No time for meal planning, cooking or the hassle of doing dishes?

K-State Housing and Dining Services has six dining options with you in mind.

The Jardine Apartments and Off-Campus Meal Plan offers a wide range of dining options in Derby and Kramer dining centers. Both dining centers are just a few minutes' walk from either side of campus.

Your signature on this form verifies you have read and understand the following terms.

- If you choose a full year contract, the deadline to pay the spring semester charge by cash, check, money order or credit card directly to K-State Housing & Dining Services is December 1, 2013. Any unpaid charges will be billed to the student's university iSIS account.
- The meal plan will begin on the first day of classes and end on the last day of classes.
- If you cancel this agreement prior to the end of the semester, you will be charged a $50 cancellation fee and a daily rate based on the date your cancellation form is received by Housing and Dining Services.
- You may cancel at the end of the fall semester without penalty by completing the cancellation form available at housing.k-state.edu/dining.
- Any use or conduct deemed inappropriate by Housing and Dining Services and/or K-State may result in cancellation of service without refund.
- Marketplace dollars expire at the end of the spring semester.
- Marketplace dollars can be used at Housing & Dining Services retail locations.

You must have a valid K-State ID to eat at the dining centers. Housing and Dining Services does not prepare foods for special dietary needs with this meal plan.

Additional information, including menus and dining center hours of operation, is available at housing.k-state.edu/dining.
