

Made In Chester County

The Chamber would like to promote awareness of local manufacturing and its importance to the economic growth of our County and region.

Join us for our Made in Chester County Series where we will tour different Chester County operations throughout the year that manufacture goods right in our own backyard.

Each event will consist of networking and breakfast before business from 7:30 - 9:00 a.m.

Chamber Member Price is $10/tour. Future Members will be charged $20/tour.

(Payment must accompany reservation to be confirmed. If you need to cancel a reservation you will receive a full-refund if cancellation is made 72 hours in advance of the event.) To RSVP or request more information, please contact James Logan, Program Manager by calling 610-725-9100 x15 or email jlogan@cccabi.org.

Wendell August Forge

Main Street At Exton, Exton, PA 19341

On January 25, 2012 the Made In Chester County Series begins the New Year with a warm reception at Wendell August Forge in Exton. Join us as we tour this fascinating facility right here in Chester County.

Wendell August Forge is America's oldest and largest forge, producing hand-wrought ornamental metalware and elegant giftware in aluminum and other metals since 1923. The company was founded in Brockway, Pennsylvania by Wendell McMinn August, who, at age 38, was active in the coal industry. Learn how local artisans transform metal, aluminum, and silver into beautiful decorative pieces for home or office.

Phillips Mushrooms

1011 Kaolin Rd., Kennett Square, PA 19348

In the second series of four in 2012, Made In Chester County takes you into the world of family tradition, innovation, and technology. Welcome to Phillips Mushroom Farms located in Kennett Square, Pennsylvania. See how Phillips Mushroom Farms plays a key role to the economic and manufacturing impact of Chester County.

We've been cultivating mushrooms since 1927... In the late 1920s, William W. Phillips pioneered mushroom farming in Kennett Square, PA, "The Mushroom Capital of the World". The Phillips Family, now in its third generation, has been growing top-quality mushrooms ever since. Committed to the development, manufacturing, and sales of convenient, ready-to-use, products for multi-unit restaurant operators and food manufacturers—Phillips Mushrooms can be found on food tables in homes around the country. Come experience and learn how state of the art technology, commitment to marketing and a personal approach to their business have made Phillips Mushroom Farms the largest marketer of specialty mushrooms in the U.S.; distributing over 35 million pounds of specialty mushrooms annually.

Chester County Solid Waste Authority

7224 Division Hwy., Narvon, PA 17555

In September 1984, the Chester County Solid Waste Authority (CCSWA) became owner and operator of the Lanchester Landfill, a 600-acre property located in Honey Brook, Salisbury, and Caernarvon townships that includes 160 acres of landfills and nature trails.

Known for waste recycling and disposal the landfill is also home to a 360-degree panoramic view rising 80 feet above the highest point of the Welsh Mountains, the overlook provides a 360-degree panoramic view of the Conestoga and Brandywine valleys. A scenic overlook was opened in July 2001 to be used by the public as a recreational area. Join us as we learn more about the Chester County Solid Waste Authority and its contribution to Chester County.

The Chester County Commissioners established the Chester County Solid Waste Authority in August 1984.*
