

Filipino Intercollegiate Networking Dialogue, Inc.

The Filipino Intercollegiate Networking Dialogue, Inc. (FINID, Inc.) is a student-led organization dedicated to promoting unity and cooperation among Filipino & Filipino-American students.

Based in the East Coast, FINID, Inc. currently serves over 3,000 students studying in East Coast colleges, universities, vocational, and technical schools. FINID, Inc.'s primary member institutions are located from the Northeastern seaboard through the state of Virginia. These member schools are divided into seven districts according to their geographic proximity.

FINID, Inc. was founded in 1992 when it was apparent that there was a need to create a space in which East Coast Filipino & Filipino-American students may get together to talk about and celebrate the Filipino heritage. FINID, Inc. was created to unify Filipino student organizations in the East Coast in order for groups to cooperate and successfully create dialogue amongst one another.

Mission Statement

The purpose of FINID, Inc. shall be to promote unity and cooperation of Filipino students at colleges, universities, vocational, and technical schools, or any other institutions of higher education.

In achieving this purpose FINID, Inc. has four goals:

- To offer a channel for dialogue, critical thinking, and action.
- To promote and preserve the Filipino and Filipino-American culture, history, and heritage.
- To further awareness of issues pertinent to the Filipino and Filipino-American community.
- To act as a catalyst to help Filipino and Filipino-American organizations reach their goals.
