PRIMATE INTERN

Como's Primate Internship is designed as a volunteer career learning experience. Interns will gain first hand experience in primate husbandry, food preparation, operant conditioning, enrichment, and data collection. There will be an opportunity to work toward accomplishing a special research, observational, or school project. College credit required. Internships are available in year round with a minimum commitment of 12 weeks, 20 hours per week.

DUTIES: (All times are approximate)

- Cleaning: 25% of the time is spent maintaining a clean and healthy environment
- Enrichment: 25% of the time is spent researching, constructing and providing enrichment
- Food preparation: 20% of the time is spent preparing diets for the primate collection
- Record keeping: 10% of the time is spent maintaining animal records, job duties accomplished, and other records that are assigned by the primate staff
- Public interactions: 5% of the time spent interacting with the public and answering guests' questions
- Special project: 15% of the time is spent working toward accomplishing a special project; this may be a college requirement or assigned by the primate staff.

QUALIFICATIONS:

- Currently be in a degree program in zoology, biology, and looking to work specifically with primates
- Demonstrate high quality work and work well independently or with others in a team effort
- Be available to work a regular schedule that includes weekdays, weekends, and holidays
- Have the ability to stand, stoop, bend, reach, climb and lift up to 50 pounds
- Proof of rabies and hepatitis B vaccination plus a negative mantoux (TB) test result current to 6 months of start date
- Possess a valid Minnesota or equivalent out-of-state class D driver's license
- Obtain prior approval for college credit for the internship
