GOOD TO HAVE YOU ON BOARD

Welcome to NABO.

NABO's mission is to keep private boating on the UK's inland waterways possible, affordable and enjoyable. It does this mainly by getting the right messages to the right people at the right time. The founding members feared that boaters' voices were not being heard or being fully represented by other organisations at the time. So they formed NABO as an independent voice for boaters.

What NABO does not do:

The Association does not cater for a broad spectrum of waterway interests, as so doing could prevent it from properly representing boaters' interests. Neither is it a social club, a cruising club, or a canal society.

What NABO does:

NABO is dedicated to promoting the interests of private boaters on Britain's inland waterways, so that their voices can be heard when decisions which might affect their boating are being made. NABO will always challenge injustice, where necessary at the highest level, taking a stand on boating issues, including:

- unnecessary boat safety requirements
- excessive licence and mooring fees
- poor dredging, or
- any loss of freedom to navigate or moor on waterways.

NABO will support individual members with problems, as well as taking up local issues and matters of national concern.

We try to represent all boaters regardless of how you use your boat. We are not for or against any type of boater and the diversity of the boating community is something we wish to defend.

NABO is the largest organisation to solely represent boat owners on the UK's inland waterways.
NABO's growing membership represents over 3000 boaters.

It has gained recognition from all the major navigational authorities, other waterway organisations and government bodies. Its arguments are usually listened to with respect, and it is frequently consulted on important waterway issues. Much of what NABO achieves is almost invisible and goes on behind the scenes, unseen by the waterways community, even by boaters. However, it has been instrumental in improving the waterways in many ways:

- It recommended that CRT should appoint a Welfare Officer, which was taken up by CRT in 2014.
- It has been a leading influence in securing a commitment to minimise the mandatory requirements of the Boat Safety Scheme and in securing changes to the appeals procedure. It is one of few boating groups with representation at both technical and advisory level within the BSS scheme.
- It is working with CRT to find a legally sound means of combating abuse and overstaying on public moorings that has minimum impact on the freedom of movement of conscientious boaters.
- It has brought to CRT's attention inadequacies in its Licence and Mooring Permit Conditions, which were then corrected.
- It secured 28 amendments to the 1995 BW Act and concessions on the way it would be applied before it was passed. This act affects all boaters on waterways controlled by the Canal and River Trust (CRT) and the amendments brought valuable safeguards for boaters.
- It took BW to the Waterway Ombudsman over the lack of consultation on boat licence fee increases and the Ombudsman ruled in NABO's favour.

Current Council members often describe what we do in practice as damage limitation. Sadly this was very much our role in the final years of British Waterways and while we hope for a better future with the CRT, we must remain cautious and vigilant as there is a lot of unfinished business. We are unashamedly at times a pressure group but we argue for a middle way. Our prime concerns are that navigation authorities should be fair and transparent and use resources most effectively for the common good.

This booklet, originally produced for Council members and representatives, not only contains basic information about the internal working of the Association and the original legal basis for British Waterways (and now CRT), but also contact details for the inland waterways navigation authorities and a useful list of waterway acronyms. If you would like to see further information included in the handbook, or have any other comments on NABO and its work, please contact one of the Council members listed in NABO News. We would of course welcome any help you feel you can offer the Association, either as a member of NABO Council, a regional representative, or doing a specific job that would help the Association's work.

1 NABO COUNCIL AND REPRESENTATIVES

A brief background

NABO was formed in 1991 by a group of boat owners who felt that none of the existing organisations adequately put forward their views to the waterway authorities. It depends almost entirely on members' subscriptions for its income. NABO is run by a Council elected at an Annual General Meeting each November, consisting of up to 12 volunteers who meet every six weeks outside the summer months. There are no regional meetings or sub-committees, but each area of the country has a Regional Representative reporting back to the Council.

The regional reps try, often with invaluable help from other members, to keep a watching brief on local waterways issues that affect boaters. This includes attending and contributing to local user group meetings with local waterway authorities and where relevant with local government and other bodies - especially keeping a watching brief on maintenance, towpath issues and moorings, and enforcement activity. Sharing and combining information on different regional activities is invaluable and gives NABO a strong picture of what is happening nationally. It means that our national representations are strong and backed up with local evidence, knowledge and experience. This system of regional level representation also provides a valuable means of cross-fertilisation of ideas between different waterways. There have been many instances where NABO representatives have been able to cite productive thinking on one waterway to benefit others.

When e-mailing, please consider those living afloat: some Council members live on their boats and use connections via mobile phones. They will thank you for sending your message using the 'Plain Text' setting, (i.e. not 'Rich Text' or 'HTML') and for not overloading them with large attachments. Where possible please write what you want to say into the body of the e-mail rather than using attachments.

For matters concerning a particular waterway please consult the regional representative for that area first.

3 NABO COUNCIL MEETINGS

NABO's Council meets approximately every six weeks at boat clubs around the country, as indicated in NABO News and on the NABO website.

Meetings start at 10.45 am and normally finish by 3.30 pm. You are welcome to come to meetings, but it would be appreciated if you let the Chairman or General Secretary know first. Hot and cold lunches, tea and coffee are available at NABO's expense, but you pay for any drinks bought at the bar. Lunchtime provides a good opportunity for a chat and getting to know each other. Travel expenses will be paid if you attend Council or other meetings on behalf of NABO, but other expenses should be cleared with the Hon. Treasurer or Chairman before they are incurred.

4 NABO NEWS

The magazine is NABO's main way of keeping its members informed about waterway issues and for members to let the Association know their views. It also serves an important role in telling those in the corridors of power what boaters think.

'Concessionary' copies go to all CRT Trustees and directors, Environment Agency (EA) directors, MPs with an interest in the waterways and other influential parties, some of whom confess to reading it from cover to cover before starting their day's work! Through NABO News a reader's letter or article can bypass the whole hierarchy of a navigation authority consultation mechanism, making it a very effective communication tool.

The Editor is pleased to receive articles at any time, and on most subjects that are of interest to boaters, preferably with separate photos, by e-mail. Don't worry about the layout as this will be changed to fit the magazine format. Articles or other contributions do not need to be long - little snippets picked up at meetings or on the towpath make ideal fillers and break up the 'political' news. Photos of any waterways-related subject are always very welcome and there is a free year's membership if your photo is used on the cover of NABO News.

The Editor is supported by a team of NABO members who are volunteer proofreaders (if you would like to assist, please let the Editor know) and the graphic designer Chris Pink (www.chrispink.co.uk).

The magazine publication dates are timed to follow NABO Council meetings, with copy dates usually a week after each meeting (Note: the deadline for the pre-AGM issue may be earlier to meet constitutional notice periods). It may be up to three weeks after copy dates before the magazine is in members' hands, but you can access the current issue sooner in the 'Members' section of the NABO website, together with past issues of NABO News.

Please let the Editor know if you would like to receive NABO News by email rather than a printed copy. This will reduce NABO's costs but unfortunately we cannot offer a discounted subscription for the email-only option.

5 NABO POLICIES

NABO Council develops policies from time to time and these form the basis of our consultation with navigation authorities and other user groups. These are reviewed in consultation with the membership and are therefore the nearest we can get to a consensus of opinion within our Association. Please consult Council members if you feel unable to represent any of the policies shown below, or if you wish to propose an amendment to a policy.

1 NABO's role

NABO is dedicated to promoting the interests of private boat owners on Britain's canals, rivers and lakes. NABO was formed in 1991 and represents over 3,000 boaters, predominantly on the waterways operated by the CRT and the EA. Views of members are obtained through correspondence, Association publications, surveys, open meetings, and face to face contact with boaters at boat shows and on the waterways. NABO will work positively with all navigation authorities, principally CRT and EA, to represent boaters' views.

2 Waterways Regulator

NABO welcomes the continued presence of the Waterways Ombudsman and the scrutiny this brings to the activities of CRT. NABO would wish the Ombudsman to have a remit covering all inland navigation authorities, to provide a uniform approach applicable to all waterways not presently included in the various Ombudsman schemes. This should also encompass the navigation functions of the EA.

3 Boater safety

NABO will actively promote safety issues among boaters and other canal users, and contribute to the work of the Boat Safety Scheme.

4 Consultation

NABO is committed to meaningful consultation and would like to feel more confident that the views of users are being taken seriously. There should be meaningful consultation for all significant issues that affect boaters (for example stoppages, terms and conditions, priorities for maintenance expenditure, mooring regulations, use of powers from the 1962 Transport Act and changes to waterside furniture). The application of rules should be consistent across the system. There should be no opportunity for individual Waterway Business Units or Partnerships to interpret the navigation laws.

5 Licensing, Regulations and the law

NABO will monitor all legal cases made available to the Association and take legal advice on matters of interpretation and senior court judgements. NABO believes that all regulations must be applied equally to all boaters and have national legality. CRT, being established by statute, must have rules that are in accordance with the powers granted to them by Act of Parliament, and must be seen to exercise and test their interpretation in Court. NABO will challenge CRT where in its view, CRT is exceeding its powers. NABO does not support 'Roving Mooring Licences' or 'Community Permits', which are from time to time a proposal of CRT but not designated in BW Acts.

6 Licence and Registration Evasion

NABO does not condone licence/registration evasion and will do all it can to promote compliance on behalf of the navigation authorities.

7 Mooring Abuse

NABO supports a 'fair use' policy for all parts of the waterways. Unauthorised overstaying on moorings is a national problem that navigation authorities and land owners should address. We agree in principle with CRT's 'Guidance for boaters without a home mooring', dated September 2012, and will encourage bona fide navigation. Enforcement must be seen to be even-handed and not discriminatory.

8 Visitor Mooring Charges

NABO is opposed to charges being applied to visitor moorings. NABO believes that if such moorings are included in the licence fee, then there should be no further charge. This should be by default 7 or 14 days and only shorter where the demand for mooring in that location exceeds the supply and it is not possible to provide sufficient extra moorings to satisfy that demand. A mix of available mooring durations is NABO's preferred option.

NABO believes that CRT is not able, and should not attempt, to levy penalties in the event of a boater overstaying. NABO believes that charges should only be applied where a service is being provided over and above the services that boaters should reasonably expect through their licence fees (e.g. mooring charges at Llangollen where electricity and water are provided).

9 Boating Cost Increases

NABO will seek justification and wherever appropriate challenge any increase in licence, permit, mooring or other boating fees that exceeds the rate of increase to which pensions are linked.

10 Scope of Licence and Moorings Terms and Conditions

NABO believes that licence/permit terms and conditions should be restricted to those essential to the successful administration of the system and be transparently based on the applicable laws. Safety requirements should be limited to those that protect third parties from proven risks.

11 Mooring Fee Justification

NABO believes that navigation authorities and service providers should offer written terms and conditions for boaters. A justification and breakdown of mooring fees should be available to all. NABO does not support the auction of CRT moorings, and prefers a waiting list system.

12 Vegetation Management

NABO believes that vegetation should be managed so it does not impede or prejudice the safety of activities concerned with navigation.

13 Dredging and Channel Dimensions

All navigation authorities should recover the original profile of channel dimensions whenever dredging takes place, except where exceptional engineering or usage reasons exist. Dredging at designated mooring areas should be sufficient to allow deep-draught boats to come alongside the bank.

14 The role of CRT

NABO believes that CRT should place its obligations as a navigation authority at the top of its duty priorities, and only conduct other commercial activities as a means to further this aim. NABO believes that property development, pub management, water distribution, communication data distribution, marinas, event organisation, nature conservation and development of the waterway corridors as linear public parks should not in any way prejudice the maintenance and development of the waterways as routes for travel by water.

15 Cycling

NABO is against any organised cycling or performance events on the towpath. Boaters and pedestrians should have priority over cyclists on the towpath and we remain very cautious, on safety grounds, of the 'upgrade' of towpaths in order to create cycle ways. NABO is in favour of any steps taken to ensure that cyclists slow down before passing moored boats and pedestrians. CRT should take responsibility for allowing cyclists on towpaths and enforce its bye-laws

16 Angling

NABO is opposed to angling-only lengths of bank. Boaters should have sole use of lock landing stages and facilities points and priority at designated visitor mooring sites. Elsewhere, priority should be on a first-come-first-served basis.

17 Crime and Vandalism

NABO will support all agencies and do whatever else is necessary to reduce crime and antisocial behaviour on the waterways.

Prior to exclusion, the member shall be informed of the intention to exclude, and shall be given the opportunity to state his or her case at the next meeting of the Council.
- h) Minutes of all the Council meetings shall be taken and shall be approved as a true representation at the following meeting of the Council. All minutes shall be available for inspection by any member of the Council and by any member of the Association except for minutes involving personal matters relating to individual members or matters falling under Clauses (g) above and 5.3 (b) and (c) which shall remain confidential.

7 The 1995 BW Act 17(3) extract

Undertakings and Statements of Intent

At the first reading of this Bill, several organisations, such as the IWA, RYA, British Marine Industries Federation and NABO, objected for various reasons. In order to make sure that the Bill would be successful at its second reading, British Waterways made assurances to these groups and to Parliament that it would behave in certain ways, adopt certain practices etc.. Those made to Parliament are called "The Undertakings" we undertake to ..... those to organisations are called "Statements of Intent" (we intend to .....). The documents pertaining to The Undertakings and Statements of Intent run to about sixty sheets, so here is a summary of the most useful parts, together with the numbers:

Letter dated 11th May 1993 from BW to the RYA, which summarises the Statements of Intent.

1 (1) British Waterways is committed to the management of its inland waterways for navigation and other purposes in accordance with its statutory duties under the Transport Act 1968. It will maintain dredged depths to published standards, and seek wherever reasonably practicable and in a manner consistent with conserving the waterways heritage and the environment to preserve and enhance opportunities for navigation.

2 (1) British waterways recognises that the views of users need to be heard and taken into account at all levels within its organisation. It is committed to effective consultation and will seek to develop new means where appropriate to enhance effective dialogue and give users full confidence that their opinions and interests receive full and proper consideration.

2 (3) g British Waterways will take fully into account the views expressed through the consultation procedure.

3 (3) Where casual mooring is permitted, it will be without charge except where necessary to avoid monopolisation and/or facilitate access to popular locations and then only when mooring exceeds the permitted period.

The final paragraph of the letter states:

Although these Statements of Intent were given initially to the boating interests represented above, they will apply universally for the benefit of all our users. Whilst they have no direct legal effect, because changing circumstances will inevitably involve their reconsideration and revision, any change will only be made following consultation at the appropriate levels as stipulated in paragraph 1.6 of our revised draft Leisure and Tourism Strategy.

Statements of Intent issued by British Waterways dated 18th June 1993

3 Clause 18 (Prohibition or control of mooring)

Where the Board exercise powers of clause 18 for the purposes specified in clause 18 (3)(c) (General availability) it will be the Board's practice to provide so far as is practicable to do so and where there is a demand a mix of moorings of different durations.

4 While these statements of intent have no legal effect, the Board intend to observe them until changing circumstances require their reconsideration and revision, in which case changes will only be made following consultation with NABO and such persons and organisations as are stipulated in paragraph 1.6 of the Board's revised draft Leisure and Tourism strategy.

All quoted verbatim. Should you wish to see the document the Treasurer and General Secretary have a copy.

1995 Act Licence Clauses (Section 17)

- (3) Notwithstanding anything in any enactment but subject to subsection (7) below, the Board may refuse a relevant consent in respect of any vessel unless—
- (a) the applicant for the relevant consent satisfies the Board that the vessel complies with the standards applicable to that vessel;
  - (b) an insurance policy is in force in respect of the vessel and a copy of the policy, or evidence that it exists and is in force, has been produced to the Board; and
  - (c) either—

- (i) the Board are satisfied that a mooring or other place where the vessel can reasonably be kept and may lawfully be left will be available for the vessel, whether on an inland waterway or elsewhere; or
- (ii) the applicant for the relevant consent satisfies the Board that the vessel to which the application relates will be used bona fide for navigation throughout the period for which the consent is valid without remaining continuously in any one place for more than 14 days or such longer period as is reasonable in the circumstances.

8 Canal & River Trust Governance and Advisory Groups

CRT Trustees are legally responsible for ensuring that the Trust works towards its Charitable Objectives. Trustees are the unpaid board, taking decisions on policy and overarching strategy and providing oversight of the executive directors.

The governing Council has 35 nominated and elected members who reflect diverse aspects of the waterways. The Council helps to shape policy, raise and debate issues, provide guidance and perspective, and act as a sounding board for Trustees. The Council also has the responsibility of appointing and dismissing Trustees.

Executive Directors manage everyday operations of the Trust. They develop policy and strategy for approval by the Trustees and are responsible for management of the 1,600-strong workforce. Richard Parry is CRT's Chief Executive.

CRT has established twelve Waterway Partnerships that reflect geographic waterway administration boundaries plus one dedicated to museums and attractions. The Partnerships help to shape plans for each waterway, guide the Trust's decisions about spending, develop local engagement and external funding, and champion the interests of the waterways. The Partnerships are made up of people who represent different waterways interests, such as boaters, walkers, cyclists and anglers. They also include people with relevant expertise in areas like volunteering, fundraising, environment, heritage and community engagement. The Chair of each Partnership has a seat on the CRT Council.

CRT is also supported by a number of advisory committees: 1) The Environmental Advisory Panel steers and validates CRT's strategic direction in environmental management and provides the Trust with expert advice on specific nature conservation, water quality and use, environmental issues (e.g. carbon footprint management, helping to improve resource efficiency and climate change mitigation). 2) The Navigation Advisory Group comprises boaters from a variety of backgrounds and perspectives in two sub-groups: Navigation Operations, which deals with advice relating to safety standards, waterway operation, maintenance and repairs, and customer service standards; and Licensing & Mooring, which deals with advice relating to boat licensing and moorings policies and their implementation. 3) The Heritage Advisory Group provides advice and support on heritage and conservation issues, helping to inform CRT's heritage policies and procedures and shaping approaches to managing the heritage of the waterways. 4) The Volunteering Advisory Group advises on the Trust's strategic approach and best practice in managing volunteers. 5) The Learning, Children and Young People Advisory Group provides opportunities for engagement of young people through a formal education programme using web-based resources and volunteer-led sessions and a youth programme, Waterways Action Squad. 6) The Angling and Fisheries Advisory Group advises the Trust on angling and fisheries management issues. 7) The Freight Advisory Group helps to steer CRT's policies on waterway freight.
