CRIMINAL RECORD
REHABILITATION OFFENDERS ACT 1974. Owing to the nature of this job working with vulnerable children and young people, the profession is exempt from the previous provisions of the above Act. Therefore applicants are not entitled to withhold information about convictions which for other purposes are 'spent' under the provisions of the Act. Sport 4 Life UK has the facility to check for convictions by carrying out an enhanced CRB check on applicants. Having a criminal record will not necessarily bar you from working with us. This will depend on the nature of the position and the circumstances and background of your offences. However, failure to reveal information that is directly relevant to the position sought could lead to withdrawal of an offer of employment/volunteering.
Have you at any time received a police warning, caution or conviction?
If 'Yes', please give details. All details will be dealt with in the strictest of confidence. If you have more than one police warning, caution or conviction please use an additional sheet to detail all of your offences.
