

THE NON-PROFIT HOUSING ASSOCIATION OF NORTHERN CALIFORNIA

BROWN BAG TRAINING:

FIND THE RIGHT SITES: MAXIMIZING THE USE OF GIS FOR AFFORDABLE HOUSING

Thursday, May 29, 2014

12:00 to 2:00 PM (Lunch is provided at 11:30 a.m. for extra time to eat and network).

NPH Conference Room, 369 Pine Street, Suite 310, San Francisco (Montgomery BART)

Cities and counties across the Bay Area are currently in the process of updating their housing elements, providing key opportunities to identify housing opportunity sites.

This Brown Bag workshop will detail how affordable housing developers and planners can use the Geographic Information System (GIS) as a tool to identify suitable locations for affordable housing development and preservation. Panelists will discuss how GIS enables developers to become better decision-makers by applying geographic analysis. Affordable housing developers, local government planners, policymakers and advocates are encouraged to attend.

Please register by Monday, May 26, as space is limited.

Convenor: Andrea Papanastassiou, Deputy Director of Real Estate Consulting, Northern California Community Loan Fund

Speakers: Teresa Davis, Analyst Northern California Community Loan Fund
Roy Chan, Senior Planner, Chinatown Community Development Center
