892(b) is a bank, trust (including a Totten trust account but excluding other trust arrangements described in Probate Code section 82(b)), savings and loan association, savings bank, industrial bank, or credit union. Financial institutions must file a Notice of Opening or Changing a Guardianship or Conservatorship Account or Safe-Deposit Box (form GC-051) for an account or a safe deposit box held by the financial institution. A single form may be filed for all affected accounts or safe deposit boxes held by the financial institution.

GUARDIANSHIP QUESTIONNAIRE
(CONFIDENTIAL)

NOTICE TO PETITIONERS

When seeking guardianship of a child(ren) to whom you are related, you must file several documents in the probate business office and pay an $800 investigation fee before Family Court Services can begin the guardianship investigation. The fee may be waived or reduced by the court, or payments arranged in cases of extreme hardship. In order to begin the investigation process, copies of the following filed documents (from your initial guardianship packet) must be submitted to Family Court Services at the address listed above, prior to scheduling an investigation date:

1. Petition for Appointment of Guardian of Minor(s) (JC Form #GC-210P)
2. Order Directing or Waiving Investigation signed by Judge of the Superior Court (SDSC Form #PR-63)
3. Declaration Under Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act (UCCJEA) (JC Form #FL-105/GC-120)
4. Confidential Guardian Screening Form (JC Form #GC-212)
5. Guardianship Questionnaire (SDSC Form #FCS-045) (Provided only to Family Court Services)
6. Receipt from the probate business office for payment of the $800 investigation fee or an order indicating that the court has waived the FCS investigation fees. Fees must be paid at the probate business office. FCS investigation appointment cannot be scheduled without receipt of payment or an order waiving the fees.

Once an order has been issued for Family Court Services to complete the investigation, and the investigation fee has been paid, waived or reduced, you can avoid delays in processing your guardianship matter by expeditiously returning these documents to Family Court Services. You may mail the information and receipt to Family Court Services at 1555 6th Avenue, 2nd Floor, San Diego, California 92101. You may also drop off your paperwork from 8 a.m. - 12 p.m. and 1 p.m. - 5 p.m., Monday through Thursday and 8:00 a.m. - 12:00 p.m. on Friday.

Family Court Services will be seeking information regarding the social history of the proposed guardians, parents and child(ren) as is required by state law. Please complete the entire Guardianship Questionnaire (SDSC Form #FCS-045). Information provided on this questionnaire, in the family interview(s), in other submitted comments and from investigative sources will be used to prepare a family social history, evaluation, and recommendation to the court. This report will then be placed in a sealed court file. Copies will be issued to the proposed guardians, parents, and their respective attorneys.

If you have questions regarding the Family Court Services investigation process, or concerns regarding appointments, you may call the guardianship clerk at the number listed above.

The proposed guardians are responsible for notifying the parents, if possible, regarding the Family Court Services investigation appointment.

The parents do not have to be present unless they are contesting the guardianship or wish to provide information in support of it. Any adult living in the home and acting in a parental role should be present for the interview.

Please do not bring the child(ren) to the FCS appointment. A subsequent appointment will be scheduled should the investigator need to interview the child(ren).
