

PERMISSION TO USE IMAGE (February 2014)

The Indigenous Literacy Foundation is a charity that gifts books and literacy resources to organisations in remote and isolated communities. The Foundation also runs an early literacy project and supports community identified literacy initiatives. For more information about our work visit our website (www.indigenoussliteracyfoundation.org.au).

Photographs and footage are used in various promotional publications by the Foundation to illustrate and promote our programs. Photographs and film are kept on the Foundation's database and could be used on our website and social media – Facebook, Twitter, YouTube – and marketing material.

Please complete this form if you authorise the use of the photos/footage taken of your child by the Indigenous Literacy Foundation. If you would like to discuss this with us further, please contact us on 02 9319 2883 or by email info@ilf.org.au
