Election District 13, consisting of Houk, Polowat, Tamatam, and Pollap, 1 member.

Section 4. The members shall serve for a 4 year term. The term of all members of the Legislature shall begin at 10:00 a.m., October 1st following the general election.

Section 5. Every 4 years when a new Legislature convenes, it shall organize by the election of one of its members as the presiding officer. Such presiding officer shall be designated as the Speaker of the Legislature. Other officers may also be elected, as provided by the rules of the Legislature.

Section 6. A vacancy in the Legislature shall be filled for the unexpired term by a special election, but an unexpired term of less than one year shall be filled by appointment of the Governor.

Section 7.

(a) No person is eligible to serve as a Senator unless at least 30 years of age, on the day of election; was a born Chuukese; has been a resident and registered voter of the Election District from which elected for at least five years prior to the day of election; and is a citizen of the Federated States of Micronesia.

(b) No person convicted of a felony is eligible to serve as a member of the legislature, even if pardoned. A member of the Legislature who has been convicted of a felony shall automatically be expelled from the Legislature, but is eligible to run again if the conviction is reversed on appeal.

(c) The Legislature is the sole judge of the elections and qualifications of its members. Determination of election and qualification of members must be in compliance with sub-section (a) and (b) of this section and by statute.

Section 11.

(a) The Legislature shall convene annually in a regular session, which may not exceed 60 working days as provided by law.

(b) A special session, which may not exceed 15 working days as provide by law, shall be convened at the call of the Governor, or at the written order signed by a majority of all the members of the Legislature, if not in session, or by a vote of a majority of the members present if in session. No subject of legislation may be considered at a special session called by the Governor other than those specified in the call or in any message by the Governor to the Legislature.

(c) At the start of a regular or special session, the legislature shall appoint a committee to inform the Governor formally that the Legislature is prepared to transact business.

Section 12.

The enacting clause of every bill shall be as follows:

"BE IT ENACTED BY THE CHUUK STATE LEGISLATURE:" No law may be enacted except by bill.

Section 13.

(a) Every bill passed by the Legislature shall be certified by the presiding officer and clerk of the Legislature and shall be presented to the Governor. The Governor shall have ten days to consider a bill presented when 10 or more days remain before adjournment sine die, and 30 days to consider a bill presented when less than 10 days remain before adjournment sine die or presented after adjournment sine die. If the Governor signs the bill within the time period required for consideration, it shall become a law. If the Governor disapproves, he shall so indicate and return the bill with objections to the legislature within the time period required for consideration. If the Governor takes no action and does not return the bill within such period, it shall become a law in like manner as if signed.

(b) When a bill is disapproved and returned by the Governor with objections, the Legislature may proceed to consider it. If a bill is re-passed by a 2/3 vote of the members present one reading required for passage, it shall become law.

(c) The Governor may veto any specific item or items in any bill which appropriates money for specific purposes, by striking out the same, but may disapprove other bills only as a whole.

(d) If, upon receipt of a veto message from the Governor, the Legislature has adjourned sine die, the Legislature may consider the disapproved bill in the next regular or special session.

Section 14.

(a) A majority of the members of the Legislature constitutes a quorum for the transaction of business. However, a smaller number, not less than $\frac{3}{4}$ of the number of members required for a quorum, may compel and absent member to attend sessions of the Legislature by ordering loss of salary and expense allowance, suspension, or both. Such action may be overturned only by a vote of 2/3 of all the members, but the Legislature may not overturn a lost of salary or expense allowance for any session days which the member has failed to attend.

(b) The legislature may punish a member for misconduct, disorderly behavior, or neglect of duty by censure or, upon a 2/3 vote of its members, by suspension or expulsion.

Section 15.

(a) In order to become law, a bill shall pass two readings on separate days. The final passage of a bill shall be by majority roll call vote of all the members of the Legislature which shall be entered upon the journal. Adoption of a resolution is by a majority vote of the members present.

(b) Every legislative act shall have but one subject, which shall be expressed in its title. A provision not included in the subject expressed in the title is void. No law or section of a law may be amended or revised by reference to its title only, but in every instance the law or section shall be published in its entirety, as amended or revised.

(c) Every bill, when passed, shall immediately be certified by the Speaker and the Clerk.

Section 16. The legislature shall keep and publish a journal of its proceedings. The business of the Legislature and its committees and committee of the whole shall be transacted publicly and not in secret session.

Section 17. The Legislature shall have and exercise all the authority and attributes inherent in legislative assemblies, and may institute and conduct investigations, issue subpoenas, and administer oaths.

Section 18.

(a) The Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or a Justice of the Supreme Court shall be removed from office upon conviction of impeachment for not carrying out the duties and responsibilities of the office as mandated by this constitution or by law, or for misfeasance or malfeasance in office.

(b) The Legislature has the sole power of impeachment. A resolution of impeachment requires majority vote of all members of the Legislature.

(c) The State Supreme Court has the sole power to try impeachment charges. The impeachment panel shall consist of the Chief Justice and two other Associate Justices of the State, who shall be appointed by the Chief Justice. It shall be organized within two weeks after the adoption of the impeachment resolution, and shall render its final decision no later than one month after its organization. A conviction of impeachment requires a majority vote of all the members of the impeachment panel. In the event that the Chief Justice, or an appointed Associate Justice, has a conflict of interest in an impeachment trial, the Chief Justice shall appoint a replacement from among the remaining Associate Justices, or from among the Associate Justices in the Federated States of Micronesia. When the Governor has been impeached, the Chief Justice shall preside at the trial. If the Chief Justice is unable to serve, he shall appoint a presiding officer from among the Associate Justices of the State Supreme Court. Another Justice in the Federated States of Micronesia may be appointed if no state justice is available.

(d) Judgments in case of impeachment shall not extend beyond removal from office and disqualification to hold any office of trust, honor, or profit in the government. A person so convicted may nevertheless be liable and subject to indictment, trial, judgment, and punishment according to law.

(e) No officer may exercise the powers and duties of his office upon the adoption of a resolution of impeachment and until acquitted."
