Cultural exchange activities

In most of the positions offered, you will have constant customer interaction, as well as getting a chance to meet locals and vacationing tourists (tourists primarily visit during the summer) from all of the US and abroad, that enjoy coming to Myrtle Beach for its fun family atmosphere.

All but kitchen positions require you to learn various dances to a variety of popular American songs from the 50's to present day. When the music starts, you will find a spot and start dancing - if you like you may also feel free to sing along as well. The dancing takes place both inside of the restaurant in front of the tables, on the top of the booths, as well as outside in front of the business to entertain and hopefully attract patrons walking by.

I would just like to take this opportunity to say thank you for an amazing summer!...it was a pleasure to work for such a great company, Johnny Rockets, and a fabulous team!...“I have applied to work in Liverpool’s answer to Johnny Rockets – Rokerfellas!! It’s a 50s diner and looks exactly like Johnny Rockets - booth seats, jukeboxes, counter and servers dressed in 50s uniforms! I have been successful in my interview and I’ve got my first shift tomorrow so hopefully it will all go well! Although the English won’t be as nice with their tips like you Americans !
