COMMANDER'S MESSAGE

What Business Are You In?

Cdr David Atwood, AP

[Presented at the 24 April Change of Watch.]

A few years ago, being new to boating, I took the basic boating course in Orleans and was fortunate to have dedicated, inspiring instructors such as Karl Davis, N, D/C Art Kimber, SN, and P/C George Pettengill, AP*, just to name a few. I immediately joined the Cape Cod Sail and Power Squadron and began taking other courses which I found to be worth my time and improved my boating knowledge.

My ambition was to become an instructor.

Little did I know that I would receive a call from P/C Joan Croft, AP*, asking me to join the squadron leadership team.

I thank Bob Bach, the bridge, and the executive committee for their contribution during this past year and I especially want to thank Joan Croft for the incredible volume of work she does for your squadron and the support she has given me.

I look forward to working with your new leadership team as we face the challenges before us.

I see this as a time of change driven by an emerging new national direction.

Our national organization's leaders have a vision that will establish us as the premier recreational boating education organization in the country. Such a national vision cannot become reality without local action. With a membership of 40,000, we are the nation's largest organization of recreational boaters. However, there are somewhere between 7-9 million registered recreational boat owners who could still become students or members.

The new national direction is demonstrated through new course releases, existing course revisions, and renaming of courses. This steady stream of educational products clearly tells us that there is a new emphasis on one of the three primary USPS objectives: continuing education.

As an example of these national changes, what we and I just called the public basic boating course, properly named The Squadron Boating CourseSM, is now named America's Boating Course[®], a much more marketable name, will be prominently featured in the organization's public advertising.

The many new seminars are short, specific learning packages suited for today's boating students. We have also adopted a new message that will be incorporated in all our publications:

boating is fun . . . we'll show you how

To achieve this vision and message, it must be supported at the squadron level with more instructors and on-the-water experience opportunities for students and, at the same time, still be fun for all.

In all organizations, as they grow or mature, there is a tendency for operations and activities to expand beyond the organization's primary objective. Sometimes we can be diverted by other squadron activities and forget that our core business is recreational boating education.

One of the points that some consultants make is, that to succeed, organizations must keep the main thing, the main thing. In other words, focus on doing what you were established or organized to do.

However, to do this we must make sure there is an answer to the question: What's the main thing?

Every member must be able to answer that question by saying: Boating education is our business; we want safer boaters, better boaters.

To state that convincingly, it's necessary to be part of what the squadron does. At the moment we have a great need for additional instructors. If you can and would like to help the squadron in this capacity, please contact our Squadron Educational Officer.

With this focus on recreational boating education, we will be better recognized both locally and nationally and that recognition will help us prosper as an organization.

At the recent district meeting, a member of the national team made reference that our designation as USPS has little or no name recognition, other than we might be mistaken for the post office. We will need to strengthen our appeal to recreational boating families with an identity that clearly tells them about the opportunity we offer for boating education and fun.

At that same meeting we discussed the topics of member recruitment and retention.

A key learning was that people need clearly identified bite-size tasks in order to accomplish our goals as a volunteer organization. This is something that the bridge and committee chairmen will be working on this year.

Also, at the meeting, a set of annual goals was presented for our consideration. (I've listed them here and identified the effect they would have on our squadron.) I intend to embrace them and ask you to do the same. They are:

- Increase membership by 1%
= 3 new members
- Have 25% of the membership take, teach, or proctor a course
= 58 participants
- Increase attendance at squadron activities by 10%
= 2 more at water activities,
= 2 more at parades and the boat show booth,
= 5 more at dinners
- Meet 5 members that you have not yet met

To get all this done, at every opportunity we must remember that I am the squadron, you are the squadron, and we all are the squadron together.

Only together can the Cape Cod Sail and Power Squadron be recognized as the premier boating education organization in Barnstable County that inspires recreational boating families to become members.

boating is fun . . . we'll show you how

INSTRUCTOR DEVELOPMENT (ID)

Lt/C Evan Croft, JN*

Instructor Development is scheduled for five consecutive Monday evenings, 12 May to 9 June at the Brewster Police Station on Rt 124. Instructor certification is required to instruct USPS public boating courses. One of six elective courses, an endorsement sticker is awarded to be affixed to the membership certificate for successful completion.

If you are interested in attending, contact P/C George Pettengill, AP* at 508-896-7653 or geoal@verizon.net. There is no fee for course material.

ADULT LEARNING STYLE - The course has been designed to demonstrate interactive teaching methods focused on adult learning. Students prepare a 5-, 10- and 15-minute lesson plan to present to their peers, and a 1-hour lesson plan to submit as a course requirement. Each presentation is given on a topic from one of the public boating classes. Upon completion of the course, students will be certified to instruct in the public boating courses.

A/V WORKSHOP – An audio/visual workshop will be rescheduled for September and open to all members who would like to have a hands-on session with the PCs and projectors and learn more about navigating and customizing PowerPoint®. Contact Evan at 508-420-9023 or redhouse@cape.com.

NEW MEMBER OPPORTUNITY SEAMANSHIP STARTS 2 JUNE

Lt/C Evan Croft, JN*

Scheduled for Monday and Thursday nights, 2 June to 26 June, the Advanced Grade course for USPS endorsement builds on the basics of recreational boating presented in the public boating course.

FOR NEW MEMBERS it is timed as a great opportunity to take the first in the sequence of Advanced Grade courses in preparation for AG Piloting in September.

The course develops knowledge and confidence for increased safe boating and provides the basis for completion of USCG licensing examination.

Emphasis is on a higher level of boating skills, rules of the road, and marlinspike.

ON-THE-WATER FUN! Highly successful in 2007, an on-the-water activity aboard member boats will be scheduled at the completion of the course. For novice boaters and students who enjoy the camaraderie of the squadron, this is a much anticipated event.

The classroom location is the Centerville Fire Station (C-O-MM) on Route 28 in Centerville. Contact me to ask questions and sign up: 508-420-9023 or redhouse@cape.com.

SUNSHINE COMMITTEE

Lt/C Mary Lou Walsh, S

Anyone who has knowledge of a CCSPS member who might benefit from a bit of cheering up with cards, calls or visits, or a member who is experiencing an important event, please phone Secretary Mary Lou Walsh at 508-508-398-7970.

WEATHER SEMINAR 17 MAY

Onboard Weather Forecasting

Date: Saturday, 17 May 2008
Registration and Seminar
Presenter: P/C Ronald Kessel, SN
Time: 0900 to 1130
Place: Barnstable Middle School Cafeteria
895 Falmouth Rd. (Rt. 28), Hyannis
Cost: $15 for members and $20 for nonmembers. The fee includes the McGraw-Hill Captain's Quick Guides Onboard Weather Forecasting.

*A veering wind will clear the sky
A backing wind says storms are nigh.*

Attend a relaxing Saturday morning to learn about weather forecasting using your own observations. This short, fun morning will take a lot of the mystery out of stormy weather.

- Learn what weather systems are; How clouds help predict the weather; and Why wind direction, temperature and pressure changes indicate stormy conditions.
- Learn the basis of weather forecasts and how to add more accuracy to them.
- Gain a better sense of developing weather conditions on the water or at home.

To pre-register for seminars, call or e-mail Ken Molloy, SN,
at 508-428-3815;

2008-2009 Squadron Budget

Cdr David Atwood, AP

At its 10 April meeting, your Executive Committee approved the squadron budget for the fiscal year ending 31 March 2009. In accordance with the squadron's bylaws, the annual budget must be presented to the membership for adoption. Such a vote will be held at our 22 May dinner meeting.

The budget for the current year as approved by the Executive Committee, as well as the approved budget and actual performance for the prior year ended 31 March 2008, are shown below. There is an increase in the public relations/advertising expense over fiscal year 2008 actual. This increase supports our goal to increase public awareness of our boating courses and the squadron in general.

CHANGE OF WATCH

Our Annual Change of Watch was held at the Hyannis Golf Club 24 April. We were honored to have District 14 Cdr Art Kimber, SN, and his wife Lt Joan Kimber, six squadron past commanders, and guest Linda Church, AP, Buzzards Bay Sail and Power Squadron at the ceremony.

D/C Art Kimber presented Ken Molloy with the Educational Achievement Award (see Porthole article) and did the squadron the honor of swearing in our new commander, the Bridge and all elected officers. P/R/C Don Chase, N*, toasted outgoing and incoming commanders P/C Robert Bach, AP*, and Commander Dave Atwood, AP, with a maritime theme for their success in leading the squadron to their respective successful years.

EDUCATIONAL ACHIEVEMENT AWARD PRESENTED TO 1ST LT KENNETH H. MOLLOY, SN

Congratulations to 1st Lt Ken Molloy, SN. He was recognized for Educational Achievement in a presentation by District Commander Arthur Kimber, SN, at the 24 April CCSPS Change of Watch Dinner Meeting at the Hyannis Golf Club.

Ken Molloy (L) receives award from D/C Art Kimber

A plaque dated 28 November 2007 signifies that Ken has achieved the highest educational recognition given by USPS, having completed all Advanced Grades Courses, which results in a grade of Navigator (N), and all Elective Courses. A person with this award is known as a Senior Navigator, and uses the printed grade designation SN.

Ken graciously accepted the award and informed everyone that all squadron members who have achieved the grade of navigator are eligible to join the Boston Navigator's Club. It is a social club for people interested in navigation and holds about four luncheon meetings a year in various locales.

NATIONAL SAFE BOATING WEEK EVENTS

18 May - Aselton Park, Hyannis

31 May - CCC Visitors Center, Sandwich
Lt/C Hugh Blair-Smith, SN

Boat Show Co-chairs Lt Roger Bodley, AP, and Lt Don Bell, JN, will set up our booth to display boating safety and educational information at two events during this month. They need lots of help to set up and man both of these booths. Please contact Roger Bodley (Tel. 508-362-1354) to volunteer.

CCSPS will be involved with the Maritime Festival on 18 May at Aselton Park in Hyannis from 1100 to 1600. The Cape Cod Maritime Festival is part of Cape Cod Maritime Days which runs from 3 to 31 May. The Cape Cod Maritime Museum presents the seventh annual Maritime Festival, a fun family outdoor festival celebrating Cape Cod's rich maritime history and heritage featuring arts and crafts, demonstrations by local historical/nautical organizations, local seafood, kids' activities, and musical performances. For information, visit www.ecapechamber.com/MaritimeDays/.

CCSPS will also take part in and support the Cape Cod Canal Water & Boating Safety Day on 31 May from 1000 to 1500. Held at the CCC Visitor Center, US Coast Guard Station and Sandwich Marina on Ed Moffitt Drive in Sandwich, it is sponsored by the US Army Corps of Engineers. Vessel Safety Check and USPS promotional material will also be provided. Get ready for a fun and safe summer by joining the US Army Corps of Engineers, US Coast Guard, the Massachusetts Environmental Police, and others for a day full of water and boating safety activities for all ages. The event will include games for kids, prizes, dockside tours of agency boats, free vessel safety checks, and rescue demonstrations. For more information, visit <http://www.nae.usace.army.mil/recreati/ccc/recreati/recreation.htm>

As written in the latest online April issue of BoatUS, Don Casey has some fire extinguisher realities. They don't give us much confidence in the event of a large fire on our boats. Here is what he has to say:

“Here is a statistic you should know. Those 10-BC dry chemical fire extinguishers we all carry (designated B-I by the Coast Guard) will discharge for about 10 seconds. For an onboard fire with a head start, that won't be long enough to put out the fire. Then what?

“If your boat is larger than 26', Coast Guard regulations require a second B-I extinguisher aboard, either that or a larger B-II. A second 10-BC gives you another nine second shot-if the fire hasn't put this second unit out of reach. A B-II extinguisher is better, carrying at least a 60-BC rating, which doesn't mean the extinguisher will discharge for six times as long, but does mean it has six times the extinguishing capacity. But if your single B-II is on the other side of the flames...

“Meeting Coast Guard requirements equips your boat to extinguish only the smallest of onboard fires. For real protection, take aboard B-II extinguishers, or at least the larger B-I, rated 40-BC. All but the smallest watercraft should have at least two extinguishers aboard, mounted in opposite ends of the boat.”

It is always better to be on the side of over protection, but it sounds as if, to me, with only seconds of spray protection from the fire extinguishers, in case of a large onboard fire, I'm heading for the nearest exit with my life jacket on!

Circle the Dates

18 May: Cape Cod Maritime Festival, Aselton Park, Hyannis (part of National Safe Boating Week, 17-23 May).

31 May: Cape Cod Canal Water and Boating Safety Day, Cape Cod Canal Visitor Center, Ed Moffitt Drive, Sandwich

14-15 June: Oak Bluffs Rendezvous (see details, this issue).

14-15 June: Cape Cod & Islands Boating & Recreation Expo, Aselton Park, Hyannis.

4 July: Chatham 4th of July Parade. To march, contact Lee Johnson, 508-398-7256.

26 July: Egg Island Family Rendezvous (see Rendezvous Contacts, this issue).

2 August: District 14 Rendezvous (details TBD)

20 August: Illumination Night, Oak Bluffs (see details, this issue).

12-14 September: Nantucket Rendezvous (see Rendezvous Contacts, this issue).

Rendezvous Contacts to sign up for email updates

All who did not sign up at the Change of Watch: For the 5 paddles (19 June, 5 & 26 July, 24 August, 5 October), E-mail Max Sarazin msarazin@capecod.net. For other rendezvous, Hugh Blair-Smith 508-385-3318 or hugh.bs@verizon.net.

ILLUMINATION NIGHT

The lanterns and music of Oak Bluffs Campground

Lt/C Hugh Blair-Smith, SN

This event (20 Aug) is getting more popular: the Masons beat us to the punch for the bigger boat, Patriot Too. So we've booked the smaller boat Quickwater, capacity 40 instead of 49. We've also reserved gentler weather than last year, unless there's a hurricane, in which case we didn't. If in doubt about weather, check Vineyard Haven radio WMVY 92.7FM after 1500.

For an introduction to this great New England island tradition, take a look at http://vineyard.plumtv.com/stories/illumination_night_beginners. We'll be combining forces with Buzzards Bay Sail and Power Squadron again, and expect the boat to be full. Plan ahead (and pay ahead) to assure your place on board. The waiting list will take the hindmost, but will provide replacements for anybody who has to cancel out.

Anybody planning to carry a 5-gallon jerry can of mainland gasoline to sell on the island at a huge profit is advised that they won't let you on the boat with it!

The Quickwater departs Falmouth Town Marina at 1800 and departs Oak Bluffs at 2220 for the return to Falmouth at 2300. Send a check ($17 to CCSPS) to Mary Lou Walsh at Box 14, Dennisport 02639.

OAK BLUFFS RENDEZVOUS

More fun, less hassle this year

Lt/C Hugh Blair-Smith, SN

First rendezvous (14-15 June) of the season, with a new twist: we've been so good at bringing substantial hors d'oeuvres for the Saturday dockside cocktail party that we won't schedule a dinner anywhere.

Oak Bluffs Marina has a new feature this year: a launch service ($4 per person round trip), so we could pick up moorings. Rafting limit is 4 per ball. Moorings cannot be reserved but there will be enough (12 boats could use just 3 moorings, for instance). Oak Bluffs Launch monitors VHF 71.

Slips can be reserved for an in-season rate of $3/ft ($90 minimum) up to 40 feet; two-night reservation rule waived when you identify yourself with the CCSPS group.

There's also a $1 infrastructure fee. The best way to reserve a slip is to visit www.oakbluffsharbor.com and fill in the secure reservation form, remembering to mention the Squadron on the cost page.

Procrastinators or mooring picker-uppers can call on the day of arrival, on VHF 71.

Special procedure for this rendezvous only: please contact Lt/C Michael Leyden, P, 508-398-7554 or michael@leydenteam.com to add your name to the email update list; skippers please include boat name, LOA, and beam. This is because I'll be away for most of the 3 weeks before the rendezvous.

MAY DINNER MEETING
A Festival of Financial and Musical Numbers

Lt/C Hugh Blair-Smith, SN

The Grand Finale of this season's dinner meetings will be at Christopher's, South Yarmouth, on 22 May. Serious business will focus on the annual budget and audit report. Entertainment consists of sea chanteys rendered by our very own Dave Akin and his guitar, in the course of which he'll invite us all to take part in the rendering.

Important note: as I will spend that day on and around St. Kilda's off Scotland, my PO Box will go untended from 17 May until well after the dinner, so please remember to send your reservations to Mary Lou Walsh! Also, Michael Leyden, as aide to XO, will be setting up, checking in, and like that.
