This form is a written agreement between the designer and business owner for the ownership of the logo detailed above. By signing below:

The Designer: relinquishes all personal and professional rights to the logo design selected as the winner of the 48hourslogo contest number listed above. This includes the transfer of rights to any variations of the logo supplied in the Logo Package, such as one color, black & white, color variations, dimensional varieties, etc.

Rights are retained to any non-winning and non-purchased designs entered into the contest. These designs may be repurposed and reconditioned with sufficient variations so they do not reflect/resemble the logo design of this agreement. The designer also retains the right to showcase the logo described above in online and offline personal portfolios as a demonstration of their work and experience.

The Client: Has confirmed the Logo Package on 48hourslogo.com and accepts the design and all files as is. They are the owner of the copyright on the design selected as the contest winner. They are free to reproduce, alter, and distribute the design at their own risk.

Trademark and copyright registration of the logo is the sole responsibility of the client.
