Instruc
Com- mon Errors	The following is a list of the most common mistakes made by taxpayers when filing a New Hampshire Interest and Dividends Tax return These, along with other errors, may cause the return to be considered an "incomplete return" which may result in the assessment o interest and penalties. To ensure that you have filed a complete return, carefully follow the general and line-by-line instructions and be sure you have done the following:
	Have you signed and dated the return in ink?
	If this is a joint return, has your spouse included his/her social security number, signed and dated the return in ink?
	If there is a balance due of $1.00 or greater, have you enclosed a check for the total amount due?
	Did you make the check payable to the State of New Hampshire?
	Is the written amount on the check the same as the numeric amount?
	Have you signed and dated the check?
	Have you enclosed both pages of Form DP-10?
	Did you mistakenly send a payment in the amount of your credit or refund? If you would like to make an additiona payment please use Form DP-10-ES
Who Must File A	INDIVIDUALS: Individuals who are residents or inhabitants of New Hampshire for any part of the tax year must file providing the received more than $2,400 of gross taxable interest and/or dividend income for a single individual or $4,800 of such income for a married couple filing a joint New Hampshire return. (Part-year residents see below.)
Re- turn	To determine whether a return must be filed, you should complete Page 2, Lines 1 - 7. If the amount on Line 7 is $0 or less you are no required to file an Interest and Dividends Tax Return.
	PARTNERSHIPS, LLC's, ASSOCIATIONS, TRUSTS AND FIDUCIARIES: Please see separate tables in this booklet regarding "WHO and "WHAT" is taxable. LLC's filing as Corporations are required to file an Interest and Dividend Tax Return.

Part Year Resi- dent	For New Hampshire Interest & Dividends Tax purposes, a "part year resident" is someone who has permanently established residency in New Hampshire during the year or who has permanently abandoned residency in New Hampshire during the year. If you established residency after January 1st of this tax period check the "Initial Return" box and enter the date of residency in Step 2. If you abandoned residency during the year, check the "Final Return" box and enter the date in Step 2. A temporary absence for any length of time does not change your state of residency. If you are unsure whether you are a residency of New Hampshire, please call the Customer Service (603) 271-2191, Monday through Friday, 8:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Only the interest and dividend income earned during that portion of the year for which they were a New Hampshire resident is taxable Part-year residents are entitled to the full $2,400 exemption (or $4,800 for joint filers) and the full amount for the exemptions shown or Line 9 of the return.

A: No.

Q: My spouse lives in another state, do I have to file a joint return?

A: No. If one spouse is not a resident, the resident spouse shall file a return alone and report his or her interest and dividend income, and 50% of the interest and/or dividends from jointly held investments.

Q: What factors are used to determine if I am a resident of New Hampshire?

A: Factors include abut are not limited to: maintaining a home, spending a greater percent of time in New Hampshire; having family living with them in New Hampshire; advising a state or local agency you are a resident; registering to vote in New Hampshire. Refer to the departments administrative rules, Chapter Rev 900.

Q: Do I have to report portfolio income, gains and losses?

A: Yes, you must report your portfolio income, gains and losses in Page 2, Line 2 of the New Hampshire Interest and Dividend Tax return, but then you deduct them in Page 2, Line 4.

Q: Are distributions taxable?

A: S-Corp: All actual and constructive receipt of distributions (including non-cash distributions) from an "S" corporation are taxable by New Hampshire regardless of the original source of the income.

Partnerships, LLC"S Associations, Trust or Estates: Does the organization have transferable shares? (Can you freely transfer your shares without causing a dissolution of the organization or without obtaining prior member approval?) If yes, your entire ACTUAL distribution from this organization is taxable. If so, all of your actual and constructive receipt of distributions (including non-cash distributions) from this entity is taxable by New Hampshire regardless of the original source of the income.

If the organization is not required to file its own New Hampshire Interest & Dividends Tax return AND the organization has non-transferable shares, then the distribution you received from them is taxable to you as if it had come from its original source. The interest and dividend income subject to tax shall be imposed on the portion of the distribution which represents interest and dividend received by the entity. Therefore, a portion of the distribution you received is taxable to you. Thae taxable portion is determined by multiplying the amount of the actual distribution received by a fraction. The numerator is the total interest and dividend received by the entity.

Q: Is interest and dividends from College Investment Savings Plan is not taxable.

A: No, qualified interest or dividend income from College Investment Savings Plan is not taxable.

Q: Why did I receive a New hampshire Form 1099-G and what should I do with it?

A: The NHDRA is required by the Internal Revenue Service to notify any non-corporate taxpayer by January 31, of activity in the prior year that was a refund, credit or offset of taxes based on income. If a refund is indicated you should have received a check, a credit is an overpayment applied to another tax period, and an offset is an overpayment that was applied to a tax notice. We must also provide the information to the IRS, and you may be required to report all or part of the amount of the New Hampshire Form 1099-G as income on your federal return. Give the form to your preparer, if you have one; or review the nstructions in you federal tax booklet for the propert federal treatment. The Department of Revenue Administration connot advise you how to handle the amount on your federal tax return because it depends on how the tax deduction was treated in the prior year and other limitations.
