2004 INSTRUCTIONS FOR FILING RI-1040NR

(FOR RHODE ISLAND NONRESIDENTS OR PART-YEAR RESIDENTS FILING FORM RI-1040NR)

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

IMPORTANT

Read the instructions carefully. For your convenience we have provided step-by-step instructions which will aid you in completing your return. Complete your federal income tax return first. It is the basis for preparing your Rhode Island tax return. The Rhode Island tax is based on your federal taxable income. Fill out the RI-1040NR completely. Attach your withholding statement(s). This is the statement of taxes withheld, which is furnished to you by your employer. If the statement is not available, please explain. Be sure to sign your return. File early (Deadline is April 15, 2005).

These instructions are for the use of non-resident and part-year resident taxpayers only. Resident taxpayers will file their individual income tax returns on Form RI-1040. Resident forms and instructions are available upon request at either local banks in Rhode Island or at the Rhode Island Division of Taxation.

DEFINITION OF RESIDENT AND NONRESIDENT

RESIDENT: a person (a) who is domiciled in the State of Rhode Island or (b) who, even though domiciled outside Rhode Island, maintains a permanent place of abode within the state and spends a total of more than 183 days of the taxable year within the state.

NONRESIDENT: any person not coming within the definition of a resident. For purposes of the above definition, domicile is found to be a place an individual regards as his or her permanent home – the place to which he or she intends to return after a period of absence. A domicile, once established, continues until a new fixed and permanent home is acquired. No change of domicile results from moving to a new location if the intention is to remain only for a limited time even if it is for a relatively long duration. For a married couple, normally both individuals have the same domicile. Any person asserting a change in domicile must show:
an intent to abandon the former domicile, an intent to acquire a new domicile and actual physical presence in a new domicile.

INCOME OF A NONRESIDENT SUBJECT TO TAX

A nonresident is subject to tax on all items included in his or her total federal income (including his or her distributive share of partnership income or gain and his or her share of estate or trust income or gain) which are derived from or connected with Rhode Island sources as follows:

From real or tangible personal property located in the state.

From a business, trade, profession or occupation carried on in the state.

From services performed in the state.

Winnings and prizes from RI lottery and pari-mutual betting events in this state.

A nonresident is not subject to tax on the following classes of income even though included in total federal income:

Annuities, interest, dividends or gains from the sale or exchange of intangible personal property unless they are part of the income from any business, trade, profession or occupation carried on in this state by the nonresident taxpayer.

Compensation received for active service in the military forces of the United States.

INCOME TERMS DEFINED

In these instructions "total federal income" is federal adjusted gross income as defined in the United States Internal Revenue Code (IRC) and applicable regulations. "Total income from Rhode Island sources" is that portion of your total federal income derived from or connected with Rhode Island sources. "Total Rhode Island income" is your total income from Rhode Island sources after making the additions and subtractions described later in these instructions. Total Rhode Island income of a part-year resident includes total income from Rhode Island sources for the entire year plus other income received during period of residence in Rhode Island after making the additions and subtractions described later in these instructions.

WHO MUST FILE A RETURN

Every nonresident individual required by the laws of the United States to file a federal income tax return who has income derived from or connected with Rhode Island sources must file a Rhode Island individual income tax return. Nonresidents should complete page 5, schedule III.

Every part-year individual who was a resident for a period of less than 12 months is required to file a Rhode Island return if he or she is required to file a federal return. Part-year residents should complete page 7, schedule V.

Nonresident and part-year resident individuals who are not required to file a federal income tax return may be required to file a Rhode Island individual income tax return if he or she has Rhode Island modifications increasing their Federal Adjusted Gross income.

JOINT AND SEPARATE RETURNS

JOINT RETURNS: Generally, if a husband and wife file a joint federal income tax return they also must file a joint Rhode Island income tax return.

However, if either the husband or wife is a resident and the other is a non-resident, they must file separate returns, unless they elect to file a joint return as if both were residents of Rhode Island. If the resident spouse files separately in Rhode Island and a joint federal return is filed for both spouses, the resident spouse must compute income, exemptions and tax as if a separate federal return had been filed.

If neither spouse is required to file a federal income tax return and either or both are required to file a Rhode Island income tax return, they may elect to file a joint Rhode Island income tax return.

Individuals filing joint Rhode Island income tax returns are both equally liable to pay the tax. They incur what is known as "joint and several liability" for Rhode Island income tax.

SEPARATE RETURNS: Individuals filing separate federal income tax returns must file separate Rhode Island income tax returns.

MILITARY PERSONNEL

Under the provisions of the Soldiers and Sailors Civil Relief Act the service pay of members of the armed forces can only be subject to income tax by the state of which they are legal residents. Place of legal residence at the time of entry into the service is normally presumed to be the legal state of residence and remains so until legal residence in another state is established and service records are changed accordingly. The Rhode Island income tax is imposed on all the federal taxable income of a resident who is a member of the armed forces, regardless of where such income is received. Military pay received by a nonresident service person stationed in Rhode Island is not subject to Rhode Island income tax. This does not apply to other income derived from Rhode Island sources, e.g., if the service person holds a separate job, not connected with his or her military service, income received from that job is subject to Rhode Island income tax. Income derived from Rhode Island sources by the service person's spouse is subject to Rhode Island income tax.

Internal Revenue Code provisions governing armed forces pay while serving in a "combat zone" or in an area under conditions that qualify for Hostile Fire Pay are applicable for Rhode Island purposes.

DECEASED TAXPAYERS

If the taxpayer died before filing a return for 2003, the taxpayer's spouse or personal representative must file and sign a return for the person who died if the deceased was required to file a return. A personal representative can be an executor, administrator or anyone who is in charge of the taxpayer's property. The person who files the return should write "deceased" after the deceased's name and show the date of death in the name and address space on the return.

If you are claiming a refund as a surviving spouse filing a joint return with the deceased, no other form is needed to have the refund issued to you. However, all other filers requesting a refund due the deceased, must file Form RI-1310, Statement of Person Claiming Refund Due a Deceased Taxpayer, to claim the refund.

WHEN TO FILE

Your return must be filed no later than April 15, 2005.

If the due date of your return falls on a Saturday, Sunday or Rhode Island legal holiday, the return will be due on the next working day.

EXTENSION OF TIME

Any extension of time for filing an individual income tax return granted shall not operate to extend the time for the payment of any tax due on such return.

In General -

- (1) An individual who is required to file a Rhode Island income tax return shall be allowed an automatic four-month extension of time to file such return.
- (2) An application must be prepared in duplicate on form RI-4868.
- (3) The original of the application must be filed on or before the date prescribed for the filing of the return of the individual with the Rhode Island Division of Taxation.
- (4) The application for extension must show the full amount properly estimated as tax for the taxable year, and the application must be accompanied by the full remittance of the amount properly estimated as tax which is unpaid as of the date prescribed for the filing of the return.

NOTE: If no payment is required to be made with your Rhode Island extension form and you are filing a federal extension form for the same period of time, then you do not need to submit the Rhode Island form. Attach a copy of the Federal Form 4868 or the approved Federal Form 2688 to your Rhode Island individual income tax return at the time it is submitted.

WHERE TO FILE

Mail your return to:
STATE OF RHODE ISLAND
Division of Taxation
One Capitol Hill
Providence RI 02908-5814

WHERE TO GET FORMS

The Division of Taxation (401) 222-1111
The website <http://www.tax.ri.gov>

MISSING OR INCORRECT FORM W-2

This is the form furnished to you by your employer which shows the amount of your income tax withheld by them, and a copy of it must accompany your Rhode Island income tax return if you are to receive credit for such withheld tax. Only your employer can issue or correct this form. If you have not received a Form W-2 from your employer by February 15, 2005 or if the form which you have received is incorrect, contact your employer as soon as possible.

ROUNDING OFF TO WHOLE DOLLARS

The money items on your return and schedules may be shown in whole dollars. This means that you may eliminate any amount less than 50 cents and increase any amount from 50 cents to 99 cents to the next higher dollar.

CHANGES IN YOUR FEDERAL TAXABLE INCOME OR FEDERAL TAX LIABILITY

You must report to the Rhode Island Division of Taxation any change or correction in federal taxable income or federal tax liability as reported on your federal income tax return, whether resulting from the filing of an amended federal return or otherwise, within 90 days after filing such amended return or final determination of such change by the Internal Revenue Service.
Use form RI-1040X.

RHODE ISLAND LOTTERY PRIZES

Winning and prizes received from the Rhode Island Lottery are taxable under the Rhode Island personal income tax and are includable in the income of both residents and non-residents alike.

SIGNATURE

You must sign your Rhode Island income tax return and both husband and wife must sign their joint return. An unsigned return cannot be processed.

Any paid preparer who prepares a taxpayer's return must also sign as "preparer". If a firm or corporation prepares the return, it should be signed in the name of the firm or corporation.

If you wish to allow the Tax Division to contact your paid preparer should questions arise about your return, check the appropriate box above the preparer's name.

Don't need forms mailed to you next year? Taxpayers who pay someone else to prepare their returns probably do not need a booklet mailed to them each year. If you do not need a booklet mailed to you next year, check the box below the signature line. The Division of Taxation will send you a postcard as a reminder to see your preparer. Telling us that you do not need a booklet next year will help us to reduce printing and mailing costs.

PAYMENTS OR REFUNDS

Any balance of tax liability shown on your return to be due the State of Rhode Island must be paid in full with your return. Make check or money order payable to the Rhode Island Division of Taxation and forward with your return to the State of Rhode Island, Division of Taxation, One Capitol Hill, Providence, RI 02908-5814. An amount due of less than one dollar ($1) need not be remitted.

A refund will be made if overpayment of income tax is shown on your return, unless you indicate on your return that such overpayment is to be credited to estimated tax liability for 2005. No other application for refund is necessary. Please note that no refund can be made unless your return is properly signed. Refunds of less than $1.00 will not be made unless specifically requested.

ESTIMATED INCOME TAX

If a taxpayer can reasonably expect to owe more than $250 after allowing for withholding tax and/or credits, he or she must make estimated tax payments. Estimated tax payments are made on Form

RI-1040ES that has instructions for computing the estimated tax and making payments.

NET OPERATING LOSS DEDUCTIONS

The Rhode Island Personal Income Tax law relating to Net Operating Loss deduction (NOL) has been amended by enactment of RIGL §44-30-2.8 and RIGL §44-30-87.1

Under the provisions of section 44-30-2.8, the five (5) year carry back provision for years ending in 2001 and 2002 provided by the Job Creation and Worker Assistance Act of 2002 (P.L.107-147) for federal tax purposes shall not be allowed for Rhode Island tax purposes.

If a taxpayer has already filed a return claiming a five (5) year carry back, he/she must file a Rhode Island amended return on form RI-1040X.

Under the provisions of section 44-30-87.1, for losses incurred for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2002, an NOL deduction may not be carried back for Rhode Island personal income tax purposes, but will only be allowed as a carry forward for the number of succeeding years as provided in IRS Sec. 172. A carry forward can only be used on the Rhode Island return to the extent that the carry forward is used on the federal return.

Should you have any questions regarding this notice, please call the Personal Income Tax Section at (401) 222-3911.

BONUS DEPRECIATION

A bill passed disallowing the new federal bonus depreciation for Rhode Island tax purposes. When filing a Rhode Island tax return any bonus depreciation taken for federal purposes must be added back to income as a modification on Schedule 1, line 23b for Rhode Island purposes. In subsequent years, when federal depreciation is less than what previously would have been allowed, the difference may be deducted from income as a modification on Schedule 1, line 24b for Rhode Island purposes.

A separate schedule of depreciation must be kept for Rhode Island purposes. The gain or loss on the sale or other disposition of the asset is to be determined, for Rhode Island purposes, using the Rhode Island depreciation schedule.

EXAMPLE: A company bought equipment after September 11, 2001 that cost $10,000 and had a 10 year life and qualified for 30% bonus depreciation. Depreciation for federal purposes in the first year was $3,700 (30% X $10,000 + 10% x 7,000). Normal depreciation in the first year would have been $1,000. The Company should add back on Schedule I, line 23b of RI-1040NR the amount of $2,700 ($3,700 - $1,000). The company should write on line 23b the words "Bonus Depreciation Adjustment". In subsequent years the company should deduct $300 ($1000 - $700) each year while depreciation lasts. The deduction should be on line 24b of RI-1040NR and they should write in the words "Bonus Depreciation Adjustment".

If a taxpayer has already filed a return, a form RI-1040X should be filed.

Questions on this procedure should be addressed by calling the Personal Income Tax Section at (401) 222-3911.

SECTION 179 DEPRECIATION

Rhode Island passed a bill disallowing the increase in the section 179 depreciation under the Jobs & Growth Tax Relief Reconciliation Act of 2003. Section 179 depreciation will remain limited to $25,000 for Rhode Island income tax purposes. When filing your Rhode Island tax return any additional section 179 depreciation taken must be added back to federal adjusted gross income as a modification on RI-1040NR, page 2, schedule I, line 23B. In subsequent years, when federal depreciation is less than what previously would have been allowed, the difference may be deducted from federal adjusted income as a modification on RI-1040NR, page 2, schedule I, line 24B.

A separate schedule of deprecation must be kept for Rhode Island purposes. The gain or loss on the sale or other disposition of the asset is to be determined, for Rhode Island purposes, using the Rhode Island depreciation schedule.

FAMILY EDUCATION ACCOUNTS

(Tuition Savings Program – Section 529)

A modification decreasing federal adjusted gross income may be claimed for contributions made to Rhode Island's tuition savings program "529 plan". The maximum modification shall not exceed $500, $1,000 if a joint return, regardless of the number of accounts. Taxpayers should claim the modification on Schedule I, line 24b and write in the words "Tuition Savings Program". If the funds are rolled over to a Tuition Savings Plan of another state or are an unqualified withdrawal, recapture is required.

Taxpayers may also take a modification decreasing federal adjusted gross income in the amount of any qualified withdrawal or distribution from the "Tuition Saving Program" which is included in federal adjusted gross income. Taxpayers should claim the modification on Schedule I, line 24b and write in the words "Tuition Savings Program"

RHODE ISLAND TAX CREDITS

Rhode Island law provides special Rhode Island tax credits which may be applied against the Rhode Island income tax. Before claiming any credits, taxpayers should refer to the Rhode Island law and/or regulations for specific requirements for each credit such as carryover provisions and the order in which the credits must be used. Taxpayers claiming credits must attach the proper form(s) and other documentation to the return; failure to do so will result in disallowance of the credit. The following is a brief list of the current Rhode Island state tax credits:

T-205P INDIVIDUAL CONSUMER'S USE/SALES TAX RETURN

What is a Use Tax?

A Use Tax is a tax on the use of tangible personal property in a state where the property has not been subject to the sales tax. Rhode Island Use Tax applies when merchandise purchased outside of Rhode Island is brought into Rhode Island. Sales and use taxes are complementary taxes and are assessed at the same rate. In Rhode Island the sales and use tax rate is 7%. The Rhode Island Use Tax is most often due when merchandise subject to the sales tax in Rhode Island is purchased from an out-of-state vendor who did not collect the Rhode Island tax and the property is subsequently used in this state. Common examples of transactions from which use tax liability may arise are mail order catalog sales and toll-free "800" purchases and purchases made over the internet.

What is taxable?

The same items that are subject to the Rhode Island Sales Tax are subject to the use tax. Some typical examples of taxable items are jewelry, computers and electronic equipment. Clothing and footwear are not taxable.

How do I file and pay?

To report use tax, please complete the Rhode Island Individual Consumer's Use/Sales Tax return (T-205P) found on page 3 of Form RI-1040NR.

SCHEDULE III – NONRESIDENT TAX CALCULATION

Part 1 – Allocation & Tax Worksheet

This worksheet is located on page 5, Form RI-1040NR and is to be completed by full year nonresidents. – Part-year residents complete schedule V on page 7.

Lines 1 through 10 Column A –

Line 1 – Wages, Salaries, Tips, etc.

Enter the amount of your total wages, salaries, commissions, tips, etc. reported on your federal return which were received for services performed in Rhode Island.

Compensation earned partly within and partly without Rhode Island – If total wage and salary income was earned partly within and partly without Rhode Island and your employer does not separately report the amount of earnings in Rhode Island, determine the amount allocable to Rhode Island by completing schedule III, part 2 on page 6 or attaching a separate schedule setting out how such allocation was made.

The amount allocable to Rhode Island is that portion of your wage and salary income which the number of days worked in Rhode Island bears to the total number of days (exclusive of nonworking days, such as Saturday, Sundays, holidays, sick leave, vacation, etc.) employed both within and without the state during the year.

If your compensation subject to allocation depends entirely on volume of business transacted, as in the case of a salesman working on commission, do not use schedule III, part 2. In this event, the amount of compensation allocable to Rhode Island is that portion of the compensation included in Column B, line 1 which the volume of business transacted inside the state bears to the total volume of business transacted both inside and outside the state. The determining factor in ascertaining where business is transacted is the location where the services or sales activities were actually performed. Attach a schedule to your return showing the computation of the allocation to Rhode Island of compensation based on volume of business transacted.

If your personal service compensation is allocated on a basis other than those covered in the preceding two paragraphs, please attach a separate schedule showing complete details.

Line 2, Column A – Interest and Dividends: Enter the amount of interest and dividends included in federal income, which are derived from Rhode Island sources.

Line 3, Column A – Business Income: Enter the amount of net profit (or loss) from a business or profession carried on in Rhode Island.

If the business or profession is carried on both within and without Rhode Island and accounts clearly reflecting income from Rhode Island operations are maintained, enter the net profit (or loss) from business carried on in Rhode Island. If your Rhode Island business income is not separate and distinct from that of other states you should use the uniform division of income formula to determine your Rhode Island business income. This involves the construction of a three-factor formula, which is applied against your total business income to determine the income allocable to Rhode Island. The three factors are:

Property in Rhode Island to property everywhere, Payroll in Rhode Island to payroll everywhere, and sales or services in Rhode Island to sales or services everywhere.

Add the result of these three factors and divide by three or the number of factors. The resulting figure is the percent to be applied against the amount of total business income to determine the amount derived from Rhode Island sources. Complete schedule III, part 3, which is found on page 6. If an approved alternative method of allocation is used, attach schedule.

Line 4, Column A – Sale or Exchange of Property: Capital gain (or loss) – Enter the net capital gain (or loss) determined in accordance with applicable federal provisions for determining capital gains and losses. Include on this line only transactions resulting from property located in Rhode Island.

Capital transactions from Rhode Island sources include capital gains or losses from real or personal property having an actual situs within Rhode Island whether or not connected with a trade or business. Capital gains or losses from stocks, bonds, and other intangible personal property used in or connected with a business, trade or occupation that is carried on within Rhode Island are subject to Rhode Island income tax. Also to be included is your share of any capital gain or loss derived from Rhode Island sources of a partnership of which you are a member, or an estate or trust of which you are a beneficiary.

NOTE: If any capital gains or losses are from business property (other than real property) of a business carried on both within and without Rhode Island, apply the applicable business percentage. The federal basis of property is to be used in computing Rhode Island capital gains or losses.

Non-capital Assets: Enter the gain or loss from the sale or exchange of non-capital assets, which pertain to your Rhode Island transactions by applying to them the appropriate federal provision for determining gains or losses from the sale or exchange of other than capital assets.

Non-capital transactions from Rhode Island are those non-capital transactions reported on your federal return which pertain to property used in or connected with a trade, business, profession or occupation carried on in Rhode Island. Also to be included in your share of any non-capital gain or loss is any such gain or loss from (1) a partnership of which you are a member or (2) an estate or trust of which you are a beneficiary. If any transactions involve property (other than real property) of a business carried on both within and without Rhode Island, apply the business allocation percentage applicable. In all cases the federal basis of property is to be used for computing the Rhode Island gain or loss.

Line 5, Column A – Pension and Annuities, Rents, Royalties, Etc.: Enter that portion of rent and royalty income derived from or connected with Rhode Island sources. Include rents and royalties from:

Real property situated in Rhode Island whether or not used in or connected with a business

Tangible personal property not used in a business if such property has an actual situs in Rhode Island and Tangible and intangible personal property used in or connected with a business, trade, profession or occupation carried on in Rhode Island.

NOTE: If a business is carried on both within and without Rhode Island, the business allocation percentage should be applied to items included above. However, no allocation applies to income from real property. Income from real property is 100% includable if it is located in Rhode Island or it is entirely excluded if located outside Rhode Island.

Partnership Income: Each partner must report his share of the partnership income. Include your share of the ordinary income of the partnership, joint venture, or the like, whose taxable year ends within or with the year covered by your return, which is derived from Rhode Island sources. If your distributive share of partnership income includes any items of income taxable to a nonresident (such as capital gains), such items must be included separately. Attach schedule.

General Instructions

Use Form RI-4868 to apply for 4 more months to file Form RI-1040 or RI-1040NR.

Extension of Time

If a taxpayer meets all the following tests, the Rhode Island extension form and the additional extension form need not be filed.

- 1. The taxpayer is not required to make payment with Rhode Island extension form; and
- 2. The taxpayer files a proper federal extension form (automatic or additional); and
- 3. The taxpayer's request for extension covers the same time period for both Rhode Island and federal purposes.

If the taxpayer meets the criteria above, the taxpayer must attach a copy of Federal Form 4868, or the approved Federal Form 2688 to the front of the Rhode Island return when it is filed.

If a taxpayer does not meet the tests above and must file a Rhode Island request for extension, the taxpayer should:

- 1. Prepare the Rhode Island extension Form RI-4868.
- 2. Clearly show the full amount properly estimated as Rhode Island tax for the year 2004.
- 3. File the extension with the Rhode Island Division of Taxation on or before the due date for filing Rhode Island income tax returns; and
- 4. Pay the amount of Rhode Island tax due as calculated on Form RI-4868.
- 5. Be sure to attach a copy of the Form RI-4868 and/or the approved additional extension (Form RI-2688) to the front of the Rhode Island return when it is filed.
- 6. Retain the top portion of this form for your records. Detach and return the lower portion with your payment.

Date Paid	Check Number	Amount

Additional Information

If a taxpayer has been allowed the automatic 4 extension to file, the taxpayer may be granted additional time to file. To request this additional time, file Form RI-2688.

A taxpayer living or traveling outside the United States on April 15 is granted a special, automatic two-month extension without having to file the initial Form RI-4868.

The filing or granting of an extension of time to file does not extend the time for payment of tax due on the return.

How To Prepare Your Payment?

Make your check or money order payable to the "R.I. Division of Taxation." Do not send cash. Make sure your name and address appears on your check or money order. Write "Form RI-4868", your daytime phone number and social security number on your check or money order. If you are filing a joint return, enter the social security number shown first on your return.
