Numbers should only refer to activities completed with Anglo American Chairman's Fund monies. "Jobs created" refer to permanent full-time and part time (not less than 20 hours per week) jobs created as a result of your organisation's activities. For example if an entrepreneur trained by your organisation is able to successfully start a business and employs 3 people then your organisation has created 4 jobs for the reporting period. "Jobs supported" refer to permanent full time and part-time jobs that may have already existed that were supported (salaries continued to be paid etc) as a result of grant funding. "Temporary jobs supported or created" by your organisation does not include permanent employees on a part-time basis but rather employees hired for a limited period (less than one year). "Partner staff trained" and "Community members trained" may be a subset of the number of people reported as "direct beneficiaries".
