Cr. 4to, First Edition; pp. xxviii, 524 (last blank); 8 maps, 16 col. & 8 b/w. plates, 11 survey charts, note on measurements, appendices, glossary, notes & refs., bibliog., index; original papered boards; a fine copy in d/w. (Melbourne); The Miegunyah Press, (Melbourne University Press; 1995). "The authoritative account of one of the longest and most important surveying cruises of the golden age of world hydrography". Excellent use is made of the journals of Denham and his officers to create a detailed vision of mid-nineteenth-century surveying and charting techniques. Significant forays were made into botanical and ornithological studies, much of which are detailed here. Its anthropological content clearly illustrates the paradoxical nature of the south-west Pacific at the time of the voyages, where missionary, colonist and the lords of commerce co-existed with the native peoples in an often uneasy alliance. Included is an account of the resettlement of the Pitcairn Islanders on Norfolk Island. This is number 3 in the second Miegunyah Press series; only 1200 copies were printed. #46753 A$95.00

- 73 Shillibee, Lieut. J[ohn]. A NARRATIVE OF THE BRITON'S VOYAGE TO PITCAIRN'S ISLAND; including an Interesting Sketch of the State of the Brazils and of Spanish South America. By Lieut. J. Shillibee, R. M. Illustrated with Sixteen Etchings by the Author, from Drawings on the Spot. Third Edition. London: Printed for Law and Whittaker, No. 13, Ave Maria Lane, Ludgate Street. 1818. Demy 8vo, 3rd Edn.; pp. xii, 180; 16 etched illu. on 12 plates (2 folding & 1 printed in red-brown ink); modern half calf in antique style; the frontispiece (with a small tear repaired), title-page & following leaf washed, some occasional very mild browning or soiling to other leaves; the two folding plates sometime split at folds, with minor loss of upper margin to the second, but now well-restored and laid down; blank foremargin of pp. 173/4 restored; uncut; a very good, sound copy; rare. London; Law & Whittaker; 1818. Ferguson 728; Du Rietz 1188 "this edition [revised and extended] is the best (and apparently also the rarest) of the three English editions." We are disposed to dispute Du Rietz's claim as to rarity, the First Edition, printed in Taunton, being the rarest in our experience, but all editions are rare. The Briton visited several places on the South American coast, but was ordered from Brazil to find the American frigate, U.S.S. Essex, Captain David Porter, which was threatening British whalers in the Pacific. Details of the activities of U.S.S. Essex in the Marquesas are related. When the Briton called at Pitcairn the author interviewed John Adams, the sole survivor of the Bounty mutineers, who gave him a full account of the history of the mutineers after they left Tahiti. #51805 AS1100.00

NOTICE TO CUSTOMERS:

This is our thirteenth short list. We hope you find something of interest.

We intend to produce many more in future on a variety of subjects and we would prefer where possible to send these by email as PDF file attachments. This has the obvious advantage of reducing costs and enhancing the speed of delivery and the email/PDF versions will also often be enhanced by colour illustrations, and a fully illustrated version of this list in pdf format is available on our website or will be emailed on request.

Likewise we encourage you to send orders by email, fax or telephone.

If you would like to receive future lists please indicate your interests by email (preferred) or using the form overleaf by fax or post. If you would like to receive ALL lists (email only) please let us know also. If for any reason you do not wish to receive any more of these lists, also please let us know and we will cease and desist.
