

Weekly Reading Log

Name: _____
Date: _____
Period: _____

Book Title: _____ Author: _____
Publisher: _____ Publication Date: _____ Number of Pages: _____

Date: _____ Duration: _____ Page Numbers Read: _____
Brief Summary: _____

Briefly tell why you selected this particular book to read. _____
What types of books do you normally read. Why? _____

Date: _____ Duration: _____ Page Numbers Read: _____
Brief Summary: _____

Who is the main character (protagonist) in the story? Briefly describe him or her: _____
What character traits does this person have? List and explain. _____

Date: _____ Duration: _____ Page Numbers Read: _____
Brief Summary: _____

Who is the antagonist in the story? Briefly describe him or her: _____
What character traits does this person have? List and explain. _____

Date: _____ Duration: _____ Page Numbers Read: _____
Brief Summary: _____

What is the story's theme? What evidence from the story supports this theme _____
What mood is exhibited throughout the story? Does it change? How? Write an example of this on the reverse side of this paper.

Date: _____ Duration: _____ Page Numbers Read: _____
Brief Summary: _____

Describe the story's setting. Does it change? Why or why not? _____
In what person (first, second, third, omniscient) is the story being told? Write your answer along with proof on the other side.

Date: _____ Duration: _____ Page Numbers Read: _____
Brief Summary: _____

Write and example from the book to show the author's use of foreshadowing. _____
On the reverse side, write an example from the book that shows the reader the time period in which the book is written.

Date: _____ Duration: _____ Page Numbers Read: _____
Brief Summary: _____

Write an example of a simile used by the author. _____
Write an example of a metaphor used by the author. _____

Students must read at least five nights a week for at least 20 minutes.
Parent Signature Verifying Homework Reading Time: