

CHAPTER 3Know-It Notes 3.4*Life in the English Colonies

READING THE SECTION Each of the following sentences contains an underlined word, phrase, or name that makes the sentence incorrect. As you read the section, use the space provided to write the word, phrase, or name that makes the sentence correct. (p. 95)

- _____ 1. Squanto was the Wampanoag leader known as King Philip .
- _____ 2. The Spanish were better able to maintain the trust of their Indian allies because their small settlements were less threatening to the Indians than the rapidly growing English colonies.
- _____ 3. John Smith built a fort near the Ohio River to try to force the French to leave.
- _____ 4. King George III issued the English Bill of Rights, which banned British settlement west of the Appalachian Mountains.
- _____ 5. The French built forts in the Hudson River Valley, which led to the conflict that started the French and Indian War.
- _____ 6. The fighting at Fort Duquesne was the first battle of what the colonists called the French and Indian War.
- _____ 7. The Treaty of Ohio, signed in 1763, ended the French and Indian War.
- _____ 8. The treaty signed by France and Britain gave Britain a claim to all French lands east of the Colorado River.

REVIEWING FACTS Fill in the blanks for the statements below.

1. _____, which had allied itself with France during the French and Indian War, had to give Florida to the British as part of the treaty that ended the war.
2. Washington surrendered his fort after his troops suffered many _____.
3. Chief _____ led a rebellion that began in May of 1763.
4. The turning point in the French and Indian War came when General _____ attacked Quebec.
5. In 1756 fighting between the French and British began in Europe, starting what would become known as the _____.
6. Britain gained _____ and all French lands east of the Mississippi River.