SUMMARY OF CHANGES

This document is substantially revised and must be completely reviewed. This revision reorganized the format of chapters and paragraphs for increased understanding with chapter two applicable to all crew positions, chapter three applicable to instructors, and following chapters applicable to individual crew positions. Grading criteria tables have been standardized across crew positions where applicable and expanded to include specific grading criteria. Evaluation methods are identified by notes in the crew specific tables as: in-flight only; in-flight and/or in simulator; and in-flight and/or alternate methods. Guidance was added allowing Weapon System Trainers (WSTs) to be used to accomplish evaluations or portions of evaluations if certified by AFSOC A3T and A3V. Guidance was clarified on the use of SPOT evaluations to document Special Qualification Evaluations. Multiple Qualification guidance was clarified. Emergency Procedures Evaluation, publications checks, and Cockpit/Crew Resource Management guidance was added. In Table 2.1., aircrew discipline and airmanship/situational awareness have been added as critical sub-areas. In Table 3.1., all “Instructor” sub-areas have been modified to reflect the Command standard and are no longer graded as critical.
