DIBELS Next Online Product Training

DIBELS[®] Next training is now available in a convenient, self-paced online learning environment. This easy-to-navigate online course is an alternative to face-to-face training. Estimated to take 9–12 hours total, the DIBELS Next online option allows 24/7 access to all course material.

Course features include:

- In-depth training on all six DIBELS Next measures—from implementation to administration, scoring, and interpretation
- A video host to guide you through each section
- Tools to search, highlight, and annotate as you navigate the course
- Embedded video segments to practice each measure multiple times
- Check Your Understanding quizzes that provide feedback and document participation

Access to the online course is available for one year from date of purchase.

A certificate is available upon course completion and can be applied toward continuing education credit.

At its core, the ultimate goal of DIBELS Next is to support students as they become proficient, fluent readers who read for meaning. DIBELS Next provides quick and easy measures that indicate if a student is on track for reading success. DIBELS Next comprises six measures that are designed to be indicators of basic early literacy skills.
