Details of Proposed Honours Program

Proposed Course

Honours in Gender Studies & Social Analysis

Combined Honours in Gender Studies & Social Analysis and another Discipline

Please specify second discipline _____

NB: This form does not constitute application to study Honours, combined or otherwise, in any discipline other than GSSA. Students wishing to study combined Honours must apply separately to each discipline, and should consult the relevant Honours Coordinators prior to making this application.

Do you wish to study Honours:

Full Time (1 year)  Part Time over 2 years

NB: Application for permission to spread the work of Honours over two years must be sought separately from the Faculty Registrar once admission to Honours has been granted. This application should be made before 31 March (or 31 August for students commencing mid year) and will not normally be granted if the student has chosen to enrol in another course concurrently.

The grounds for granting permission to do Honours over two years are limited to the following:

- (i) students with care-giver responsibilities
- (ii) students in greater than or equal to half time employment
- (iii) students with a significant sickness or disability
- (iv) students enrolled for part of the Honours program in an overseas institution
- (v) compassionate reasons.

In all reasons it should be clear that the student is unable to (rather than chooses not to) complete the requirements on a full-time basis.

Commencement date

Semester 1  Semester 2 (mid year enrolment)

Students wishing to commence mid year should seek approval from the Honours Coordinator before submitting this form. Approval will be granted only in exceptional circumstances.
