

Name: _____

Date: _____

Circling Subject and Object Pronouns Part 1

A pronoun is a word that may take the place of one or more nouns.

Directions: Circle the subject pronoun in each sentence below.

Example A- We are going to the store today.

Answer- We

1. I think that we are ready for the game.
2. We are going to the football game this weekend.
3. He is a bright young man.
4. It is one of the best movies I have seen.
5. Tell her that she must arrive on time.

Directions: Circle the object pronoun in each sentence below.

Example A: Can you tell the news to him?

Answer: him

6. Can you make sure they arrive on time to his party?
7. He decided to give a gift to her for her birthday.
8. Please take them to the park.
9. I kicked the ball very hard, and the ball hit him in the head.
10. I'm not sure if he brought it or not.