Are You Subject to Tax in Arizona?

You are subject to Arizona income tax on all income derived from Arizona sources. If you are in this state for a temporary or transitory purpose or did not live in Arizona but received income from sources within Arizona during 2003, you are subject to Arizona tax. Income from Arizona sources includes wages, rental income, business income, the sale of Arizona real estate, interest and dividends having a taxable or business situs in this state, or any other income from an Arizona source.

Do You Have to File?

Arizona Filing Requirements These rules apply to all Arizona taxpayers.
You must file if you are:	AND your gross income is at least:	OR your Arizona adjusted gross income is at least:
• Single	$15,000	$5,500
• Married filing jointly	$15,000	$11,000
• Married filing separately	$15,000	$5,500
• Head of household	$15,000	$5,500
If you are a nonresident, you must report income derived from Arizona sources.
To see if you have to file, figure your gross income the same as you would figure your gross income for federal income tax purposes. Then you should exclude income Arizona law does not tax.
You can find your Arizona adjusted gross income on line 20 of Arizona Form 140NR.

NOTE: Even if you do not have to file, you must still file a return to get a refund of any Arizona income tax withheld.

Do You Have to File if You Are an American Indian?

You must file if you meet the Arizona filing requirements unless all the following apply to you.

- You are an enrolled member of an Indian tribe.
- You live on the reservation established for that tribe.
- You earned all of your income on that reservation.

To find out more, see Arizona Department of Revenue Income Tax Ruling ITR 96-4.

Do You Have to File if you Are a Non-Indian or Non-Enrolled Indian Married to an American Indian?

You must file if you meet the Arizona filing requirements. For details on how to figure what income to report, see Arizona Department of Revenue Income Tax Ruling ITR 96-4.

Do You Have to File if You Are in The Military?

You must file if you meet the Arizona filing requirements.

If you are an Arizona resident, you must report all of your income, no matter where stationed. You must include your military pay. If you were an Arizona resident when you entered the service, you remain an Arizona resident, no matter where stationed, until you establish a new domicile.

If you are not an Arizona resident, but stationed in Arizona, the following applies to you.

- You are not subject to Arizona income tax on your military pay.
- You must report any other income you earn in Arizona. Use Form 140NR, Nonresident Personal Income Tax Return, to report this income.

To find out more, see Arizona Department of Revenue brochure, Pub 704, Taxpayers in the Military.

If You Included Your Child's Unearned Income on Your Federal Return, Does Your Child Have to File an Arizona Return?

In this case, the child should not file an Arizona return. The parent must include that same income in his or her Arizona taxable income.

Residency Status

If you are not sure if you are an Arizona resident for state income tax purposes, you should get Arizona Department of Revenue Income Tax Procedure ITP 92-1.

Residents

You are a resident of Arizona if your domicile is in Arizona. Domicile is the place where you have your permanent home. It is where you intend to return if you are living or working temporarily in another state or country. If you leave Arizona for a temporary period, you are still an Arizona resident while gone. A resident is subject to tax on all income no matter where the resident earns the income.

If you are a full year resident, you must file Form 140, Form 140A, or Form 140EZ.

Part-Year Residents

If you are a part-year resident, you must file Form 140PY,

Part-Year Resident Personal Income Tax Return.

You are a part-year resident if you did either of the following during 2003.

- You moved into Arizona with the intent of becoming a resident.
- You moved out of Arizona with the intent of giving up your Arizona residency.

Nonresidents

If you are a nonresident, you must file Form 140NR, Nonresident Personal Income Tax Return.

What if a Taxpayer Died?

If a taxpayer died before filing a return for 2003, the taxpayer's spouse or personal representative may have to file and sign a return for that taxpayer. If the deceased taxpayer did not have to file a return but had tax withheld, a return must be filed to get a refund.

The person who files the return should use the form the taxpayer would have used. If the department mailed the taxpayer a booklet, do not use the label. The person who files the return should print the word "deceased" after the decedent's name in the address section of the form. Also enter the date of death after the decedent's name.

If your spouse died in 2003 and you did not remarry in 2003, or if your spouse died in 2004 before filing a return for 2003, you may file a joint return. If your spouse died in 2003, the joint return should show your spouse's 2003 income before death, and your income for all of 2003. If your spouse died in 2004, before filing the 2003 return, the joint return should show all of your income and all of your spouse's income for 2003. Print "Filing as surviving spouse" in the area where you sign the return. If someone else is the personal representative, he or she must also sign the return.

 e-File the return to receive the refund in as little as 7 days.

Are Any Other Returns Required?

You may also have to file fiduciary income tax or estate tax returns. For details about filing a fiduciary income tax return, call the department at (602) 255-3381. For details about filing an estate tax return, call the department at (602) 542-4643.

Claiming a Refund For a Deceased Taxpayer

If you are claiming a refund, you must complete Form 131, Claim for Refund on Behalf of Deceased Taxpayer. Attach this form to the front of the return.

What Are the Filing Dates And Penalties?

When Should You File?

Your 2003 calendar year tax return is due no later than midnight, April 15, 2004. File your return as soon as you can after January 1, but no later than April 15, 2004.

If you are a fiscal year filer, your return is due on the 15th day of the fourth month following the close of your fiscal year.

What If You Cannot File On Time?

You may request an extension if you know you will not be able to file on time.

NOTE: An extension does not extend the time to pay your income tax. For details, see the instructions for Arizona Form 204.

To get a filing extension, you can either:

1. Apply for a state extension (Form 204). To apply for a state extension, file Arizona Form 204 by April 15. See Form 204 for details. You must attach a copy of the Arizona extension to the back of your return when you file. Also make sure that you check either box 82D or 82F on page 1 of the return. If you must make a payment, use Arizona Form 204.
2. You may use your federal extension (federal Form 4868 or 2688). File your Arizona return by the same due date. If you are filing under a federal extension, You do not have to attach a copy of your federal extension to your return, but make sure that you check either box 82D or box 82F on page 1 of the return.

When Should You File if You Are a Nonresident Alien?

You must file your Arizona tax return by April 15, even though your federal income tax return is due on June 15. If you want to file your Arizona return when you file your federal return, you may ask for an extension. See Form 204 for extension filing details.

What if You File or Pay Late?

If you file or pay late, the department can charge you interest and penalties on the amount you owe. If the U.S. Post Office postmarks your 2003 calendar year return by April 15, 2004, your return will not be late. You may also use certain private delivery services designated by the IRS to meet the "timely mailing as timely filed" rule.

Late Filing Penalty

If you file late, the department can charge you a late filing penalty. This penalty is 4½ percent of the tax required to be shown on the return for each month or fraction of a month the return is late. This penalty cannot exceed 25 percent of the tax found to be remaining due.

Late Payment Penalty

If you pay your tax late, the department can charge you a late payment penalty. This penalty is ½ of 1 percent (.005) of the amount shown as tax for each month or fraction of a month for which the failure continues. This penalty cannot exceed a total of 10 percent.

Extension Underpayment Penalty

If you file your return under an extension, you must pay 90 percent of the tax shown on your return by the return's original due date. If you do not pay this amount, the department can charge you a penalty. The department can also charge you this penalty if you do not attach a copy of the Arizona extension to your return when you file. This penalty is ½ of 1 percent (.005) of the tax not paid for each 30 day period or fraction of a 30 day period. The department charges this penalty from the original due date of the return until the date you pay the tax. This penalty cannot exceed 25 percent of the unpaid tax.

NOTE: If you are subject to two or more of the above penalties, the total cannot exceed 25 percent.

Interest

The department charges interest on any tax not paid by the due date. The department will charge you interest even if you have an extension. If you have an extension, the department will charge you interest from the original due date until the date you pay the tax. The Arizona interest rate is the same as the federal rate.

When Should You Amend a Return?

If you need to make changes to your return once you have filed, you should file Form 140X, Individual Amended Return. Do not file a new return for the year you are correcting. Generally, you have four years to amend a return to claim a refund.

If you amend your federal return for any year, you must also file an Arizona Form 140X for that year. You must file the Form 140X within 90 days of amending your federal return.

If the IRS makes a change to your federal taxable income for any year, you must report that change to Arizona. You may use one of the following two options to report this change.

Option 1

You may file a Form 140X for that year. If you choose this option, you must amend your Arizona return within 90 days of the change. Attach a complete copy of the federal notice to your Form 140X.

Option 2

You may file a copy of the final federal notice with the department within 90 days. If you choose this option, you must include a statement in which you must:

1. Request that the department recompute your tax; and
2. Indicate if you agree or disagree with the federal notice.

If you do not agree with the federal notice, you must also include any documents that show why you do not agree.

If you choose option 2, mail the federal notice and any other documents to:

Arizona Department of Revenue

Do You Need To Make Estimated Payments in 2004?

You must make Arizona estimated income tax payments during 2004 if:

As a nonresident, your Arizona gross income is that part of your federal adjusted gross income derived from Arizona sources. Your Arizona gross income is on line 15 of the 2003 Arizona Form 140NR.

See the worksheet for Form 140ES to figure how much your payments should be.

What if You Make Your Estimated Payments Late?

The department will charge you a penalty if you fail to make any required payments. The department will charge you a penalty if you make any of your required payments late.

For details, see Arizona Form 221.

Can You Make Estimated Payments if You Do Not Have to?

If you do not have to make Arizona estimated income tax payments, you may still choose to make them.

For details, see Arizona Form 140ES.

Enter the actual amounts shown on your 2003 federal income tax return in the FEDERAL column. Complete lines B4 through B14. Line B14 should equal the federal adjusted gross income shown on your 2003 federal return Form 1040, Form 1040A, or Form 1040EZ.

ARIZONA Column

Enter that portion of your federal income received from Arizona sources in the ARIZONA column. Such income includes wages earned in Arizona, Arizona rental and business income, and gains on the sale of Arizona property.

NOTE: *If you are filing a joint return with your full year resident spouse, you must enter your Arizona source income in the ARIZONA column and your spouse must enter all income from all sources in the ARIZONA column. For details, see Arizona Department of Revenue Income Tax Ruling ITR 95-2.*

The Tax Reform Act of 1986 limits the amount of losses that you may deduct from passive activities. A passive activity is one that involves the conduct of any trade or business in which the taxpayer does not materially participate.

As a nonresident, your Arizona gross income may include some of these losses. You may consider only those passive losses that arose from Arizona sources. Your 2003 Arizona gross income can include only Arizona source losses you used on your 2003 federal return.

The following line-by-line instructions apply to the ARIZONA column.

Line B4 - Wages, Salaries, Tips, etc.

Enter all amounts received for services performed in Arizona.

NOTE: Do not include active duty military pay unless the active duty military member is an Arizona resident filing a joint return with his or her Arizona nonresident spouse on Form 140NR.

Line B5 - Interest

If you have an Arizona business, enter only interest (including U.S. Government interest) you earned on accounts pledged as collateral. Also enter your distributive share of interest from a partnership doing business in Arizona or an S corporation doing business in Arizona. Do not include any other interest income even if it was earned in Arizona banks.

Line B11 - Other Income Reported on Your Federal Return

Enter other income from sources within Arizona. Do not include pension income or social security taxed by the federal government.

Net Operating Losses

Arizona does not have specific net operating loss provisions for individual taxpayers. Arizona conforms to the federal net operating loss provisions, including the carryback provisions.

As an Arizona nonresident, you may have had a loss from prior year Arizona business operations. However, the loss cannot offset this year's income unless the loss is a net operating loss for federal purposes. You can include the loss deduction in your Arizona gross income only to the extent included in your federal adjusted gross income. You cannot include any amount of that net operating loss that has already been deducted for Arizona purposes.

Enter the amount of net operating loss deduction included in your federal adjusted gross income that was derived from Arizona sources. Do not include any amount of the loss that has already been deducted for Arizona purposes. Also, do not include any loss for which you took a separate subtraction on an amended return filed for a prior tax year under the special net operating loss transition rule.

For information on deducting a net operating loss carryback, see Arizona Department of Revenue Income Tax Procedure ITP 99-1.

Line B12 - Total Income

Add lines B4 through B11 and enter the total.

Line B13 - Other Federal Adjustments

Line B15 - Arizona Income

Complete line B15 as instructed on the form.

Line B16 - Arizona Percentage

Divide line B15 by line B14 and enter the result. (Do not enter more than 100 percent.) This is the Arizona percentage of your total income.

Example:
Arizona Gross Income from line B15	Federal Adjusted Gross Income from line B14	Arizona percentage
$ 7,500	$ 30,000	$$7,500/30,000 = 25\%$

Determining Additions to IncomeLine C17 - Early Withdrawal of Arizona, County, City, or School Retirement System Contributions

If you meet all the following, you must enter an amount here.

1. You left your job with the State of Arizona or an Arizona county, city, or school district for reasons other than retirement.
2. When you left, you took out the contributions you had made to the retirement system while employed.
3. You deducted these contributions on your Arizona income tax returns that you filed in prior years.
4. You did not include these contributions in your federal adjusted gross income this year.

If you meet all these tests, you must report as income those contributions previously deducted on your prior year Arizona tax returns.

For more information, see Arizona Department of Revenue Income Tax Ruling ITR 93-7.

Line C18 - Bonus Depreciation Allowed Under I.R.C. § 168(k)

The federal Job Creation and Worker Assistance Act of 2002 (P.L. 107-147), which was signed by President Bush on March 9, 2002, allows businesses to claim a 30% bonus depreciation for qualified capital investments in property placed in service after September 10, 2001. The Jobs and Growth Tax Relief Reconciliation Act of 2003 (P.L. 108-27) which was signed by President Bush on May 28, 2003 allows businesses to claim a 50% bonus depreciation for qualified capital investments in property acquired after May 5, 2003. However, for Arizona income tax purposes, Arizona will not allow the bonus depreciation. Taxpayers that claim the bonus depreciation on their federal income tax return must add the amount claimed for federal purposes to their Arizona gross income. Enter the amount of such depreciation claimed on your 2003 federal income tax return only to the extent you included the depreciation in computing your Arizona gross income. If you make an entry here, also see the instructions for line D30, "Other Subtractions From Income".

Line C19 - Other Additions to Income

Use line C19 if any of the special circumstances below applies. Attach your own schedule to the back of your return, explaining any amounts entered on line C19.

A. Fiduciary Adjustment

A fiduciary uses Form 141AZ, Schedule K-1(NR) to report to you your share of the fiduciary adjustment from the trust or estate. Line 5 of Form 141AZ, Schedule K-1(NR) shows your share of the fiduciary adjustment from the estate or trust.

Depending on your situation, you may either add (line C19) or subtract (line D30) this amount.

If the amount reported on line 5 of your Arizona Form 141AZ, Schedule K-1(NR), is a positive number, enter that amount as an addition on line C19.

If the amount on line 5 is a negative number, enter that amount as a subtraction from income on line D30.

B. Agricultural Water Conservation System Credit

If you take this credit (Form 312), you cannot deduct any expenses for which you claim the credit. If you take this credit, enter the amount of such expenses that you deducted on your federal return.

C. Items Previously Deducted for Arizona Purposes

Arizona statutes prohibit a taxpayer from deducting items more than once. However, under the operation of former Arizona law (1989 and prior), you could deduct certain items in greater amounts for Arizona purposes than federal purposes. Investment interest and passive activity losses were such items. In some cases, you could have deducted such amounts in their entirety on the Arizona return. For federal purposes, the deduction for these items was limited, with the unused portions being carried forward and deducted in future years. Your Arizona return may include these previously deducted items because of the difference between the federal and former Arizona treatment. If your Arizona taxable income includes items previously deducted for Arizona purposes, you must add such amounts to your Arizona gross income.

D. Claim of Right Adjustment for Amounts Repaid in 2003

You must make an entry here if all of the following apply.

1. During 2003, you were required to repay amounts held under a claim of right.
2. The amount required to be repaid was subject to Arizona income tax in the year included in income.

3. The amount required to be repaid during 2003 was more than $3,000.
4. You took a deduction for the amount repaid on your 2003 federal income tax return.
5. The deduction taken on your federal income tax return is reflected in your Arizona taxable income.

If the above apply, enter the amount deducted on your federal income tax return which is reflected in your Arizona taxable income.

For more information on the Arizona claim of right provisions, see Arizona Department of Revenue Individual Income Tax Procedure ITP 95-1.

E. Claim of Right Adjustment for Amounts Repaid in Prior Taxable Years

You must make an entry here if all of the following apply.

1. During a year prior to 2003 you were required to repay income held under a claim of right.
2. You computed your tax for that prior year under Arizona's claim of right provisions.
3. A net operating loss or capital loss was established due to the repayment made in the prior year.
4. You are entitled to take that net operating loss or capital loss carryover into account when computing your 2003 Arizona taxable income.
5. The amount of the loss carryover included in your Arizona gross income is more than the amount allowed to be taken into account for Arizona purposes.

Enter the amount by which the loss carryover included in your Arizona gross income is more than the amount allowed for the taxable year under Arizona law.

F. Addition to S Corporation Income Due to Credits Claimed

Shareholders of an S corporation who claim a credit passed through from an S corporation must make an addition to income for the amount of expenses disallowed by reason of claiming the credit.

An S corporation that passes the following credits through to its shareholders must notify each shareholder of his or her pro rata share of the adjustment. You must enter an amount on this line when claiming any of the following credits.

- Agricultural water conservation system credit
- Defense contracting credits
- Environmental technology facility credit
- Pollution control credit
- Recycling equipment credit
- Credit for solar hot water heater plumbing stub outs and electric vehicle recharge outlets
- Credit for employment of TANF recipients
- Credit for agricultural pollution control equipment
- Credit for taxpayers participating in agricultural preservation district

G. Solar Hot Water Heater Plumbing Stub Out And Electric Vehicle Recharge Outlet Expenses

If you take a credit for installing solar hot water heater plumbing stub outs or electric vehicle recharge outlets in a dwelling you constructed, you cannot deduct any expenses for which you claim the credit. If you take this credit, enter the amount of such expenses that you deducted on your federal return.

H. Wage Expense for Employers of TANF Recipients

If you take a credit for employing TANF recipients, you cannot deduct any wage expense for which you claim the credit. If you take this credit, enter the amount of such expenses that you deducted on your federal return.

I. Amounts Deducted for Conveying Ownership or Development Rights of Property to an Agricultural Preservation District

If you take a credit for taxpayers participating in agricultural preservation district, you cannot deduct any amounts for conveying ownership or development rights of property to an agricultural district. If you take this credit, enter the amount of such deductions for which you claim a credit.

J. I.R.C. § 179 Expense in Excess of Allowable Amount

The Jobs and Growth Tax Relief Reconciliation Act of 2003 (P.L. 108-27), which President Bush signed on May 28, 2003, amended I.R.C. § 179 to increase the maximum dollar amount of the deduction from $25,000 to $100,000 and to increase the investment limitation from $200,000 to $400,000. The bill also allows certain off-the-shelf computer software that is depreciable over 3 years under I.R.C. § 168(f)(1)(A) to be expensed under I.R.C. § 179. However, Arizona has not adopted the changes made by P.L. 108-27. Therefore, for Arizona income tax purposes, you must figure the I.R.C. § 179 expense deduction and any related depreciation under the Internal Revenue Code in effect on January 1, 2003, rather than under P.L. 108-27.

The easiest way to compute your I.R.C. § 179 expense under the Internal Revenue Code in effect on January 1, 2003, is to complete a modified 2002 federal Form 4562. Modify the 2002 federal Form 4562 by changing the amount on line 1 from $24,000 to $25,000 (unless a higher amount is allowed for qualified zone property).

When completing the modified 2002 federal Form 4562:

1. Be sure to compute depreciation for assets for which you cannot take an I.R.C. § 179 expense deduction. However, do not compute depreciation for any asset owned by a flow-through entity (like a partnership or S corporation). Compute depreciation, using the depreciation method for that class of property.
2. If you have I.R.C. § 179 expense from a flow-through entity that does business in Arizona, that entity will give you a modified I.R.C. § 179 expense amount to use for Arizona purposes. Use that amount when completing the modified 2002 federal Form 4562.

Once you have completed the modified 2002 federal Form 4562 do the following:

1. Determine what portion of I.R.C. § 179 expense figured under P.L. 108-27 is attributable to income from Arizona sources.
2. Determine what portion of I.R.C. § 179 expense figured under the Internal Revenue Code in effect on January 1, 2003 is attributable to income from Arizona sources.
3. Compare the amount in number 1 to the amount in number 2. If the amount in number 1 is the same as the amount in number 2, do not enter any amount on line C19. If the amount in number 2 is less than the amount in number 1, subtract the amount in number 2 from the amount in number 1. Enter the difference as an addition to income on line C19.
4. If you computed depreciation for an asset for which I.R.C. § 179 expense deduction was not allowed, see the instructions for line D30.

K. Medical Savings Account (MSA) Distributions

For information on Arizona's MSA provisions, see the department's MSA brochure, Pub 542.

You must add amounts received from an MSA here if any of the following apply.

1 - You Withdrew Funds From Your MSA For Other Than Qualified Expenses

You must make an entry here if all of the following apply.

1. You have an MSA that qualifies as an MSA under Arizona law.
2. If you are an employee, your high deductible health coverage is provided by your Arizona employer. If you are self employed, your high deductible health coverage is provided by your Arizona business.
3. You withdrew money from your MSA during 2003.
4. You did not use the amount withdrawn to pay qualified medical expenses.
5. You did not have to include the withdrawal as income on your federal income tax return.

Enter the amount withdrawn.

2 - Deceased Account Holder Where The Named Beneficiary is Not the Decedent's Surviving Spouse

You must make an entry here if all of the following apply:

1. The account holder died during the year.
2. The account holder's MSA qualified as an MSA under Arizona law.
3. If the account holder was an employee, the account holder's high deductible health coverage was provided by his or her Arizona employer. If the account holder was self employed, the account holder's high deductible health coverage was provided by his or her Arizona business.
4. You are the named beneficiary of the decedent's MSA.
5. You are not the decedent's surviving spouse.

6. You did not have to include the value of the MSA as income on your federal income tax return.

In this case, the MSA ceased to be an MSA. Enter the fair market value of the MSA as of the date of death, less the amount of MSA funds used within one year of the date of death, to pay the decedent's qualified medical expenses. If the MSA has not paid all of the decedent's medical expenses by the time you file this return, reduce the fair market value by only those expenses the MSA paid. If the MSA pays additional expenses for the decedent after you file, you may file an amended return to further reduce the fair market value of the MSA.

3 - Decedent's Final Return and no Named MSA Beneficiary

Make an entry here if all of the following apply.

1. The account holder died during the year.
2. The account holder's MSA qualified as an MSA under Arizona law.
3. If the account holder was an employee, the account holder's high deductible health coverage was provided by his or her Arizona employer. If the account holder was self employed, the account holder's high deductible health coverage was provided by his or her Arizona business.
4. There is no named MSA beneficiary.
5. This is the decedent's final return.
6. The value of the MSA did not have to be included on the decedent's final federal income tax return.

In this case, the MSA ceases to be an MSA. Enter the fair market value of the MSA as of the date of death. This rule applies in all cases in which there is no named beneficiary, even if the surviving spouse ultimately obtains the right to the MSA assets.

NOTE: The following are not withdrawals. Do not enter any of the following:

- Amounts from the MSA used to pay qualified medical expenses
- A qualified return of excess contributions
- A qualified rollover
- The fair market value of an MSA received by a surviving spouse who was the deceased account holder's named beneficiary

For more information about the above items, see the department's MSA brochure, Pub 542.

L. Other Adjustments

Other special adjustments may be necessary. You may need to make an addition for depreciation or amortization. You may also need to make an addition if you claimed certain tax credits. Call one of the numbers listed on the back cover if any of the following apply.

- You are a qualified defense contractor that elected to amortize under Arizona Revised Statutes section 43-1024.

- You sold or disposed of property that was held for the production of income and your basis was computed under the Arizona Income Tax Act of 1954.
- You are still depreciating or amortizing a child care facility for which you claimed a state credit.
- You claimed the environmental technology facility credit.
- You claimed the pollution control credit.
- You claimed the recycling equipment credit.
- You claimed the credit for agricultural pollution control equipment.
- You elected to amortize the basis of a pollution control device or the cost of a child care facility under Arizona law in effect before 1990. You are still deducting amortization or depreciation for that device or facility on your federal income tax return.

Line C20 - Total Additions

Add lines C17 through C19. Enter the total on line C20 and on the front of your return, line 16.

Determining Subtractions From Income

You may only subtract those items for which statutory authority exists. Without such authority you cannot take a subtraction. If you have any questions concerning subtractions from income, call one of the numbers listed on the back cover.

NOTE: You may not subtract any amount which is allocable to income excluded from your Arizona income.

D21 - Exemption: Age 65 or Over

Multiply the number in box 8 on the front of your return by $2,100 and enter the result.

Line D22 - Exemption: Blind

Multiply the number in box 9 on the front of your return by $1,500 and enter the result.

Line D23 - Exemption: Dependents

Multiply the number in box 10 on the front of your return by $2,300 and enter the result.

Line D24 - Total

Add lines D21 through D23 and enter the total.

Line D25 - Prorated Exemptions

Multiply the amount on line D24 by your Arizona percentage from line B16 and enter the result.

NOTE Active Duty Military Personnel Only: If you were on active duty in Arizona during 2003, but you were a resident of another state, you must prorate these exemptions.

Line D26 - Interest on U.S. Obligations

Enter the amount of interest income from U.S. Government obligations included as income on line B5 in the ARIZONA column. U.S. Government obligations include obligations such as savings bonds and treasury bills. You must reduce this subtraction by any interest or other related expenses incurred to purchase or carry the obligation. Reduce the subtraction only by the amount of such expenses included in your Arizona gross income.

Line D27 - Arizona Lottery Winnings

You may subtract all winnings received in 2003 related to an Arizona lottery prize won before March 22, 1983. You may subtract up to $5,000 of winnings received in 2003 for Arizona lottery prizes won after March 21, 1983. Only subtract those Arizona lottery winnings that you included on line B11 in the ARIZONA column and reported on your federal income tax return.

If you subtract Arizona lottery winnings here, you may have to adjust the amount of gambling losses claimed as an itemized deduction.

Line D28 - Agricultural Crops Given to Arizona Charitable Organizations

Arizona law allows a subtraction for qualified crop gifts made during 2003 to one or more charitable organizations. To take this subtraction, you must be engaged in the business of farming or processing agricultural crops. The crop must be grown in Arizona. You must make your gift to a charitable organization located in Arizona that is exempt from Arizona income tax.

The subtraction is the greater of 80 percent of the wholesale market price or 80 percent of the most recent sale price for the contributed crop.

To determine if your crop gift qualifies for this subtraction, see Arizona Department of Revenue Income Tax Procedure ITP 93-2.

Line D29 - Construction of an Energy Efficient Residence

For taxable years beginning from and after December 31, 2001, through December 31, 2010, Arizona law allows a subtraction for an energy efficient residence. The subtraction is allowed for selling one or more new energy efficient residences located in Arizona. The subtraction is equal to 5% of the sales price excluding commissions, taxes, interest, points, and other brokerage, finance and escrow charges. The subtraction cannot exceed $5,000 for each new qualifying residence.

The taxpayer that builds the new residence may claim the subtraction when the taxpayer first sells the residence. However, the seller may elect to transfer the subtraction to the buyer.

For more information, see Arizona Department of Revenue Income Tax Procedure ITP 02-1.

Enter the number of residences for which you are claiming a subtraction on line D29a, then enter the amount of the subtraction on line D29. Also enter the number on line D29a on Form 140NR, page 1, line 191.

Line D30 - Other Subtractions

Use line D30 if any of the following special circumstances apply. Attach your own schedule to the back of the return, explaining any amounts entered here.

A. Certain Wages of American Indians

Enrolled members of American Indian tribes may subtract wages earned while living and working on their tribe's reservation. You can subtract only those amounts that you included on line B4, ARIZONA column. The federal government must recognize these tribes.

For more information, see Arizona Department of Revenue Income Tax Ruling ITR 96-4.

B. Adoption Expenses

You may take this subtraction only in the year the final adoption order is granted.

Enter the lesser of the total of the following adoption expenses or $3,000.

When figuring your subtraction, you may include expenses incurred in prior years.

The following expenses are qualified adoption expenses.

1. Nonreimbursed medical and hospital costs.
2. Adoption counseling.
3. Legal and agency fees.
4. Other nonrecurring costs of adoption.

If filing separately, you may take the entire subtraction, or you may divide the subtraction with your spouse. However, the total subtraction taken by both you and your spouse cannot exceed $3,000.

C. Qualified Wood Stove, Wood Fireplace, or Gas Fired Fireplace

Arizona law provides a subtraction for converting an existing fireplace to a qualified wood stove, qualified wood fireplace, or gas fired fireplace and non-optional equipment directly related to its operation. You may subtract up to $500 of the costs incurred for converting an existing fireplace to a qualified wood stove, qualified wood fireplace, or gas fired fireplace on your property located in Arizona. When you figure your subtraction, do not include taxes, interest, or other finance charges.

A qualified wood stove or a qualified wood fireplace is a residential wood heater that was manufactured on or after July 1, 1990, or sold at retail on or after July 1, 1992. The residential wood heater must also meet the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency's July 1990 particulate emissions standards.

A qualified gas fired fireplace is any device that burns natural or liquefied petroleum gas as its fuel through a burner system that is permanently installed in the fireplace. The conversion of an existing wood burning fireplace to noncombustible gas logs that are permanently installed in the fireplace also qualifies as a gas fired fireplace.

D. Claim of Right Adjustment for Amounts Repaid in Prior Taxable Years

You must make an entry here if all of the following apply.

1. During a year prior to 2003 you were required to repay income held under a claim of right.

2. The amount required to be repaid was subject to Arizona income tax in the year included in income.
3. You computed your tax for that prior year under Arizona's claim of right provisions.
4. A net operating loss or capital loss was established due to the repayment made in the prior year.
5. You are entitled to take that net operating loss or capital loss carryover into account when computing your 2003 Arizona taxable income.
6. The amount of the loss carryover allowed to be taken into account for Arizona purposes is more than the amount included in your Arizona gross income.

Enter the amount by which the loss carryover allowed for the taxable year under Arizona law is more than the amount included in your Arizona gross income.

For more information on the Arizona claim of right provisions, see Arizona Department of Revenue Individual Income Tax Procedure ITP 95-1.

E. Deposits Made Into Your MSA

If you have an MSA, you may be able to subtract deposits made into that MSA. Make an entry here if all of the following apply.

1. You have an MSA that qualifies as an MSA under Arizona law, but not federal law.
2. If you are an employee, your high deductible health coverage is provided by your Arizona employer. If you are self employed, your high deductible health coverage is provided by your Arizona business.
3. Either you or your employer made deposits into that MSA during the tax year.
4. You had to include the deposits in income on your federal income tax return.

You can subtract these deposits only to the extent included in your Arizona gross income. Enter these contributions here.

F. Employer Contributions Made to Employee MSAs

If you are an employer, you may subtract the amount contributed to your employees' MSAs that are established under Arizona law. You can subtract these contributions only to the extent not deductible for federal income tax purposes. You can subtract these contributions only to the extent included in your Arizona gross income. Enter these contributions here.

G. Certain Expenses Not Allowed for Federal Purposes

You may subtract some expenses that you cannot deduct on your federal return when you claim certain federal tax credits. These federal tax credits are:

- the federal work opportunity credit;
- the empowerment zone employment credit;
- the credit for employer-paid social security taxes on employee cash tips;
- the Indian employment credit.

If you received any of the above federal tax credits for 2003, enter the portion of wages or salaries attributable to Arizona source income that you paid or incurred during the taxable year that is equal to the amount of those federal tax credits you received.

H. Adjustment for Bonus Depreciation Allowed Under I.R.C. § 168(k) Added to Arizona Gross Income.

30% Bonus Depreciation

If you added the 30% special depreciation allowed under I.R.C. § 168(k) to Arizona gross income, you may adjust the amount of regular annual depreciation you claimed on your federal return for that asset. You may subtract an amount equal to three-sevenths of the amount of regular annual depreciation you claimed on your federal return for that asset.

For example: Bob places a five-year useful life asset costing $9,000 in service (used in his Arizona business) on January 1, 2003 and deducts $2,700 ($$9,000 \times 30\%$) of special depreciation and $1,260 [$($9,000 - $2,700) \times 20\%$] of regular annual depreciation on his federal return. On his Arizona return, Bob must add $2,700 to his Arizona income on line C18, but Bob may then take a subtraction of $540. Bob figures the amount to subtract on his Arizona return as follows:

Bob multiplies the amount of regular annual depreciation he claimed on his federal return for this asset by three-sevenths ($$1,260 \times 3/7 = \540).

Bob should compute this subtraction for each year that he deducts regular depreciation for this asset on his federal return.

50% Bonus Depreciation

If you added the 50% special depreciation allowed under I.R.C. § 168(k) to Arizona gross income, you may adjust the amount of regular annual depreciation you claimed on your federal return for that asset. You may subtract an amount equal to the amount of regular annual depreciation you claimed on your federal return for that asset.

For example: Bob places a five-year useful life asset costing $9,000 in service on July 1, 2003 and deducts $4,500 ($$9,000 \times 50\%$) of special depreciation and $450 ($$9,000 - $4,500 \times 20\%$ divided by 2, using the half-year convention) of regular annual depreciation on his federal return. On his Arizona return, Bob must add the $4,500 of special depreciation to his Arizona income (on line C18), but Bob may then take a subtraction of $450.

Bob should take a subtraction for each year that he deducts regular depreciation for this asset on his federal return.

I. Depreciation Adjustment for Property Sold or Otherwise Disposed of During the Taxable Year

If you sold or otherwise disposed of property that you acquired and put into service after September 10, 2001, you may have an additional subtraction for Arizona purposes if all of the following apply to you.

1. In the year of acquisition, you made an addition to income for bonus depreciation claimed on your federal return.
2. You sold or otherwise disposed of that property during the taxable year.

3. The depreciation allowed for Arizona purposes (for all taxable years for which depreciation was claimed) was less than what would have been allowed under I.R.C. § 167(a) without regard to I.R.C. § 168(k).

If 1 through 3 above apply to you, calculate the amount of depreciation you would have been allowed had you chosen not to claim bonus depreciation. If this amount is greater than the amount of depreciation you have actually claimed for this asset on your Arizona returns, you may claim a subtraction for the difference.

NOTE: This is not an adjustment for the difference in basis caused by the effect of bonus depreciation allowed on the federal return.

J. Fiduciary Adjustment

If the amount on Form 141AZ, Schedule K-1(NR), line 5 is a negative number, enter that amount as a subtraction from income on line D30.

K. Depreciation for Property for Which You Recomputed I.R.C. § 179 Expense Under the Internal Revenue Code in Effect on January 1, 2003.

If you had to refigure the amount of I.R.C. § 179 expense allowed on the Arizona return under the Internal Revenue Code in effect on January 1, 2003 and you had to compute depreciation (on a modified 2002 federal Form 4562) for assets for which I.R.C. § 179 expense was recomputed, enter that depreciation here. Enter the amount of depreciation attributable to income from Arizona sources. If you are a shareholder in an S corporation that does business in Arizona and you received a statement from the S corporation specifying an amount of depreciation you may subtract on your Arizona nonresident return, enter that amount here. Enter only the amount of depreciation attributable to income from Arizona sources.

L. Other Adjustments

Other special adjustments may be necessary. Call one of the numbers listed on the back cover if any of the following apply.

- You are a qualified defense contractor that elected to amortize under Arizona Revised Statutes section 43-1024.
- You sold or disposed of property that was held for the production of income subject to Arizona tax and your basis was computed under the Arizona Income Tax Act of 1954.
- You deferred exploration expenses determined under Internal Revenue Code section 617 in a taxable year ending before January 1, 1990, and you have not previously taken a subtraction for those expenses.

Line D31 - Total Subtractions

Add lines D25 through D30. Enter the total here and on the front of your return on line 19.

Different Last Names

If you filed an Arizona tax return within the past four years with a different last name, enter your prior last name(s), in Part E.

Totaling Your Income

Line 14 - Federal Adjusted Gross Income

You must complete your federal return before completing your Arizona return. You must complete a 2003 federal return to determine your federal adjusted gross income even if not filing a federal return.

Arizona uses federal adjusted gross income as a starting point to determine Arizona taxable income. Enter your federal adjusted gross income from page 2, line B14.

Line 15 - Arizona Income

Enter your Arizona income from page 2, line B15, of your return.

Line 16 - Additions to Income

Enter the amount from page 2, line C20, of your return.

Line 18 - Elective Subtraction of Federal Retirement Contributions

This line applies only to individuals who were civilian employees of the United States Government during 2003. The Court of Appeals held that Arizona's taxing scheme for years after 1990 did discriminate against federal employees by taxing their retirement plan contributions but not those of state and local employees. The department has appealed that determination to the Arizona Supreme Court, so the issue is not yet final.

Line 18 is provided to alert you to a remedy available to you under Arizona law. On your 2003 return, you have two options if you had contributions made from income earned in Arizona.

Option #1

You may subtract the amount of contributions made to your federal retirement plan during 2003. Enter on line 18 the amount of such contributions included in your 2003 Arizona income. If you choose this option and the courts ultimately decide that it is legal for the State of Arizona to tax your retirement contributions, you will owe additional tax and accrued interest. (Also, see Protective Claim for Refund below.)

Option #2

You may choose to ignore line 18. You may instead file the protective claim form. This form is in this instruction booklet. Under this option you will pay tax on your contributions to the federal retirement plan. You will also protect your rights to a credit or refund of this tax if the courts ultimately decide that is appropriate. The state will pay interest in this event. The courts have been asked to award up to 20% of your refund to the attorneys in the case.

Protective Claim for Refund

You can find this form at the bottom of the page titled Notice to Current And Former Federal Civilian Employees. If you were a civilian employee of the United States government at any time during the years 1999 through 2003, you should complete this claim form. Submitting this claim form will protect your rights to tax relief for the years you were so employed. If you choose option #2 for 2003, you should also include 2003 in your claim. Claims for 1999 must be postmarked by April 15, 2004, to be valid. If you previously filed a protective claim for 1999 through 2002, only include 2003 on the claim form filed for 2003.

Please do not include the protective claim with your 2003 income tax return. Mail the claim form separately to the address indicated to ensure proper handling.

Line 19 - Subtractions From Income

Enter the amount from page 2, line D31, of your return.

Figuring Your Arizona Tax

Line 21 - Itemized or Standard Deductions

You must decide whether to take the standard deduction or to itemize your deductions. Your Arizona income tax will be less if you take the larger of your standard deduction or your itemized deduction.

 When you e-File, the software completes the math for you.

Your Standard Deduction

Tax Tip: The standard deduction is not prorated.

If you take the standard deduction, check box 21S.

If your filing status is:	Your standard deduction is:
• Single	$ 4,050
• Married filing separately	$ 4,050
• Married filing jointly	$ 8,100
• Head of household	$ 8,100

Your Itemized Deduction

You may itemize deductions on your Arizona return even if you do not itemize deductions on your federal return. The itemized deductions allowed for Arizona purposes are those itemized deductions that are allowable under the Internal Revenue Code. As an Arizona nonresident, you must prorate these deductions by the percentage which your Arizona gross income is of your federal adjusted gross income.

To determine your Arizona itemized deductions, complete a federal Form 1040, Schedule A. Then complete the Arizona Form 140NR, Schedule A. If you itemize deductions, check box 21I.

NOTE: If you itemize, you must attach a copy of your federal Schedule A and your Arizona Schedule A(NR) to your Arizona return.

Line 22 - Personal Exemptions

Your personal exemption depends on your filing status. See Personal Exemption Chart. Then complete the Personal Exemption Worksheet.

NOTE For Active Duty Military Personnel Only: If you were on active duty in Arizona during 2003, but were a resident of another state, do not prorate your personal exemption. You are allowed a 100 percent deduction for the personal exemption (to include spouse).

Personal Exemption Chart
If you checked filing status:	Personal Exemption before proration:
• Single (Box 7)	$2,100
• Married filing joint return (Box 4) and claiming no dependents (Box 10)	$4,200

Personal Exemption Worksheet
1. Amount from personal exemption chart. If you were an active duty military member during 2003, skip lines 2 and 3 and enter this amount on Form 140NR, page 1, line 22. All other taxpayers complete lines 2 and 3.	$
2. Enter your Arizona percentage from Form 140NR, page 2, line B16.	%
3. Multiply line 1 by the percent on line 2. Enter the result here and on Form 140NR, page 1, line 22.	$

A married couple who does not claim any dependents may take one personal exemption of $4,200 (prior to prorating). If the husband and wife file separate returns, either spouse may (prior to prorating) take the entire $4,200 exemption, or the spouses may divide the $4,200 (prior to prorating) between them. You and your spouse must complete Form 202 if either you or your spouse claim a personal exemption of more than $2,100 (prior to prorating). If you and your spouse do not complete Form 202, you may (prior to prorating) take an exemption of only $2,100 (one-half of the total $4,200).

A married couple who claims at least one dependent may take one personal exemption of $6,300 (prior to prorating). If the husband and wife file separate returns, either spouse may (prior to prorating) take the entire $6,300 exemption, or the spouses may divide the $6,300 between them. You and your spouse must complete Form 202 if either you or your spouse claim a personal exemption of more than $3,150 (prior to prorating). If you and your spouse do not complete Form 202, you may (prior to prorating) take an exemption of only $3,150 (one-half of the total $6,300).

If you are a married person who qualifies to file as a head of household, you may take the entire $6,300 (prior to prorating) personal exemption or you may divide the exemption with your spouse. You and your spouse must complete Form 202 if either you or your spouse claim a personal exemption of more than $3,150 (prior to prorating). If you and your spouse do not complete Form 202 you may take an exemption of only $3,150 (prior to prorating) (one-half of the total $6,300).

The spouse who claims more than one-half of the total personal exemption (prior to prorating) must attach the original Form 202 to his or her return. The spouse who claims less than one-half of the total personal exemption (prior to prorating) must attach a copy of the completed Form 202 to his or her return.

Figuring Your Refund or Tax Due

Line 55- Refund

 You can get your refund in as little as 7 days when you e-File and use direct deposit.

Subtract line 54 from line 42. Enter your refund on line 55 and skip line 56.

If you owe money to any state agency and certain federal agencies, your refund may go to pay some of the debt. If so, the department will let you know by letter.

Tax Tip: If you change your address before you get your refund, let the department know. Write to: Refund Desk, Arizona Department of Revenue, 1600 W Monroe, Phoenix AZ 85007. Include your social security number in your letter.

Direct Deposit of Refund

Complete the direct deposit line if you want us to directly deposit the amount shown on line 55 into your account at a bank or other financial institution (such as a mutual fund, brokerage firm or credit union) instead of sending you a check.

Why Use Direct Deposit?

- You will get your refund fast – even faster if you e-file!
- Payment is more secure since there is no check to get lost.
- It is more convenient. No trip to the bank to deposit your check.
- Saves tax dollars. A refund by direct deposit costs less to process than a check.

Tax Tip: You can check with your financial institution to make sure your deposit will be accepted and to get the correct routing and account numbers. The department is not responsible for a lost refund if you enter the wrong account information.

If you file a joint return and fill in the direct deposit line, you are appointing your spouse as an agent to receive the refund. This appointment cannot be changed later.

NOTE: The department is not responsible if a financial institution rejects a direct deposit. If the direct deposit is rejected, a check will be sent instead.

Routing Number

The routing number must be 9 digits. The first 2 digits must be 01 through 12 or 21 through 32. Otherwise, the direct deposit will be rejected and a check sent instead. On the sample check below, the routing number is 250250025.

Your check may state that it is payable through a financial institution different from the one at which you have your checking account. If so, do not use the routing number on that check. Instead, contact your financial institution for the correct routing number to enter here.

Account Number

The account number can be up to 17 characters (both numbers and letters). Include hyphens but omit spaces and special symbols. Enter the number from left to right and leave any unused boxes blank. On the sample check below, the account number is 20202086. Be sure not to include the check number.

Add lines 39 and 54. Enter the amount you owe on line 56. If you are making voluntary donations on lines 44 through 50 in excess of your overpayment, enter the difference on line 56.

Make your check payable to Arizona Department of Revenue. Write your social security number on the front of your check or money order. Enclose your check or money order with your return, but do not attach it to the return.

The department cannot accept checks or money orders in foreign currency. You must make payment in U.S. dollars.

Installment Payments

If you cannot pay the full amount shown on line 56 when you file, you may ask to make monthly installment payments. To make this request, wait until the department processes your return and sends you an initial billing notice. You will receive an installment agreement request with the initial billing notice.

If you cannot pay the full amount shown on line 56, you will be charged interest and may be charged a late payment penalty on the tax not paid by April 15, 2004. To limit the interest and penalty charges, pay as much of the tax as possible when you file.

Sign Your Return

You must sign your return. If married filing a joint return, both you and your spouse must sign even if only one had income. Form 140NR is not considered a valid return unless you sign it. The department cannot send a refund check without proper signatures on the return.

Instructions Before Mailing

 - Be sure you enter your home telephone number in the space provided on the front of your return. If your daytime telephone number is not the same as your home number, also enter a daytime number.

6. If you itemize, be sure to attach Arizona Schedule A(NR) and a copy of the federal Schedule A.

Filing Your Return

Before you mail your return, make a copy of your return. Also make a copy of any schedules that you are sending in with your return. Keep the copies for your records. Be sure that you file the original and not a copy.

To mail your return, use the envelope that came in your booklet.

To avoid delays, please use separate envelopes for each return.

Where Should I File My Return?

Forget about the mail and the late night run to the post office – e-File from the comfort of home.

If you are expecting a refund, or owe no tax, or owe tax but are not sending a payment, use the yellow address label attached to the envelope. If the envelope or label is missing, send the return to: Arizona Department of Revenue, PO Box 52138, Phoenix AZ 85072-2138.

If you are sending a payment with this return, use the white address label attached to the envelope. If the envelope or label is missing, send the return to: Arizona Department of Revenue, PO Box 52016, Phoenix AZ 85072-2016.

Make sure you put enough postage on the envelope.

With e-File, you do not have to worry if there is enough postage on the envelope. You even get notice that we received your return.

The U.S. Post Office must postmark your return or extension request by midnight April 15. A postage meter postmark will not qualify as a timely postmark. Only a postmark from the U.S. Post Office will qualify. You may also use certain private delivery services designated by the IRS to meet the “timely mailing as timely filed” rule.

How Long To Keep Your Return

Keep your records as long as they are important for any Arizona tax law. Keep all records that support your income and deductions for a tax year until the period of limitations expires for the return for that tax year. A period of limitations is the limited time after which no legal action can be brought. Usually, this is four years from the date the return was due or filed.

In some cases, the limitation period is longer than four years. The period is six years from when you file a return if you underreport the income shown on that return by more than 25 percent. The department can bring an action at any time if a return is false or fraudulent, or you do not file a return.

Keep records that establish the basis of property for a period longer than four years. Also keep net operating loss records back to the date you incurred the loss. To find out more about what records you should keep, get federal Publication 552.

When To Expect Your Refund

Expect your refund in the mail within 8 weeks of the date you filed. If you have not received your refund by that time, contact one of the numbers listed on the back cover. Before you call, be sure to have a copy of your 2003 tax return available because you will need to know the first social security number shown on your return, the filing status, your 5 digit zip code and the exact whole-dollar amount of your refund.

Calling the Department

Your tax information on file with the department is confidential. If you want the department to discuss your tax matters with someone other than yourself, you must authorize the department to release confidential information to that person. You may use Form 285 to authorize the department to release confidential information to your appointee. See Form 285 for details.
