TAXES RELATED TO DOING BUSINESS IN NEBRASKA

Nonresident Employee Withholding for Wages Earned in Nebraska

A nonresident contractor or subcontractor who has an office in, or who engages in business in, Nebraska is required to withhold income tax on all wages paid for services performed within Nebraska and to remit such amounts to the Department of Revenue. For certain nonresident employees, the tax withheld and remitted may be determined pursuant to miles, time, or money earned in Nebraska (see Withholding Regulations 21-004 and 21-006). Applicable forms include Forms 941N and W-3N.

Withholding for Personal Services Paid to Other Nonresidents Who Are Not Employees (e.g., Architects, Engineers)

Refer to Nebraska Withholding Certificate for Nonresident Individuals, Form W-4NA.

Nonresident Contractor Sole Proprietorship Income Tax Filing Requirements

A nonresident contractor who is a sole proprietorship or independent contractor must file a Nebraska Individual Income Tax Return, Form 1040N, to report income derived from the contractor's Nebraska contracts. Income derived from within this state also includes income distributions that the nonresident contractor receives from any S corporation, limited liability company, or partnership that is doing business in this state.

Nonresident Contractor Corporation Income Tax Filing Requirements

If the nonresident contractor is a corporation doing business in this state, a Nebraska Corporation Income Tax Return, Form 1120N, must be filed to report the income of the corporation. The tax base is federal taxable income. If the business is multistate, the income is apportioned to Nebraska using a "sales only" factor. A combined return is required if the business is part of a unitary group.

A business that is organized as a partnership, limited liability company, or S corporation must file the appropriate Nebraska return to report the Nebraska share of federal taxable income distributed to partners, members, or shareholders.

Sales and Use Tax Requirements

All contractors, both resident and nonresident, are retailers and must be licensed for Nebraska sales tax. Contractors are required to collect and remit sales tax on contractor labor. The "Contractor Election" below determines how sales tax is paid on building materials and fixtures. Certain contractor labor is exempt from sales tax. Refer to the information guide titled Nebraska Taxation of Contractors General Information for further information.

Contractor Election

Contractors have three options from which to choose regarding how they will satisfy their sales and use tax liability on building materials and fixtures. All contractors should elect an option. Options are identified below, and the election is made on the front of this application.

- Under Option 1, I elect to maintain a tax-free inventory of those building materials intended to be annexed to real estate or used to repair property annexed to real estate. I will collect and remit sales tax on the total amount charged to the customer for a taxable construction or repair project. For a project where the contractor labor is exempt, I will collect and remit sales tax on the total amount charged for materials. I will pay sales or use tax on all tools and supplies used by me in the completion of the project. I will collect and remit sales tax on the selling price for over-the-counter sales.
- Under Option 2, I elect to maintain a tax-paid inventory of those building materials intended to be annexed to real estate or used to repair property annexed to real estate. I will collect and remit sales tax on all construction and repair projects involving taxable contractor labor using the appropriate contractor labor percentage. I will pay consumer's use tax on all purchases, including building materials, when the applicable sales and use tax has not been paid. I will pay sales or use tax on all tools and supplies used by me in the completion of the project.
- Under Option 3, I elect to maintain a tax-free inventory of those building materials intended to be annexed to real estate or used to repair property annexed to real estate. I will remit consumer's use tax at the rate in effect at the time and place those materials are withdrawn from my inventory. I will collect and remit sales tax on all construction and repair projects involving contractor labor using the applicable contractor labor percentage. I will pay sales and use tax on all tools and supplies used by me in the completion of the project.
