Part IV Supplemental Information. Provide the information required in Part I, line 2, Part III, column (b), and any other additional information.

01. Monitoring procedures (Part I, line 2)

Every year, the Executive Council of the Association decides how much money it wants to allocate to the Joseph H. Fichter Research Grants for the upcoming year. Using this dollar figure, the Joseph Fichter Award Committee, which is composed of four members, evaluates the applications based on their quality and whether they meet the eligibility criteria. The committee's selections are then communicated to the Executive Officer, who in turn distributes the funding to the research offices at the grantees' college or university. Upon completion of the research, the research office of the grantees' college or university must provide the Association with a Final Expense Report detailing how the funds were spent and certifying with a signature that the expenditures are correct.
