Welcome to the Second Annual Clark County Title 11 GAL Re-Certification Training!

The purposes of this program are to provide a LOCAL AND AFFORDABLE opportunity for:

- Re-certification training for Title 11 Guardians ad Litem
- CLEs for attorneys
- CEUs for Certified Professional Guardians and others who require CEU credits
- Interesting educational experience for anyone interested in guardianship issues

Planned speakers and topics

- Dr. Stephen Meharg – Neuropsychologist: “Hoarding and How to Work Effectively with Hoarders”
- Chris Babich – Attorney: “Evaluating Less Restrictive Alternatives and Powers of Attorney”
- Mike Teefy – Social Security Consultant: “Social Security: Overview of SSI and SSA Benefits and Representative Pay”
- Judge Diane Woolard, Jim Sensecu – Attorney, & Scott Weber – Superior Court Clerk: “VAPO and Guardianships – Similarities, Differences and Coordinating the Two”
- Judge Barbara Johnson, Judge Robert Lewis & Commissioner Dayann Liebman: “A View From the Bench”
- Jill Sasser – Attorney & Julie Payne – Attorney: “Case Law Update and Ethics Reminders – What NOT to do”

Note: Clark County Superior Court Administration does not require re-certification annually at this or any other training in order to remain on the registry rotation list, but encourages all interested GALs to attend this local training.

Report Writing Workshop:

This will be a practical, hands-on workshop to address content, organizational, ethical and style issues in report writing. You will leave with a set of examples, templates and resources to ensure that you have what you need to prepare and deliver complete and readable GAL reports.
