Recommendations

Two letters of recommendations are required:

- One from current administrator, program director, or program owner. If you are a director or owner, include a recommendation form from an early childhood professional colleague
- One from a professional colleague of the applicant's choosing.

Application Essay

Applicants must submit an essay that will be reviewed by the Graduate Admission Committee to evaluate your ability to organize your thoughts and write clearly, correctly, and creatively at a level required for graduate study. We consider your essay an important piece of information to help us make a decision. Essay will be evaluated for content and professional writing style, grammar, spelling, and vocabulary. 500 word limit. Please address all topics.

- Self Assessment: Analyze the strengths, including career and leadership experience, that will contribute to your success in UMF's master's program. Articulate the knowledge and skills you wish to develop further.
- Vision and Values: Describe your vision of high quality early childhood education in today's world and the values that guide your work with young children and the families.

Supplemental Essay: Required if BA/BS is not in Early Childhood or closely related field

Applicants who did not complete an undergraduate degree in early childhood or a closely related field (i.e. child development, early childhood special education, human development) must submit an additional essay in response to the following prompts. 500 word limit. Please address all topics.

- Describe a clear rationale for relevant preparation to enter an early childhood program at an advanced level of study (such as foundational knowledge and/or knowledge of current issues in the field)
- Summarize your work experience with children and families in birth to age eight programs.

Application Fee

Your application will not be considered complete until the program office receives the $60 application fee. A check, money order, or purchase order from your school district must be made out to the University of Maine at Farmington.
