The Men's Retreat

A Tri-City Baptist Church Tradition

Enjoy a time when men of all ages can get away from the pressures of life and spend time just being men. This year the retreat returns to Mountain Meadow Ranch near Christopher Creek, Arizona. Come hear messages from the Bible, have fun playing sports and games with other men, enjoy great food, and be challenged and encouraged.

Through 10/11/15—cost is $50

After 10/11/15—cost is $60

Turn in a registration form and your payment to Pastor Todd or the Church office, or register and pay online at www.tricityministries.org.

Speaker

Pastor Chris Anderson, senior pastor at Killian Hills Baptist Church (Georgia), will be our speaker this year. Pastor Chris has written over 30 hymns, such as “His Robes for Mine” and “I Run to Christ.” He will be speaking from Ecclesiastes on “The Meaning of Life for Men.”

Activities

Hiking, basketball, volleyball, soccer, ping pong, fishing at nearby lakes/creeks, or just relaxing.

Cabins

The majority of the cabins have electricity and heat, but do not have a restroom. However, the shower house is close by. There are two cabins that have nicer/bigger bunks, heat, showers and a restroom inside. We will be reserving these for our older gentlemen or anyone with special needs. There are 24 such beds (12 bottom bunks) available. To reserve one of these beds, contact Pastor Todd Tjepkema. Finally, for the adventurous, there are 5 cabins with no electricity or heat (if you like really roughing it).
