Educator Work Experience Verification Form

Please follow the Instructions below to document your qualified teaching hours in Section III:

- List each course taught and use the formula below to calculate your qualifying teaching experience hours (See examples in the table below.):
Course Contact Hours (number of hours teaching per week) x Weeks Taught = Total Contact Hours
Total Contact Hours x 2.25 = Total Qualified Teaching Hours (QTH).
- Attach a syllabus that shows the activity schedule for each course taught.
- Any course taught multiple times in different semesters/quarters can count at 100% of QTH hours as many times as it was taught. However the same course taught twice or more in one semester or quarter will count at half of the total QTH for each subsequent time it is taught (see chart below).
- For courses that combine qualified task content areas (programming or design development) with task content areas that do not qualify (history or portfolio design), only the portion of the course that addresses the qualified experience content can be counted. See NCIDQ Exam blueprints for clarification about what is tested on the exam and can count as teaching experience hours.
- The candidate and the supervisor must sign at the bottom of each form used.

Section III Calculation Example:
