

Optional Broker/Agent Disclosure Confirmation Form

(Recommended, but not required by law)

Attached are forms to be used by real estate licensees to memorialize that they have informed the seller or buyer of their rights and obligations under the Property Condition Disclosure Act. Please note - the property condition disclosure form is mandatory, while these two forms are optional.

DISCLOSURE TO SELLER REGARDING
PROPERTY CONDITION DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

As the seller of residential real property, you are required by law to complete and sign a Property Condition Disclosure Statement as prescribed by Real Property Law §462(2) and cause it, or a copy thereof, to be delivered to a buyer or buyer's agent prior to the signing by the buyer of a binding contract of sale. A copy of the Property Condition Disclosure Statement containing the signatures of both the buyer and the seller must be attached to the real estate purchase contract. If you acquire knowledge which renders materially inaccurate a Property Condition Disclosure Statement previously provided, you must deliver a revised Property Condition Disclosure Statement to the buyer as soon as practicable. In no event, however, will you be required to provide a revised Property Condition Disclosure Statement after the transfer of title from you to the buyer or after the buyer has commenced occupancy of the property. If you fail to deliver a Property Condition Disclosure Statement to the buyer prior to the buyer signing a binding contract of sale, the buyer will be entitled to a credit in the amount of $500.00 against the purchase price of the property upon the transfer of title.

DISCLOSURE TO BUYER REGARDING
PROPERTY CONDITION DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

As the buyer of residential real property, you are entitled by law to receive from the seller a signed property condition disclosure statement as prescribed by Real Property Law §462(2) prior to your signing of a binding contract of sale. A copy of the Property Condition Disclosure Statement containing the signatures of both the buyer and the seller must be attached to the real estate purchase contract. You are also entitled to receive a revised Property Condition Disclosure Statement as soon as practicable in the event that the seller acquires knowledge which renders materially inaccurate a Property Condition Disclosure Statement previously provided to you. You will not be entitled to receive a revised Property Condition Disclosure Statement after the transfer of title from the seller to you or after you have commenced occupancy of the property. In the event the seller fails to deliver a Property Condition Disclosure Statement to you prior to your signing a binding contract of sale, you are entitled to receive a credit in the amount of $500.00 against the purchase price of the property upon the transfer of title.
